

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

HITHERTO students of Russian who attempted to learn the language without the help of a teacher have been met by a grave initial difficulty — the want of a good Grammar. As a general rule they availed themselves of Reiff's "English-Russian Grammar," but it left much to be desired. There existed, it is true, in French and German, Grammars on the Ollendorff System, but in English there was little aid to be obtained beyond what Reiff could give. In order to meet the demand caused by the growing interest in the Russian language—a language which has been neglected in a manner for which it is difficult to account, but to which political circumstances have lately given a novel importance—Mr. Trübner has caused the present work to be prepared, and he has asked me to supply it with a few lines of Preface, which I do willingly.

I am far from thinking Ollendorff's System the best possible, but in the present instance there was not much choice. For Mr. Riola's present work, which is based upon that system, there will doubtless be a demand, there being numbers of students who wish to gain some acquaintance with Russian, but who are unable, if living in the country, to find a master. To them the present work will be practically useful, whereas a scientific Grammar, such as would satisfy a linguist, would be of little value to the general public, and would command little or no sale.

I can vouch, from personal knowledge, for the fact that Mr. Riola has performed his work most conscientiously, having taken very great pains to elucidate what in previous works on the subject was left obscure, and having, I think, succeeded in rendering comparatively easy what has generally been considered a difficult task. I shall be glad indeed if I find it serves the purpose of aiding those readers who take an intelligent interest in a language spoken by forty millions of people, a language rich, sonorous and lucid, and which is the key to a vigorous young literature, destined, I am sure, to make its voice widely heard. The greater the number in England of Students of Russian, the more Englishmen will there be free from the extraordinary ignorance about all things Russian which now makes itself so widely felt.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

THE almost total neglect that the Russian Language has hitherto met with in this country is capable of two explanations, one of which may be said to include the other, namely, its supposed insurmountable difficulties and the want of a good Grammar. On the first point, suffice it to say that there is nothing—absolutely nothing—which should deter the student. The prominent features of the language are clearness and methodical arrangement. If the contrary have been found to be the case, it is owing to no other causes than the defective methods and the insufficient or faulty explanations presented by the Grammars hitherto published both in this country and on the Continent.

Now the fact is well worthy of notice that while, on the one hand, English authors in every department of History, Fiction and Poetry are known and appreciated throughout the length and breadth of the Russian Empire; on the other hand, save to a select few, the bulk of a new, vigorous and original literature, comprising invaluable geographical, ethnological and linguistical treasures, the product of Slavonic life, thought and culture as developed in Russia, has imparted nothing to the educated classes of England beyond a few paltry translations and a few names. What reasons are we to assign for this failure of reciprocity? We have not far to seek. The student of Russian, however diligent, is confronted at the outset by a paucity of Grammars. But not only is his choice thus limited, but even should he select Reiff's, as the one best known, he will search through its pages in vain for the solution of the difficulties he may encounter in his course of reading. If to this we add, as is too often the case, a teacher unable to enlighten him, what wonder that, in the face of ever new and recurring obstacles and discouragements, he should relinquish altogether the study, under the despairing conviction that the chief phenomena of the language are beyond the reach of comprehension and illustration?

I confidently repeat, however, that this is far from being the case, and that Russian is easy of acquirement by dint of average diligence and perseverance. It now remains for me to state briefly in what respects I have opened new paths, or made old ones less rugged, for the attainment of this object.

The experience of a course of tuition of this my native language during several years in London has convinced me that Ollendorff's Method, qualified by some necessary modifications, is the one most suitable for all classes of learners. On its merits it is not for me to expatiate here: they have stood the test of time; and leaving this point for the present, I proceed to indicate the special features which, I trust, render this work far superior to those published in France or Germany.

To begin with Pronunciation, I have devoted a minute and exhaustive treatise, supplemented with tables of reference, to the powers of the Alphabet, both proper and accidental. One observation, however, is here necessary. Some Grammarians have sought to represent the ambiguous distinctions of unaccented vowels by numerical indications. To make my meaning clear, the reader must know that Russian is similar to English in this respect. For instance, in "admirable," the vowel-sounds of the three last syllables are somewhat equivocal, although Walker attempted to assign a fixity to each in this and in all other examples. Again, take a in "Indian." Is not its proper sound purely conventional? Now it must be understood that Russian polysyllables are open to analogous observations. Nevertheless, I have considered it my duty to refrain from laying down rules thereon, feeling convinced that all such attempts must prove not only burdensome to the memory, but utterly illusory and abortive. These niceties, the result doubtless of rapidity of colloquial utterance, are influenced, be it remembered, by nature, education, caprice, and a variety of other causes, and defy classification. Under the guidance of a native, they are readily apprehended and retained; and I will add, for the benefit of the self-instructor, that if he thoroughly possess the distinct vowels, both proper and accidental, he may safely let the unaccented ones shift for themselves, and rest assured that his pronunciation will be perfectly intelligible to the ear of any Russian.

In treating of Orthography, I have considered a knowledge of words in which the letter Ѣ occurs so indispensable, that I have subjoined a complete list of them, the more so that this letter is a stumbling-block even to many natives.

I cannot too strongly recommend the mastery of inflexions and terminations, inasmuch as they constitute, so to speak, the be-all and end-all of this great Slavonic idiom. This step once passed over, the storing up of roots in the memory becomes an easy and profitable task, and the rules of construction can be digested at leisure. And this object I have constantly borne in mind in the framing of the exercises. I have purposely grouped the most difficult combinations, in order to bring the learner face to face with this paramount requisite, and that too at the risk of trifling inelegancies and incongruities, especially in the early themes. It is chiefly in this department that the value of Ollendorff's Method becomes apparent. The mere learning of rules, or of any other grammatical exposition, will never impart the faculty of readiness and resource in using the inflexions of a living language, unless a progressive praxis of combination and inversion be superadded. This, however, cannot be afforded by dealing with each part of speech in separate detail, but by a judicious intermixture of all, at the very outset, and thus passing gradually from the simplest to the most complex forms of discourse. That examples, however varied, are valueless without rule or guiding principle, is also true; and on this head I trust that I leave nothing to be desired in point of conciseness and intelligibility. At the same time, throughout the Exercises, I have strenuously and, I hope, successfully aimed at variety of topic and illustration, to the end that the learner who has worked at this branch may find himself in possession, not only of a copia verborum, but of a copia fandi on subjects of common life, such as he may search for in vain in Manuals of Dialogues and Vocabularies. Exception might possibly be taken by some persons to the frequency of interrogative sentences with и; but it cannot be known too soon that herein lies a cardinal point of conception in the Russian mind, affecting especially the construction of interrogative clauses; and unless this point be fully seized by the Englishman, he will fall into grievous blunders in the framing of questions:

My exposition of the Verb is founded on that of the Russian Grammarians most in repute. Some foreign ones have presumably aimed at journeying by easy stages, by means of minute subdivisions of what they are pleased to misname classes and branches. All such methods are erroneous, and lead to inevitable confusion. The simple and easily retained distinctions are those on which my countrymen have settled, namely, two conjugations, and these subdivided into ten classes, eight of which belong to the first and two to the second conjugation. Besides this, each verb is susceptible of three branches—the present, past, and iterative. Thus the verb is the stem from which the branches spring. To these we add only thirteen irregular verbs. All the regular ones I have not failed to illustrate by complete tables of reference.

But inasmuch as the Russian verb possesses Aspects, by whose agency it becomes such a supple instrument of thought as to be unrivalled even by the Greek verb, I felt it my duty to enter into great detail on this point, and I trust that the lessons given on this subject leave nothing to be desired by way of explanation. At the same time, I conceived that I should fail in presenting a full picture of moods and aspects had I stopped there. I have therefore given in the Appendix paradigms of conjugation in all voices, and, by parallel contrasts of aspects, it will be seen at a glance in what particular tense each one is found or wanting. Any mere statement by itself would have afforded less valuable assistance.

The declensions, with copious tables, are given in the Practical Part, according to gender, as being most suited to the requirements of a beginner. In the Appendix, however, for those already initiated, Nouns are divided into two classes, according to the inflexions of the genitive, as laid down by Russian Grammarians.

A list of Adverbs and Prepositions, with their government, are to be found, with copious illustrations, and leave, I hope, nothing unnoticed in this vital part of Syntax.

Idiomatic forms, a constant source of embarrassment, are fully grappled with and lucidly explained throughout the work. I would point especially to those of было and бывало, which, although of frequent recurrence both in writing and speaking, have hitherto failed in securing their due share of attention.

On the Order of Words no less than two lessons are given, with much detail and appropriate exercises and examples. It seemed to me that a subject so important, embracing as it does the arrangement and structure of periods, and presenting wide divergences from the genius of the English language, was deserving of nothing short of a separate and somewhat lengthy treatise.

It were perhaps tedious to enumerate the other features of this work; they can be easily discovered by a fair and intelligent comparison with any of its predecessors. I will only state, in addition, that I have steadily kept in view the object of self-tuition, and have constantly endeavoured to afford every assistance in cases where oral teaching might be either unattainable or insufficient.

After all, it must be borne in mind that the merits or the shortcomings of an undertaking like the present are unaffected by the praise or censure of critics alone, however discerning. Their true test and arbiter is time, upon whose verdict I confidently rely. I trust, too, that my humble labours may prove of some assistance in promoting the interchange of enlightenment between two great nations, on whose mutual esteem and friendship so much depends the welfare of the world.

DIVISION OF THE LETTERS OF THE RUSSIAN ALPHABET.

THERE are in the Russian Alphabet thirty-six letters, of which twelve are vowels, twenty-one are consonants, and three are semivowels.

The vowels (гласныя буквы) are :

а, е, и, і, о, у, ы, ѣ, ѓ, ю, я, ѵ.

It may be well to note that the following five, е, ѣ, я, ю, и are also called diphthongs (двугласныя).

The twenty-one consonants (согласныя буквы) are :

б, в, г, д, ж, з, к, л, м, н, п, р, с, т, ф, х, ц, ч, ш, щ, ѓ.

The three semivowels (полугласныя буквы) are :

ъ, ь, й.

The English Alphabet has no letters corresponding to the following in the Russian Alphabet :

ы, ѣ, я, ѣ, ь, й, ѓ, ч, щ, щ, ѓ, ѵ.

The Russian Alphabet, on the other hand, has not the English j, w, x, the h mute, or the sounds of th as in the English words that and thin.

PRONUNCIATION OF THE LETTERS.

NOTE.—Each syllable in English words, representing the Russian pronunciation, should be pronounced as is directed in Table No. II.; and until the student is thoroughly sure of the correct sound of every Russian letter, he should always consult that table. By following closely the sounds as they are given he will be able, without the assistance of a teacher, to pronounce so as to be understood even by uneducated Russians.

A. THE VOWELS (ГЛАСНЫЯ БУКВЫ).

А, а.

Proper Sounds.

This vowel, when accented, is pronounced :

1. as the a in the following English words : art, far, star ; as, for example, даръ, dar, 'the gift ;' дала, da-la, 'gave.'

2. When not accented is pronounced in the same way, but somewhat weaker, and approaching the sound of a in the English word fat ; as, наша, na-sha, 'our ;' пара, para, 'the pair.'

Accidental Sounds.

1. When not accented in the middle of a word, after the hissing consonants, ж, ч, ш, щ, the vowel a is pronounced as the e in the words met, bet :

кожа, kozha, 'the skin ;' часы, che-sy, 'the watch.'

лошадь, loshedí, 'a horse ;' пища, pésh-cha, 'the food.'

2. When accented in the termination аго of the genitive case of adjectives, the vowel a is pronounced like the o in the words no, blow :

дурнаго, door-no-ra, 'of bad ;'

глупаго, ne-mo-ra, 'of dumb.'

It should be observed that at the end of words the vowel a, whether accented or not, always retains its proper sound of a, as in far or fat.

Е, е.

Proper Sounds.

This soft vowel after a consonant has—

1. The sound of e, as in the words met, bet :

берегъ, be-reg, 'the shore ;'

чело, che-lo, 'the brow.'

NOTE.—In the above examples of met and bet the sound of Russian e is well represented ; but after some other consonants an Englishman is apt to pronounce the e much harder than is required. It must therefore be born in mind that the e should always be heard soft, as if the consonant were followed by the English yea ; thus нетъ, детъ, летъ, тетъ should not be pronounced as the English net, det, let, tet, but as if they were written with yea, as nyeat, dyeat, lyeat, tyeat, etc.

2. At the beginning of words and after vowels it has the sound of diphthong ye, as in the words yes, yellow :

если, yes-lě, 'if ;' ему, ye-moo, 'to him.'

Accidental Sounds.

- I. The diphthong e (ye) is pronounced also like yo (ě) :

1. When accented, as in the words yonder, yoke :

ѣлка, yoł-ka, 'the fir ;'

моѣ, ma-yo, 'mine.'

2. In the accented terminations еуѡ, емѡ, емѡ, еме of the present tense of verbs :

даѣшь, da-yoash, 'thou givest ;'

берѣтъ, be-ryot, 'he takes.'

- II. After the consonants ж, ч, ш, щ, ц, the vowel e has the sounds of o in the following cases :

1. At the end of words :

лицѣ, lě-tso, 'the face.'

2. When coming before a consonant, which is followed by one of the hard vowels a, o, y, ы, or ѡ :

счѣтъ, s-chot, 'the account.'

- III. It sounds like yo or o in the accented termination ѣю or ѣѡ of the instrumental case of feminine nouns :

землѣю, zem-lyo-u, 'with the land ;'

душѣю, doo-sho-u, 'by the soul ;'

and, when accented, before the gutturals г, к, х and the hissing letters ж and ш :

ѣ—далѣкъ, da-lyok, 'distant;'

о—жѣръ, zhog, 'burnt.'

OBS.—Many writers place a diæresis (¨) over the letter ѣ when it is to be pronounced as yo or o. In order therefore to facilitate the pronunciation of this letter, whenever in this work the letter e is pronounced as yo or o, a diæresis (¨) will be placed over it, and in such case it will be used instead of the tonic accent.

И, и.

Proper Sound.

When by itself, either at the end of a word or when it follows a consonant, this vowel is pronounced as the English é in the words me, be (mé, bé) :

Ивѣнъ, é-van, 'John;'

идѣ, é-dé, 'go.'

Accidental Sound.

After the semivowel ь, or after і (dotted), the vowel и has the sound of the diphthong yé :

статѣи, statí-yé, 'the articles;'

Марѣи, maré-yé, 'of Mary.'

І, і.

This vowel has the same sound as the preceding letter и but it must always be followed by another vowel :

ли́нїа, lé-né-ya, 'the line;'

мнѣ́нїе, mné-né-ye, 'the opinion.'

OBS.—The only instance in which this letter is found standing before a consonant is in the word миръ, mér, 'world;'¹ in order to distinguish it from the similar word миръ, mér, 'the peace.'

O, o.

Proper Sound.

This vowel when accented has the sound of o, as in the words on, pot:

ДОМЪ, dom, 'a house ;'
ЗАКОНЪ, za-kon, 'the law.'

Accidental Sound.

When unaccented it is pronounced like a short in fat:

ОБМАНЪ, ab-man, 'the deception ;'
ОСНОВАТЬ, as-na-rati, 'to found.'

Y, y.

The corresponding sound of this vowel in English is oo, as in moon, book:

УТРО, oot-ra, 'the morning ;'
ДУБЪ, doob, 'the oak.'

Ы, ы.

Proper Sounds.

This hard vowel, the Russian hard u or the English e hard, has a sound, the perfect idea of which cannot be rendered in English words, as the language does not possess so hard a sound as the vowel ы. The y in the words pity, charity, or ea in tea, approximately represent it. An Englishman, after hearing this vowel pronounced by a Russian, can easily catch it:

ТЫ, ty, or tea, 'thou ;'
ДЫРЪ, dyr, or dear, 'of holes.'

Accidental Sound.

The vowel ы after the labial consonants sounds nearly like we:

ВЫ, weé, 'you ;'
БЫЛЪ, bicél, 'was ;'
РЫЛЪ, ricél, 'dug.'

NOTE.—The hard vowel ѣ will be represented in English by the letter y.

Ѣ, ѣ.

Proper Sounds.

This soft vowel has the same sound as the Russian е, or English e as in met, or ye as in yes, with the exception that it is never pronounced as o.

Obs.—The same can be said of ѣ as of е; i.e. нѣтъ, дѣтъ, лѣтъ, etc. must be pronounced not as net, det, let, etc., but as if they were written nyeat, dyeat, lyeat, etc.

Accidental Sound.

As yo, when accented, it is heard only in the following words:

звѣзды, zvyoz-dy, 'stars ;'
гнѣзда, gnvyoz-da, 'nests ;'
обрѣлъ, ab-ryol, 'he found ;'
лѣвъ, lsvyol, 'he flourished ;'
сѣдла, syod-la, 'the saddles.'

And also in their derivatives and compounds, as :

звѣздочка, zvyoz-doch-ka, 'little star ;'
приобрѣлъ, pré-ob-ryol, 'acquired.'

Ә, ә.

This vowel has the same sound as the e in the word end, and it is never pronounced as the diphthong ye. At the beginning of words and after vowels, therefore, whenever the diphthong sound of ye is not wanted, the vowel ә must be used.

The following Russian words only are written with ә :

это́тъ, э́та, э́то, 'this ;'
э́такіѢ, э́дакіѢ, 'such,' 'such like ;'
э́такъ, 'so,' 'thus ;'
э́кіѢ, э́къ, 'what (a man).'

OBS.—There are some other words beginning with the letter э, but they are of foreign origin, mostly Greek, and have merely been adopted by the Russian language, as :

эра, эра, 'era.'

экзаменъ, ek-za-men, 'the examination ;'

эшафотъ, e-sha-fot, 'the scaffold,' etc.

Ю, ю.

Proper Sound.

1. At the beginning of words, and after vowels or semi-vowels, the vowel ю has exactly the same sound as the English u in the words use, or ew in the words pew, new.

югъ, ug, young, 'the south ;'

даю, da-u, da-you, 'I give ;'

пью, p-u, pew, 'I drink.'

2. After consonants, ю has no longer the sound of the diphthong u (you), but approaches it, like u in the word tube :

говорю, ga-ta-ru, 'I speak ;'

люблю, lub-lu, 'I love.'

OBS.—Particular care should be taken that ю should never be pronounced as the English u in full, bull, etc., but always as in tube.

Accidental Sound.

In words which have come from the French language, ю retains the sound of French u :

Брюссель, 'Brussels ;'

Дюма, 'Dumas.'

NOTE.—The English u represents the Russian ю.

Я, я.

Proper Sound.

1. At the beginning of words and after vowels and semi-vowels, this letter when accented has the sound of the diphthong ya, as in the word yard :

я́ма, ya-ma, 'hole ;'

дѣ́лая, de-la-ya, 'doing.'

2. After consonants the vowel я is no longer pronounced as diphthong ya, but when accented it sounds very much like ya :

лю́бя, lu-bya, 'loving ;'

за́ря, za-rya, 'the dawn ;'

Obs.—At the end of words the vowel я, whether accented or not, retains its proper sound of ya : except in the suffix ся in reflective verbs pronounced sa.

коро́ля, ku-ra-lya, 'of the king ;'

потѣ́ря, pa-te-rya, 'the loss.'

Accidental Sounds.

1. At the beginning of words, and after vowels or semi-vowels, when unaccented the vowel я is pronounced as ye in the word yes :

я́йцо, yey-tso, 'an egg ;'

за́яць, za-yets, 'the hare ;'

та́ялъ, ta-yel, 'melted.'

2. After consonants, and when unaccented, it has the sound of the simple vowel e, as in met :

па́мьятъ, pa-met, 'the memory ;'

потѣ́ряно, pa-te-re-no, 'lost.'

V, v.

This vowel never changes its natural sound of и (English é), and is pronounced as the English é in the words bé, mé.

Obs.—It is used in but very few words, derived from the Greek, as мýро, впостáсъ, etc.

B. THE CONSONANTS (СОГЛАСНЫЯ БУКВЫ).

Proper Sound.

THE consonants б, в, д, з have the same sound as the English b, v, d, z. All these consonants retain their proper sound before vowels, or when they are followed by a liquid or by any other weak consonant.

Before vowels.

БѢДА, be-da, 'ill-luck ;'
ВѢДѢТЬ, vê-del, 'he saw ;'
ДАТЬ, dal, 'he gave ;'
ЗОВѢТЬ, zof, 'the call.'

Before liquid and weak consonants.

БЛАГО, bla-ho, 'good ;'
ВНѢ, ene, 'out ;'
ДЛЯ, dlya, 'for ;'
ВРЯТЪ, zrêt, 'he sees.'

Accidental Sounds.

All the above letters at the end of words ending with the hard semivowel ъ, or when placed before strong consonants, take the sound of their corresponding letters :

П, Ф, Т, С

р, ф, т, с

Before ъ at the end of words.

БОБЪ, bor, 'the bean ;'
РОГЪ, rof, 'the ditch ;'
САДЪ, sat, 'the garden ;'
НОЖЪ, nos, 'the knife.'

Before hard consonants.

БАБКА, bâp-ka, 'the knuckle ;'
ЛОДКА, lôt-ka, 'the boat ;'
ЛОВКО, lof-ko, 'cleverly ;'
СВЯЗКА, svyaz-ka, 'the bundle.'

Ж, ж.

As there is no equivalent letter in the English Alphabet for this consonant, zh will represent the letter ж.

The proper sound of this consonant is the same as the French j in the word jour.

The sound of s in the English words treasure, pleasure, of the sound of z as in the words glazier, grazier, represent well the sound of the consonant ж.

Proper Sound.

Before a vowel, or before a liquid, or any other weak consonant, the letter ж retains its proper sound :

жилъ, zhél, 'he lived ;'

жму, zhmoo, 'I press.'

Accidental Sound.

At the end of a word ending in ъ, or ѣ, or before a strong consonant, the ж is pronounced like its corresponding letter ш (sh), as :

ножъ, knife, is pronounced ' nosh ;'

ножка, little foot, is pronounced ' noshka.'

Г, Г.

Proper Sound.

1. The sound of this consonant is generally the same as that of the English g before a, o, r, as in game, God, grass :

годъ, god, 'the year ;'

гадъ, gad, 'the reptile ;'

груша, groo-sha, 'the pear.'

2. Г aspirated is pronounced like the English h in hay, habit :

Господи, hós-podé, 'God ;'

благó, bla-ha, 'well.'

OBS.—At one time the Russian language had only the r aspirated, as in the words hay, habit ; but in the language of the present day it is no longer used, except in a few words, as Гѳсподѳ, благо, the former г being replaced by г hard, as the g in God, game, grass.

Accidental Sounds.

1. When the letter г ends a word, or is placed before the consonant ш, it sounds very nearly like к :

кругъ, krook, 'the circle ;'
помѳгъ, pa-mok, 'he helped.'

Obs.—Exceptions to this rule are met with in the words Богъ and убогъ, wherein г is not pronounced as к, but as х (kh or German ch) :

Богъ, bokh,—boch, 'God ;'
убогъ, oo-bokh,—oo-boch, 'poor.'

2. Before the consonants к and т (k, t) г is pronounced as х (kh) as :

легко, lekh-ko, 'easily .'
ногти, nokh-té, 'the nails.'

3. In foreign words ending in гръ the sound of х (kh) is heard instead of г, as in Петерѳбургъ, pe-ter-boorkh, 'St. Petersburg ;'

Днѳбургъ, dé-na-boorkh, 'Dunaburg.'

4. Г is pronounced as в (v) in the terminations аго, яго, оро, еро of the genitive case of Adjectives or Pronouns :

дѳбраго, do-bra-ra, 'of good ;'
сѳняго, sé-nya-ra, 'of blue ;'
того, ta-to, 'of that ;'
моего, ma-ye-to, 'of mine.'

К, к.

Proper Sound.

The sound of this consonant is exactly like the English c hard before the vowels a, o, as in the words can, come, or the English k in the words key, king :

КОТЪ, koť, 'the cat ;'

КАКЪ, kak, 'how ;'

КРИКЪ, krék, 'the cry.'

Accidental Sounds.

The accidental sounds of к are г or х. When the letter к occurs in the preposition къ before the feeble consonants б, д, ж, з, it has the sound of its corresponding consonant г, as :

къ Бóгу, g' bo-hoo, 'to God ;'

къ дóму, g' do-moo, 'to the house ;'

къ женѣ, g' zhêne, 'to the wife ;'

къ землѣ, g' zémle, 'to the earth.'

When before the strong consonants к, т, ч, the letter к is pronounced like х (kh, German ch), as :

кто, khto, 'who ;'

къ кому́, kh ko-moo, 'to whom ;' а къ ча́су, kh cha-soo, 'to the hour.'

NOTE.—The letter к will be represented by the English k.

C, T.

Proper Sound.

These consonants have the same sound as the English letters s and t in the words sister, sat, cross, tar, trot.

сло́во, slo-va, 'the word ;'

истóрiя, és-to-ré-ya, 'history ;'

травá, tra-ra, 'the grass ;'

то́тъ, tot, 'that.'

Accidental Sounds.

Before б, г, д, ж, з, the letters с and т take the sound of their corresponding consonants з and д, as in сбродъ, zbrod, 'the mob ;'

 сговѣръ, zga-tor, 'the betrothal ;'
 сдалъ, zdał, 'he gave up ;'
 сжѣгъ, z-zhog, 'he burnt ;'
 сзади, z-zadé, 'from behind ;'
 отдалъ, od-dal, 'he gave up.'

Before the hissing consonants ш and ч, the letter c is pronounced nearly like ш (sh), as :

съ шапкой, sh' shap-kou, 'with the cap ;'
 съ часу, sh' sha-oo, 'from the hour.'

When cr is followed by н, the consonant r is not heard at all, as in the English word listen, when the t, as in Russian, is not heard :

честный, ches-nay, 'honest ;'
 постный, pos-nay, 'meagre.'

П, Ф

have corresponding sounds in the English letters p and f, as in post, proper ; far, grief :

пара, pa-ra, 'a pair ;'
 проза, pro-za, 'prose ;'
 франція, fran-tsé-ya, 'France ;'
 фонари, fa-na-ré, 'the lanterns.'

Х, Х.

The sound of this letter is the same as the German ch :

ихъ, éch—ekh, 'them ;'
 хоръ, chor—khor, 'the choir ;'
 духъ, dooch—dookh, 'the spirit.'

NOTE.—The letter x will be represented by kh.

Ш, ш.

The English double consonant sh, as in the words she, dish, represents this consonant :

шипъ, shép, 'thorn ;'

мышъ, mysh, 'mice ;'

душа doo-sha, 'soul.'

smush China ?

Щ, щ.

? The English language has no such sound as щ. This letter, however, being composed of the two combined sounds of sh and ch (shch), both of which are in the English language, a little practice only is needed to acquire a perfect pronunciation of this compound consonant. Particular attention must be drawn to the fact that foreigners have always a tendency to commence this consonant with the single letter s, instead of the sh. Students should therefore be careful in the pronunciation of this letter, and avoid the simple sound of s.

Proper Sound.

щитъ, shchét, 'the shield ;'

пища, pésh-cha, 'the food ;'

тащилъ, tash-chél, 'he dragged.'

Accidental Sound.

The consonant щ, when followed by н, is pronounced as ш (sh), as in помощникъ, pa-mosh-nik, 'assistant ;'

овощный, o-vash-nay, 'vegetable.'

Ч, ч. Ѹ

Proper Sound.

This letter has exactly the same sound as the English double consonant ch in the words church, chose, which :

чудо, choo-da, 'marvel ;'

лечу, le-choo, 'I fly ;'

ночи, no-ché, 'nights.'

Accidental Sound.

Before the consonants т and н it is pronounced as ш (sh) :

что, sh-to, 'what ;'

нарóчно, na-rosh-na, 'expressly.'

Ц, ц.

The proper sound of this consonant is the same as the German z ; its sound is as tz in the noun howitzer.

цѣна, tse-na, 'price ;'

дворѣцъ, dva-rets, 'palace ;'

лицó, lê-tso, 'face.'

NOTE.—The letter ц will be represented by ts.

Θ, θ.

This consonant (the English ph) has the same sound as f, but is used only in words derived from the Greek, as :

Аѣны, a-phê-ny, 'Athens ;'

Апоѣѡзъ, a-po-phê-oz, 'apotheosis ;'

Θеодоръ, phê-o-dor, 'Theodore ;'

каллиграѡя, kal-lê-gra-phê-ya, 'caligraphy.'

Л л, М м, Н н, Р р.

These four liquid consonants have the same sound as the English l, m, n, r in the words land, me, name, road ; ball, drum, on, bar :

лѣсъ, дѣло, less, dela, 'the forest, business ;'

мáло, зима, mala, zêma, 'a little, the winter ;'

нашъ, она, nash, ana, 'our, she ;'

родъ, бýря, rod, boo-rya, 'the gender, the storm.'

ОБЪ. 1.—Before the hard vowels or strong consonants л is heard much more distinctly or much stronger than it is elsewhere ; in fact as though it were double, as in the English words well, Lloyd.

Obs. 2.—P is like the Irish r, i.e. the rolling produced by the tip of the tongue coming against the roof of the mouth and upper front teeth needs to be stronger than it usually is with the English r.

C. THE SEMIVOWELS (Полугласныя).

Ъ, Ъ, and Й.

Ъ.—The hard semi-vowel ъ has no sound whatever when by itself; it can be placed only at the end of a syllable or word, and in that case it gives to the preceding consonant a strong harsh sound, as if the consonant were pronounced with an effort, or were doubled, as ll in roll, ball, or rr in burr:

поѣ, poll, 'flour';
 стопѣ, s'op, 'stop';
 зоѣ, zoll, 'cross';
 нотѣ, nott, 'of notes';
 порѣ, porr, 'of pores.'

Ь.—The soft semivowel ь gives a very soft, liquid sound to the preceding consonant, as if the latter was followed by the Russian и or English e mute. The sound of the n in the termination gne, in the French words champagne, montagne, cigogne, or the sound of l in the French words peril, steril, may approximately represent the sound of the soft semivowel ь:

брѣнь, bragne, 'contest';
 кнѣнь, kigne, 'throw.'

Obs.—Neither of the above semivowels can be placed after a vowel or at the beginning of a word.

Ъ and Ъ can be met with in the middle of compound words and inflexions only, and in that case they are placed to indicate that the vowel, which immediately follows, is to be pronounced separately. Thus it appears that the semi-vowels ъ and ь can be joined to consonants only, and never to vowels.

The ъ and ь, when they come after the hissing consonants ж, ч, ш, щ, sound nearly alike ; thus, in the words ножъ, — ложъ

камышъ — мышъ,

there is scarcely any difference in sound between жъ and жь, or шъ and шь.

It is well to remark that for an Englishman the hard semivowel ъ does not present any difficulty of pronunciation. The same cannot be said of the soft ь. Under careful guidance, however, by a Russian teacher, it is readily acquired. For those, however, who may have to study Russian without assistance, the following observation is of importance:—In no case should the tongue touch the front teeth or the front part of the palate ; if this be done the pronunciation of any consonant, with the softness required in Russian, would be impossible. In commencing the study of the soft ь, the use of the English i, as in the word bit, pronounced very short, is advisable ; and the tongue should touch only the side of the teeth, or the side of the palate or cheek :

данъ, dani, 'tribute ;'

бровъ, brovi, 'eyebrow честь, chesti, 'honour ;'

боль, boli, 'pain ;'

косаръ, ko-sari, 'mower ;'

скорбъ, soorbi, 'grief ;'

есмь, yestni, 'I am ;'

степъ, stepi, 'prairie ;'

грязъ, gryazi, 'mud ;'

будь, boodi, 'be ;'

ось, osi, 'axe.'

NOTE.—As the letter e represents the Russian letter е, the soft semivowel ь may be represented by i, which should however, scarcely be heard.

Exercise on the pronunciation of the semivowels ь and ъ.

Билъ, he beat ;
 Былъ, he was ;
 Бытъ, the state ;
 Господъ, of gentlemen ;
 Данъ, given ;
 Жаръ, the heat ;
 Кровъ, the roof ;
 Мать, mate (in chess) ;
 Паръ, the steam ;
 Сынъ, the son.

Билъ, the ball ;
 Былъ, an event ;
 Бытъ, to be ;
 Господъ, Lord ;
 Данъ, the tribute ;
 Жаръ, fry, imp. ;
 Кровъ, the blood ;
 Мать, the mother ;
 Паръ, steam out, imp. ;
 Синъ, blue.

Й.

This soft semivowel, the Russian й short, has an imperfect sound by itself, and can be distinctly heard only after a vowel, with which it forms one syllable. The letter y in the words may, say, way, represents the sound of the semivowel й very well :

май, may, 'may ;'
 вѣй, wey, 'blow ;'
 пей, pey, 'drink.'

NOTE.—Й will be represented henceforth by the English letter y. Although the letter y has been already adopted to represent the hard vowel ы, there can be no confusion, as ы can only be placed after consonants, and й only after vowels.

CLASSIFICATION OF VOWELS AND CONSONANTS.

According to the pronunciation of the letters in Russian, the vowels are divided into hard and soft. The semi-vowels are either hard or soft, and the consonants are divided into sharp, flat and liquid.

A. THE VOWELS (ГЛАСНЫЯ БУКВЫ).

1. Hard (дебѣлыя), а, э, о, у, ы.
2. Soft (тѣнкія), я, е or ѣ, и or і, ю, ё.

B. THE SEMI-VOWELS (ПОЛУГЛАСНЫЯ БУКВЫ).

1. Hard (твёрдая), ъ.
2. Soft (мѣгкія), ь and й.

C. THE CONSONANTS (СОГЛАСНЫЯ БУКВЫ).

1. Sharp (твёрдыя), ф, п, т, с, ш, к, х, ц, ч, щ, ѿ.
2. Flat (мѣгкія), б, в, г, д, ж, з.
3. Liquid (плавныя), л, м, н, р.

Obs.—The liquid consonants, л, м, н, р, may be also called semiconsonants; all other consonants are mute.

The consonants are also, according to their organic formation, divided into :

1. Labials (губныя), б, в, м, п, ф.
2. Palatals (поднёбныя), л, н, р.
3. Dental (зубныя) :
 - a. Linguals (язычныя), д, т, ц.
 - b. Lisprings (шепелеватыя), з, с.
 - c. Hissings (шипящія), ж, ч, ш, щ.
4. Gutturals (гортанныя), г, к, х.

UNION AND PERMUTATION OF VOWELS.

Two hard vowels are never united together.

The vowels я, е, ю and the semivowel ь never admit before them the consonants г, к, х, nor do they in some instances even admit д, т, з, с.

In the same way the vowel и, in the formation of derivative words, never admits before it г, к, х, ц.

A. PERMUTATION OF CONSONANTS.

1. д, г, з	} before я, е, и, ю, ь change into	{ ж ч ш щ.
2. т, к, ц
3. с, х
4. ст, ск

B. PERMUTATION OF VOWELS.

1. я { after г, к, х, ц, ж, ч, ш, щ } а.
ю { change into } у.
2. ы after ж, ч, ш, щ, г, к, х changes into и.
3. о when unaccented after ц, ж, ч, ш, щ, changes into е.*
4. ъ after и changes into и

C. PERMUTATION OF SEMIVOWELS.

1. The semivowel ь after a vowel changes into й.
2. The semivowel ь before a consonant with ъ changes into е.
3. The semivowel ъ before two consonants changes into о.
4. The semivowel й before a consonant followed by ъ changes into е.

* When е is pronounced as yo (ё) it is usually replaced by о; as, яйцё, плечё, instead of яйце, плече.

EPENTHESIS (Вста́вка), AND PROSTHESIS (Приста́вка).

The vowels e, o, in accordance with the rule, when they replace the semivowels, are introduced for the sake of euphony between two consonants, as :

вѣтеръ instead of вѣтръ ;
крѣпокъ and not крѣпкъ.

The consonant л is inserted after the consonants в, ф, п, б, м when they are followed by the vowels e or ю, thus will be :

люблю instead of любю ;
ловлю instead of ловю ;
куплю instead of купю.

The consonants в and н are sometimes added before vowels, as :

вѣсемь instead of осмь ;
на него instead of на егѡ.

APOCOPÉ (Усѣчѣ́нiе), AND SYNCOPÉ (Изъѣ́тiе).

1. Apocope is the shortening or the omission of a syllable at the end of a word :

мноѡ instead of мною ;
чтобѡ instead of что́бы.

2. Syncope is the elision of a letter in the middle of a word, thus will be :

двѣ́нну instead of двѣ́гну.

THE TONIC ACCENT.

In dissyllabic and polysyllabic words one syllable is always pronounced with more marked emphasis and with greater effort of the voice than the remaining syllables in the same word. This modification of the voice is called the tonic accent (ударѣніе). The accented syllable of a word is called long, (дóлгіѣ), and all other syllables are short (корóткіѣ). The tonic accent in Russian books is printed only in the case of a few homonymous words, such as :

зámоръ, 'castle,' and замóкъ, 'lock ;'

or, in order to point out certain grammatical inflexions, as слóва, 'of the word,' genit. sing.

словá, 'the words,' nom. plur.

The tonic accent is indicated by a little mark (') over the vowel. As the tonic accent in Russian words cannot be determined by any definite rule, and as moreover in the formation of derivatives and in many inflexions it changes its place from one syllable to another, the accent over all Russian words in this Grammar will be marked.

Declension of Masculine Nouns, singular number.

Склонѣніе единственнаго числа мѹжескаго рѣда.

There are in the Russian Language seven Cases, one of which, however, the Vocative, is always the same as the Nominative, having a distinct termination of its own in a few Church Slavonic words only ; as, Бóже ! Исѹсе Хрис-тѣ ! Отче !

The Nominative,	Именительный падежъ.
The Vocative,	Звательный падежъ.
The Genitive or Possessive,	Родительный падежъ.
The Dative,	Дательный падежъ.

OBS. 1.—There are no Articles in the Russian Language, but in order to indicate the mutual relation of objects, the Nouns and Adjectives have different inflexions, by means of which they are declined.

OBS. 2.—The accusative case is like the genitive in the names of animate beings, and like the nominative in Nouns designating an inanimate or abstract object.

OBS. 3.—Substantives and Adjectives of hard termination are declined according to the hard declension; those of soft termination follow the soft declension.

I, thou, he. — Я, ты, онъ.

The table,	Столъ.
The bread,	Хлѣбъ.
Paris,	Парижъ.
The palace,	Дворецъ.
The castle,	Замокъ.
The lock,	Замокъ.

Obs. 4.—The present tense of the Auxiliary Verb To be (быть), in its proper sense, is always omitted. Thus in the phrases :

I am a man,	Я человекъ ;
A house is a building,	Домъ строеніе.

Am (есмь) and is (есть) are omitted although understood.

This, Этого ; Not, Не.

Obs. 5.—The negative particle не always precedes the word to which it refers :

Not I,	Не я ;
Not the table,	Не столъ.

Ли.

Interrogation is rendered by the particle ли, which must always follow the interrogative word :

Добръ-ли мальчикъ ?	Is he a kind boy ?
Мальчикъ-ли добръ ?	Is the boy kind ?
Мальчикъ-ли онъ ?	Is he a boy ? (or a girl).
Онъ-ли мальчикъ ?	Is he a boy ? (Is it he who is a boy, or some one else) ?

Obs.—Ли is not used with an Interrogative Pronoun or Adverb ; as,

Who is he ?

Кто онъ ?

When was he ?

Когда онъ былъ ?

The English it has no equivalent in Russian, and is therefore rendered by one of the Personal Pronouns of the third person : онъ, она, оно,—he, she, it ; as,

Is this house yours ?

Вашъ-ли домъ ?

Yes, it is mine.

+ Да, онъ мой

EXERCISE I.

An apricot is a fruit.—Paris is a town.—A castle is a house.—Solomon is a prophet.—He is a boy.—Is an apricot a fruit?—Yes, it is a fruit.—Is Solomon a prophet?—Yes, he is a prophet.—Is the castle a house?—Yes, it is a house. Is Paris a town?—Yes, it is a town.—Is a boy a man?—No, he is not a man, he is a boy.—The boy is not a man.—Bread is not a fruit.—He is not the prophet.—A yard is not a house. Who is he?—He is a prophet.—Is he also a prophet.—No, he is not a prophet, but this man is a prophet.—Is this house yours?—No, this house is not mine.—Who art thou? I am a man.

SECOND LESSON—Второй Урокъ.

Have you ? { † Есть-ли у Васъ ?
 Имѣете-ли Вы ?

Obs. 1.—The verb to have may be rendered in Russian by есть (is), followed by the preposition у, which governs the genitive case ; or, literally, by the verb имѣть, which governs the Accusative. The first mode of expressing possession is more widely used, and, owing to its being a purely Russian idiom, it has no equivalent expression in English. Therefore, for a few lessons, the verb есть will be treated in preference to имѣть.

To interrogate, the particle ли is added to есть, as in

Have you ? Есть-ли у Васъ.

It has already been remarked that the present tense of the verb to be (быть) is rarely made use of by Russians. The first and second persons are never used, while the third person is used, as is shown above in the place of to have or in the sense of

There is, There are, Есть.

Obs. 2.—Есть, the third person of быть, to be, in the sense of 'exist,' though the subject be in the plural, remains in the singular, as :

There is a house in the town,	Есть домъ въ городѣ.
There are houses in town,	Есть дома въ городѣ.

Obs. 3.—The third person of To be, есть, is often omitted, not only in affirmative, but even in interrogative phrases, as :

Have you the fruit ?	У васъ-ли плодъ ?
I have the fruit.	У меня плодъ.

NOTE.—У меня есть, 'I have ;' literally, 'There is to me.'

Obs. 4.—As there are no Articles in Russian, “ I have a fruit ” and “ I have the fruit ” are rendered in the same way, as :

У меня́ плодъ.

The cheese,	Сыръ.
The sugar,	Сахаръ.
The honey,	мёдъ.
The cloak,	Плащъ.
The chair,	Стулъ.
The master,	Хозяинъ.

Have you the fruit ?
I have it.

† У васъ-ли плодъ ?
† У меня́ онъ.

Obs. — It, referring to fruit, which is masculine, is translated by онъ (he).

Genders in Russian words are distinguished chiefly by their termination ; but if by their nature they represent an animate being, irrespective of their termination, they belong, as in English, to the gender of the sex they represent ; thus the word дѣдѣ, ‘uncle,’ although of feminine termination, is of masculine gender.

There are three Genders in the Russian Language :

1. Masculine,	Мужескій родъ.
2. Feminine,	Жёнскій родъ.
3. Neuter,	Средній родъ.

Obs. 6.—There are some Nouns ending in а, я, ь, and designating some quality in men, which can be used with the same termination both for masculine and feminine genders, as :

Бродѣга,	Vagabond,	} (man or woman).
Сиротѣ,	Orphan,

Such words are of common gender, общій родъ.

Yours,	Вашъ.
What (sort), which ?	Какóй ?
Which (one) ?	Котóрый ?
Which cheese have you ?	Какóй сыръ у Васъ ?

I have yours.	У меня́ Вашъ.

Fruit, Пло́дъ; adj. Плодо́вый, of fruit.
Table, Сто́лъ; adj. Столо́вый, of table.

Obs. 2.—Many Nouns of masculine gender ending in ъ or ь, in the nominative case, have the vowel о or е inserted for the sake of euphony between the two last consonants. In declining such Nouns о or е is omitted, as :

Nominative,	The stocking,	Именительный пад.	Чуло́къ.

The father,	Отѣцъ,	gen. Отца́, etc.
The merchant,	Купѣцъ,	gen. Купца́, etc.

OBS. 5.—There are, however, words which preserve the vowel е in all the cases, as :

The blacksmith,	Кузнѣцъ,	gen. Кузнеца́, etc.
A proud man,	Гордѣцъ,	gen. Гордеца́, etc.

OBS. 6.—The euphonic vowel е after the liquid consonants л, н, р, is replaced in declension by the soft semivowel ь, in order to preserve the soft pronunciation of these liquid consonants, thus :

The lion,	Левъ,	gen. Льва́.
The polecat,	Хорѣкъ,	gen. Хорька́.

OBS. 7.—When the euphonic е in the nominative case is preceded by a vowel, it is changed in all other cases into ѣ :

This, Этотъ,	gen. этого,	} Demonstrative pro-
That, Тотъ,	gen. того.

This man,	этотъ человекъ.
That fruit,	тогъ плодъ.

Obs. 1.—Substantives having an adjectival termination are declined as adjectives :

The tailor,	портной, gen. портнаго.
-------------	-------------------------

Obs. 2.—Some masculine nouns, ending in ъ, ь, н when they signify divisible matter have in the genitive case the inflexion of у or ю instead of а or я, as :

The tobacco,	табакъ, gen. табаку.
The glue,	клѣй, gen. клѣю.

Obs. 3.—The same inflexion of у or ю in the genitive is also taken by some nouns of inanimate or abstract objects, which preserve in the genitive the tonic accent of the nominative case, as :

The taste,	вкусъ, gen. вкусу.
The hour,	часъ, gen. часу.
The occasion,	случай, gen. случаю.

OBS. 4.—All such substantives may, however, have also in the genitive their regular inflexion of a, or я.

NOTE.—The inflexion of у or ю in the genitive is used to indicate a quantity, and the inflexion of a, я in all other instances, thus will be :

A pound of tea,	Фунтъ чаю.
The aroma of tea,	Ароматъ чая.

OBS. 5.—There are monosyllabic and dissyllabic words which, when preceded by the preposition въ or на, take in the prepositional case the inflexion of у or ю instead of ѣ, as :

In the honey,	Въ медѹ, instead of въ медѣ.
On the bridge,	На мостѹ, instead of на мостѣ.

OBS. 6.—Many of these monosyllabic and dissyllabic words may, however, take in the prepositional case either of these inflexions, i. e. у, ю, or a, я, as :

На домѣ,	'On the house;'	and	на домѹ,	'at home.'
Въ видѣ,	'In the aspect;'	and	въ видѹ,	'in view.'

NOTE.—In most cases, as is seen from the above examples, the nouns ending in the prepositional case in у, ю, lose their primary signification.

OBS. 7.—The tonic accent is placed on the last syllable when a noun in the prepositional case ends in у, ю, as :

на домѹ, въ клѣтѹ, etc.

That which,	Тотъ, котóрый.
That (person) whom,	Тотъ, котóраго.
The one whom,	Тотó, котóраго.

Which cloak have you ?	Какѡй у васъ плащъ ?

	Thy, thine,	Твой.
	His,	†Свой.

Obs. 9.—Твой and свой are declined like мой.

His, Его.

Eго, as possessive pronoun, is not declined.

NOTE.—The Russian language has no possessive pronoun for the third person; it is rendered by the genitive case of the third personal pronoun :

Eго, 'his (of his),' from онъ, 'he.'

Obs. 10.—Свой may be also called a possessive reflective pronoun, as it is used for all the three persons; thus свой is used for my, thy, his when it refers to the subject of the phrase, and его when it has no reference to the subject.

Which tobacco has your brother ? Какóй табáкъ у вáшего брáта ?

He has his (own). У него свой.

I have not my tobacco, I have his. У меня не свой табáкъ, у меня его табáкъ.

EIGHTEENTH LESSON.—Восемна́дцатый Уро́къ.

SECOND DECLENSION.

Declension of Neuter Substantives and Adjectives.

Скло́вѣніе и́мѣнъ су́ществительныхъ и прилагательныхъ срѣднѣго рѣда.

Singular.—Еди́нственное числѣ.

Cases.	Substantives.			Adjectives.
	Inflexions.			Full terminations.		Apocopated.
	Hard.	Soft.		Hard.	Soft.	Hard.	Soft.
Nom.	о.	е.	мя.	ое.	ее.	о.	е.
Gen.	а.	я.	ени.	аго.	яго.	а.	я.
Dat.	у.	ю.	ени.	ому.	ему.	у.	ю.
Acc.	Like the nominative.
Inst.	омъ.	емъ.	енемъ.	ымъ.	имъ.	ымъ.	имъ.
Prep.	ѣ.	ѣ, (и).	ени.	омъ.	емъ.	омъ, (ѣ).	емъ.

From the above table it will be seen that the first two terminations of both substantives and adjectives have the same inflexions as those of masculine nouns, observing however that the accusative of neuter substantives in the singular is always like the nominative.

Obs. 1.—Of the few neuter substantives ending in я, to which in declension the syllable ят is added, only the word дитя, 'child,' preserves its singular inflexions; as genitive, dative and prepositional дитяти, instrumental дитятею. All other such words in я, as осля, 'young ass;' теля, 'a calf;' порося, 'young pig,' are obsolete; these diminutives being superseded in the language of the present day by masculine forms ending in ёнокъ, as ослёнокъ, 'young ass;' телёнокъ, 'a calf;' поросёнокъ, 'little pig.' All these words, however, resume in the plural their original Slavonic inflexions with the syllable ят; as, nominative plural, ослята, телята; genitive, ослятъ, телятъ, etc.

There are only ten substantives ending in мя:

Время,	Time.	Стремя,	Stirrup.
Бремя,	Burden.	Тёмя,	Sinciput.

TWENTY-SIXTH LESSON.—Двадцать Шестой Урокъ.

AUGMENTATIVES AND DIMINUTIVES.

Augmentatives and Diminutives are derivative substantives, which by some change in the termination of the primitive express the object as larger or smaller.

I. AUGMENTATIVES.—Увеличительныя.

Formation of Augmentatives.

a. Masculine augmentatives are formed by changing the terminations ъ, ь or й into ище or ина :

Домъ,	a house ;	{ домѣище,	a large house,
		{ домѣина,	a large, ugly house.
Конь,	a horse ;	конѣище,	a big horse.
Сарайъ,	a shed ;	сарайище,	a large shed.

b. Neuter nouns form augmentatives in ище :

Окно,	a window ;	окнѣище,	a large window.
Лице,	a face ;	лицѣище,	a large face.

c. Feminine nouns form augmentatives by changing the terminations а, я, or ь, into ища :

Лапа,	a paw ;	лапѣища,	a large paw.
Грудь,	a breast ;	грудѣища,	a large breast.

d. Substantives which are only used in the plural form their augmentatives in ищи :

Часы,	a watch ;	augmentative, часищи.
Сани,	a sledge ;	augmentative, санищи.

Obs. 1.—If the last consonant of the primitive be one of the gutturals г, к, or х, it must be changed into its corresponding consonant ж, ч, or ш, as :

Сапогъ,	a boot ;	augmentative, сапожище.
Рукá,	a hand ;	augmentative, ручища.
Брюхо,	a belly ;	augmentative, брюшище.

II. DIMINUTIVES.—УМЕНЬШИТЕЛЬНЫЯ.

Obs. 2.—Diminutive substantives, which represent the objects diminished in size, are generally of the same gender as their primitives.

The diminutive terminations are :

In the masculine,	икъ, окъ, екъ, ецъ.
In the neuter,	ко, цо, (це).
And in the feminine,	ка, ица.

Столикъ,	a little table.	Ушко,	a little ear.
Домикъ,	a little house.	Словцо,	a little word.
Городокъ,	a little town.	Зеркальце,	a little mirror.

Ручеёкъ,	a little brook.	Постелька,	a little bed.
Заводецъ,	a little manufactory.	Рощица.	a little grove.

Obs. 3.—From the above diminutives other secondary or intensified diminutives are formed, ending in чекъ, чка, чко, plural чки, which represent the object as being still smaller. These secondary diminutive terminations take before them the euphonic о, or е, according to the termination of the first diminutives, as :

Столикъ,	a little table ;	столечекъ,	a very small table.
Трубка,	a little pipe ;	трубочка,	a very small pipe.

Ла́пка,	a little paw ;	ла́почка,	a very small paw.
Око́шко,	a little window ;	око́шечко,	a very small window.
Са́нки,	a little sledge ;	са́ночки,	a very small sledge.

OBS. 4.—All nouns are not susceptible of both diminutive forms, and there are even some which take only the secondary diminutive, as :

Плато́къ,	a handkerchief ;	diminutive, плато́чекъ.
Лѣнта,	a ribbon ;	diminutive, лѣнто́чка.
Звѣзда́,	a star ;	diminutive, звѣздо́чка.

FORMATION OF DIMINUTIVES.

A. Masculine diminutives are formed in the following manner :

a. The termination икъ (чикъ), and its second diminutive termination ичекъ, take names of animate beings ; also nouns ending in ль, preceded by a consonant ; and those in ъ, preceded by ж, ч, ш, щ, or т :

b. The terminations окъ, очекъ, are added to nouns ending in бъ, въ, мъ, нъ, пъ, съ, and also to those in бъ, дъ, and тъ :

TWENTY-SEVENTH LESSON.

Двадцать Седьмой Урокъ.

Diminutives—continued.

Obs. 1.—To express some tender feeling toward a person Russians have other terminations, quite different from the before mentioned physical diminutives. These terminations are—in the masculine, ушка, юшка, and енька ; in the neuter, ушко ; and in the feminine, ушка, енька, as :

Дѣдушка, dear grandfather.	Бабушка, dear grandmother.
Батьюшка, dear father.	Папенька, dear papa.
Дядюшка, dear uncle.	Маменька, dear mamma.
Тётушка, dear aunt.	Нянюшка, dear nurse.

Obs. 2.—These terms of endearment are often added to nouns of favourite animals, and even to inanimate objects, as :

Лошадюшка, dear little horse.	Сердечушко, dear little heart.
Волюшка, dear liberty.	Рученька, dear little hand.
Травушка, dear little grass.	Душенька, dear little soul.

Obs. 3.—The following form their diminutives or endearment irregularly :

Братъ, brother ;	diminutive, братецъ.
Сестра, sister ;	diminutive, сестрица.
Дитя, a child ;	diminutive, дитяtko.
Кумъ, a Godfather ;	diminutive, куманёкъ.
Мужъ, a husband ;	diminutive, муженёкъ.
Дѣва, a girl ;	diminutive, дѣвѣца.

† Голубь, 'a pigeon,' forms its diminutives of endearment—голубчикъ, feminine голубушка—which express, 'my dear,' 'dearest,' as :

Голубчикъ Андрей,	My dear Andrew.
Голубушка Мária,	Dearest Mary.

Obs. 4.—Diminutive terminations which express contempt, or denote the object as an insignificant one, or unworthy of notice, are—in the masculine, ишко, ишка ; in the neuter, ишко ; and in the feminine, ишка, енька.

Человѣчишко,	A miserable little man.
Домѣшко,	A miserable little house.

Зѣркаишко,	A miserable little mirror.
Землішка,	A miserable little land.
Личишко,	A miserable little face.
Лавчѣнка,	A miserable little shop.
Собачѣнка,	A miserable little dog.

Besides the above terminations, there is also another, expressive of contempt, енцо, which is used in all genders, as :

Старі́къ, an old man ;	diminutive, старичѣнцо.
Ба́ба, a woman ;	diminutive, бабѣнцо.
Пі́во, beer ;	diminutive, пивѣнцо.

Obs. 5.—Christian names form also diminutives, both of endearment and contempt, or disrespect, as :

	Diminutive of Endearment.	Diminutive of Contempt.
Андрей, Andrew,	{ Андрю́ша Андрю́шенька ;	Андрю́шка.
Никола́й, Nicolas,	{ Ко́ля ; Ко́линъка ;	{ Ко́лька. Нико́лка.
Иванъ, John,	{ Ва́ня ; Ва́ничка ; Ваню́ша ;	Ва́нька.
Ма́рія, Mary,	{ Ма́ша ; Ма́шинъка ;	Ма́шка.

As the diminutives of Christian names are formed not only by an addition to the termination of the primitive, but are also often shortened, or even changed altogether, no definite rule as to their formation can be given, and therefore they can be learnt only by practice. A list of most useful diminutives of Christian names will be given further on.

Obs. 6.—Nouns used only in the plural form their dimi-nutives in ки, пы, or ца, having for the secondary diminutive очки, ечки, or ички :

a. Сани , a sledge ;	diminutive, сáнки, сáпочки.
Вѣсы , a pair of scales ;	diminutive, вѣскі́, вѣсочкі.
b. Конькі́ , skates ;	diminutive, конёчки.
Пяльцы , an embroidery frame ;	diminutive, пáлочки.
c. Ножницы , a pair of scissors ;	diminutive, ножничкі.
Щипцы , pincers ;	diminutive, щипчкі.
d. Періла , banisters ;	diminutive, пері́льцы, пері́лочки.
Ворота́ , a yard gate ;	diminutive, воротца́, вороточки.

Obs. 7.—Diminutives formed of nouns having two consonants before the final vowel take the euphonic е :

Кóзлы, a coach-box ; кóзельцы.
Бубны, diamonds ; бубёнцы.
Ясли, a manger ; ясельцы.

Obs. 8.—Diminutives of contempt in nouns used only in the plural end in ишки or енки, as :

Часы́, a watch ; часи́шки.
Сани́, a sledge ; сани́шки.
Сли́вки, cream ; сливчѣ́нки.

Augmentatives and diminutive terms of endearment or contempt are seldom used, and then only in familiar discourse ; but the diminutives proper, implying smallness merely, are employed extensively in Russian, even in formal styles of speaking and writing.

To go (on foot),	{ Идти́, (пѣшкомъ).
	{ Ходить,
To go (in a vehicle), }	Ѣхать, ѣздить,
To ride,
To eat,	Ѣсть.

Obs. 9.—‘To go,’ in the sense of being carried in a vehicle, must be translated ѣхать, as идти and ходить are used for 'to go on foot.'

Obs. 10.—ѣхать and ѣздить, like идти and ходить, denote—the first, an action taking place at some given moment; and the second, an action without reference to any particular time.

† Она идетъ съ своимъ братомъ.

Obs. 3.—Russians express such sentences in a contrary sense to the English, i.e. they mean the time that has elapsed since the moment in question, and therefore they use the negative form instead of the affirmative.

THE ASPECTS OF VERBS.

The Russian verb, by a change in its termination, or by prefixing a preposition, acquires a new signification as the duration or accomplishment of action. These modifications, these variations in the meaning of the original verb, are called Aspects, Видъ.

There are three principal aspects of Russian verbs :

1. The 'imperfect aspect,' неокончательный видъ, which denotes the action indeterminately with respect to its completion ; that is, without intimating whether the action is being, has been, or will be begun or finished, as :

Я читаю,	I am reading.
Я читалъ,	I was reading.
Я буду читать,	I shall read.

2. The 'perfect aspect,' совершенный видъ, which denotes that the action has been or will be accomplished thoroughly, as :

Я прочиталъ,	I have read
Я прочту,	I shall read

3. The 'iterative aspect,' многократный видъ, indicates that the action has been frequently repeated long ago, and at some indefinite time, as :

Я читывалъ,	I used (in my life) to read.
-------------	------------------------------

Obs. 4.—If the repeated action, although long passed, took place at a time which can be defined, the past tense of the imperfect aspect is used, instead of the iterative aspect, as :

Я читалъ неоднократно,	I have read more than once.
------------------------	-----------------------------

To read,	Читáть.
To count, to consider,	Считáть.

Obs. 5.—All verbs to which a preposition is prefixed do not become verbs of perfect aspect; there are some which change only their meaning, remaining as before verbs of imperfect aspect, as :

Ходѣть, to walk ; находѣть, to find.
 Игрáть, to play ; выигрáть, to gain.
 Быть, to be ; прибýть, to arrive, etc.

Obs. 6.—Concerning the verbs of imperfect aspect which have both the definite and the indefinite form, the following rule is to be observed: The prepositional verbs formed of the definite ones become verbs of perfect aspect, while those formed of the indefinite remain of imperfect aspect, as :

Идѣти, 'to go;' def. imperf. ; уйтѣти, 'to go away,' perf. aspect.
 Ходѣть, 'to walk;' indef. imperf. ; ухóдѣть, 'to go away,' imperf. aspect.

Obs. 7.—There are only a few verbs, such as идѣти, ходѣть, 'to go;' вести, водѣть, 'to lead,' etc., with a distinct form for the definite and indefinite imperfect aspect; all other Russian verbs are of the indefinite imperfect aspect, expressing the definite meaning without undergoing any change, as :

Онъ читáетъ тепѣрь.	He is reading now.
Онъ читáетъ всáкiя кнѣги и хорóшiя и дурнѣя.	He reads all kinds of books, good and bad.

дѣлать, to do ; perfect aspect, сдѣлать.
 Читáть, to read ; perfect aspect, прочитáть.
 Рѣшáть, to decide ; perfect aspect, рѣшѣть.
 Повторя́ть, to repeat ; perfect aspect, повторѣть.

Obs. 8.—Verbs of perfect aspect have no present tense; their past tense has the same inflexions as that of verbs of imperfect aspect, i.e. лъ, ла, ло, plural ли; but the future tense is like the present, without the aid of the auxiliary :

Imperfect Aspect.

Я дѣлалъ, I was doing.
 Я читалъ, I was reading.
 Я рѣшалъ, I was deciding.
 Я повторялъ, I was repeating.
 Я бѣду дѣлать, I shall be doing.

 Я бѣду повторять, I shall be repeating.

Perfect Aspect.

Я сдѣлалъ, I have done.

 Я рѣшилъ, I have decided.
 Я повторилъ, I have repeated.
 Я сдѣлаю, I shall do.
 Я прочитаю, I shall read.
 Я рѣшу, I shall decide.
 Я повторю, I shall repeat.

Obs. 9.—Verbs with a prefix are called ‘prepositional verbs,’ предложный глаголъ.

{ Вести, I. 7. (definite).
 { Водить, II. 10. (indefinite)

Obs. 1.—The possessive case of nouns in English is rendered by an adjective termination added to the nominative, as :

John's garden,

{ Садъ Ивана, or Ивановъ садъ.

These are termed in Russian Possessive Adjectives, “ прѳтяжáтельныя,” and are divided, according to their termination, into :

I. Personal (лѳчныя), formed from proper and common names of persons, and inanimate objects treated as animated beings, ending in овъ, евъ, инъ, цынъ; (feminine a, neuter o).

a. Possessive adjectives in овъ are formed from names ending in ѳ, o :

Пѣтръ, Peter ; Петрѳвъ, Peter's.

Мáрко, Mark ; Мáрковъ, Mark's.

b. Adjectives in евъ are formed from nouns in й, ѳ, e :

Андрѣй, Andrew ; Андрѣевъ, Andrew's.

Учѳтель, a schoolmaster ; учѳтелевъ, schoolmaster's.

Царъ, the czar ; царѣвъ, czar's.

Сѳлнце, sun ; сѳлнцевъ, sun's.

Obs. 2.—Possessive adjectives in ѳ, жъ, чъ, are met with only in the church Slavonic and old Russian, as :

Господъ, Lord, God ; Госпѳдень, Lord's.

c. Adjectives ending in инъ are formed from nouns in а, я ; those in цынъ from nouns in ца :

Лукá, Luke ; Лукíнь, Luke's.

Дýдя, uncle ; дýдинъ, uncle's.

Кормíлица, a nurse ; кормíлицынь, nurse's.

Андрéева сестрá.

The uncle's field,

The brothers Petrov,

Брáтья Петрóвы.

The uncle's fields,

Obs. 3.—Personal possessive adjectives, like all other adjectives, agree in number, gender and case with the substantive to which they refer, and are declined according to the following table.

	Singular.			Plural.
	Masculine.	Feminine.	Neuter.	For all genders.
Nom.	ъ.	а.	о.	ы.
Gen.	а .	ой.	а.	ыхъ.
Dat.	у.	ой.	у.	ымъ.
Acc.	Like the nom. or the gen.	у.	like the nom.	like the nom. or the gen.
Instr.	ымъ.	ою.	ымъ.	ими.
Prep.	омъ.	ой.	омъ.	ыхъ.

I see the uncle's daughter with the master's son in the neighbour's garden.

Я вижу дѣдину дочь съ сыномъ учителевымъ въ сосѣдовомъ саду.

У васъ ли сестринны перчатки ?

У меня нѣтъ сестринныхъ перчатокъ.

Obs. 4.—Family names, as also names of towns or places in овъ, евъ, and инъ (ынъ), are declined in the same way as personal possessive adjectives, except the prepositional case, which takes in the masculine and neuter ѣ instead of омъ.

I was speaking with George Petrov and Miss Ivanov about Mr.
Orlov.

I have not been in the village of Maxina, but I have been in Kiev and Pskov.

Я говорилъ съ Егѳромъ Петровымъ и дѣвицей Ивановой о Гнѣ. Орловѣ.

Я не былъ въ деревнѣ Максимой, но былъ въ Кіевѣ и Псковѣ.

Obs. 5.—In official documents, and sometimes in common discourse, the words дочь, 'daughter,' and сынъ, 'son,' are used with the patronymic, as :

Peter son of John Orlov,
Mary daughter of John Romanov,

Пѣтръ Иванѳвъ сынъ Орловъ.
Марья Ивановъ дочь Романова.

But in the language of the present day, in patronymic names, the terminations овъ, евъ, ова, ева are replaced by овичъ, евичъ (ичъ), овна, евна, and the terminations инъ, ина, by ичъ, инишна (ишна), as :

Peter son of John Orlov,
Mary daughter of John Romanov,
Sergius son of Elie Petrov,
Sophia daughter of Elie Petrov,

Пѣтръ Ивановичъ Орловъ.
Марья Ивановна Романова
Сергѣй Ильичъ Петровъ.

Obs. 6.—Friends and acquaintances are familiarly addressed by their Christian and patronymic instead of by their family names.

II. Generic adjectives (родовыя), formed chiefly from names of animals ending in ій, овій, евій.

Соболь, a sable ; соболій мѣхъ, sable-fur.

Obs. 7.—In the formation of these adjectives the radical consonants д, т, ц, г, к, х, before ій, change into ж, ч, ш, as :

Медвѣдь, a bear ; медвѣжіій, bear's.

Овца, a sheep ; овечіій, sheep's.

Ребѣта, children ; ребѣчіій, child's, etc.

Obs. 1.—An adjective when used as a predicate changes its full termination into an apocopated one. The apocope is made by changing the masculine terminations ый, ій, into ъ, ъ, and in the feminine and neuter by cutting off the final vowel, as :

Я былъ добръ, добра́, добрѡ.	I was kind.
Я буду добръ, добра́, добрѡ.	I will be kind.

Ру́ки бѣ́лы, the hands are white.

Obs. 7.—Compound words formed of two substantives, or of a substantive and an apocopated adjective, although written together, have a distinct declension for each word ; as Царьгра́дъ, 'Constantinople,' genitive Царягра́да, dative Царюгра́ду, etc. ; Но́вгородъ, 'Novgorod,' genitive Но́ва-города, dative Но́вугороду, etc.

OF THE INFINITIVE MOOD.

О неопредѣлённомъ наклонѣніи.

In order to conjugate Russian verbs it is essential to know beforehand their two fundamental forms, viz. the infinitive and the third person plural of the present indicative; and in verbs wanting the present tense, the third person plural of the future.

There are in Russian two conjugations only, which embrace all the regular verbs, with all their so-called aspects (видъ). These conjugations are distinguished by the inflexions of the second person singular and the third person plural of the present.

a. The first conjugation comprises the verbs having the second person singular ending in ешь and the third person plural in утъ or ютъ, as :

Идёшь, thou goest ; идутъ, they go.

Читаешь, thou readest ; читаютъ, they read.

b. The second conjugation comprises the verbs having the second person singular in ишь and third person plural in атъ or ятъ, as :

Лежишь, thou liest down ; лежатъ, they lie down.

Говоришь, thou speakest ; говорятъ, they speak.

All regular verbs, according to the termination of the infinitive, and the inflexion of its first person singular of the present indicative, are subdivided into ten classes ; of which the first eight belong to the first, and the two last (the ninth and tenth) to the second conjugation.

DEGREES OF COMPARISON.

Степени Сравненія.

The adjective in Russian, as in English, possesses three degrees of comparison, the positive, the comparative and the superlative.

Adjectives denoting quality or quantity, as also adverbs derived from adjectives, form the comparative by a change in the termination of the positive, as :

Добрый, kind ; добрыйшій, добре, kinder.

Сильный, strong ; сильнѣйшій, сильнѣе, stronger.

There are two different forms of the comparative : one declinable, ending in ѣйшій, аійшій, шій, formed of adjectives with full termination, and another indeclinable, ending in ѣе, е, formed of apocopated adjectives.

Добрейшая женщина. Kinder woman.

Добрейшие люди. Kinder people.

Obs. 4.—The declinable comparatives have all the genders and both numbers, and are generally placed before a noun, while the indeclinable ones, like the apocopated adjectives they are derived from, are invariable, and are put after a noun, as :

Человѣкъ добре, The man is kinder.

Жена добре, The wife is kinder.

Люди добре, People are kinder.

The termination ѣйшій, is placed before the radical consonants в, б, п, м, н, л, р, д, т, as :

Дешёвый, cheap ; дешёвейшій, cheaper.

Слабый, weak ; слабѣйшій, weaker.

Exceptions: Молодой, young ; младшій, younger.

Худой, bad ; худшій, worse.

Obs. 5.—Adjectives in зый, сый, жій, щій, have no declinable comparative.

Adjectives in гій, кій, хій, form the comparative in жайшій, чайшій, шайшій, as :

Строгий, severe ; строжайшій, more severe.

Крѣпкій, strong ; крѣпчайшій, stronger.

Вѣтхій, old ; вѣтшайшій, older.

Obs. 6.—Most adjectives in гій, кіій, хіій, have no declinable comparative.

Obs. 7.—The following entirely alter their form in the comparative.

Беліііі, great; большііі, greater.
Хорошііі, good; лучшііі, better.
Малыіі, small; меньшііі, smaller.

Obs. 8.—The following adjectives in кіій, preceded by a consonant, and in окіій, form their comparatives in various ways, dropping at the same time к, ок.

Краткііі, } short; кратчайшііі, shorter.
Короткііі, }
Близкііі, near; ближайшііі, nearer.
Низкііі, low, vile; нижайшііі, lower.
Широкііі, broad; ширшііі, broader.
Высокііі, high; высшііі, higher.
Глубокііі, deep; глубочайшііі, deeper.
Тонкііі, thin; тончайшііі, thinner.
Долгііі, long; должайшііі, longer.
Далёкііі, distant; дальнѣйшііі, more distant.

Obs. 9.—Adjectives wanting either of the above comparatives express the comparative by adding болѣ, 'more,' as:

Болѣ узкііі, More narrow.
Болѣ радъ, More glad.

Obs. 10.—The declinable comparative is used instead of the superlative when изъ всѣхъ, 'of all,' (than any) is understood, as:

Легчайшііі (изъ всѣхъ) lighter than any, lightest.
Лучшііі (изъ всѣхъ), better than any, best.

The same result is obtained by adding the prefix наи, as:

Наилучшііі, The best.
Наихудшііі, The worst.

The superlative is formed by adding сáмый, 'most,' to the positive.

Сáмый прехрáсный,	Most beautiful.
Сáмый лёгкíй,	Lightest.
Сáмый дóбрый,	Kindest.
To respect, to revere,	Уважáть, почитáть

THIRTY-SIXTH LESSON.—Тридцать шестой Урокъ.

FORMATION OF THE INDECLINABLE COMPARATIVES.

He is stronger.	Онъ сильнѣе.
The father is kinder.	Отецъ добрѣе.
The sister is richer.	Сестра богаче.
The wine is cheaper.	Вино дешевѣе.
The houses are higher.	Дома выше.

The indeclinable or apocopated comparative is formed from the positive by changing the terminations of the latter into ѣе or е, as :

Слабый, слабъ, weak ;	слабѣе, weaker.
Твёрдый, твёрдъ, hard ;	твёрже, harder.
Умный, умёнъ, clever ;	умнѣе, cleverer.
Частый, часть, frequent ;	чаще, more frequent.

Adjectives having the declinable comparative in ѣйшій, take ѣе, as :

Declinable.	Indeclinable.
Добрѣйшій, kinder ;	добрѣе.
Слабѣйшій, weaker ;	слабѣе.
Сильнѣйшій, stronger ;	сильнѣе, etc.

Obs. 1.—The following are exceptions to the above rule :

Declinable.	Indeclinable.
Дешевѣйшій, cheaper ;	дешевѣе.
Твердѣйшій, harder ;	твёрже.
Богатѣйшій, richer ;	богаче.

Синый, (dark) blue ;	синѣе, bluer.

Крѣпкіій, strong ; comparative крѣпче.

Строгіій, severe ; comparative строже.

Вѣтхіій, old ; comparative вѣтше.

Бойкіій, bold ; comparative бойчѣ.

Жалкіій, miserable ; comparative жалчѣ and жалче.

Звѣнкіій, sonorous ; comparative звончѣ and звонче.

Obs. 3.—Горькій, ‘bitter,’ according to its meaning, has a double comparative in each form : горчѣйшіій or горшіій and горче or горше.

Wormwood is more bitter than mustard. Полюнь горче горчѣцы.

The poor man’s life was still sadder than before. Жизнь бѣдняка была ещё горше чѣмъ прѣжде.

† Красныѣ , fair ; comparative	красне.

Obs. 5.—From the comparatives большій and меньшій, are derived the adjectives

Большой, 'large,' and меньшой, 'small.'

Большой is used also instead of велѣкій, when it denotes a size, as : большой домъ, 'a large house,' instead of велѣкій домъ.

The comparative of the following adjectives and adverbs must not be confounded :

Adjectives.	Adverbs.

Эти столы меньше тѣхъ.

Ледъ тонѣе чѣмъ въ прошломъ году.

Моя бумага тонѣе вашей.

A little larger, Поболѣе.

A little smaller, Поменѣе.

OBS. 7.—The preposition по is added to the indeclinable comparative when the object compared is not mentioned, as :

A larger house is taken.

Нанять домъ побольше

But when the object of comparison is mentioned, the comparative must be without the preposition по, as :

Your house is larger and more roomy than ours.

Вашъ домъ больше и просторнѣе нашего.

OBS. 8.—The preposition по, if used when the object of comparison is mentioned, modifies the comparative and signifies 'a little,' as :

Your book is a little better than ours.

Ваша книга получше нашей.

This horse is a little stronger than that one.

Эта лошадь посилнѣе той.

As—as, Такъ—какъ.

OBS. 9.—In the comparative of equality такъ is usually left out in affirmative sentences.

He is as rich as Croesus.

Онъ (такъ) богатъ какъ Крезъ.

Stronger, Силнѣе, сильнѣй.

Obs. 10.—The comparative termination ѣ can be shortened in all adjectives into ѣй.

The—the, Чѣмъ—тѣмъ.

Obs. 11.—‘The,’—‘the’ before a comparative are rendered чѣмъ тѣмъ.

The larger a horse is, the stronger it is. Чѣмъ больше лошадь, тѣмъ она сильнѣе.

Obs. 12.—There are qualifying adjectives which do not admit of any comparison. To this class belong adjectives denoting a quality of which a larger or smaller measure is impossible, as :

Square, квадратный.

Married, женатый.

Childless, бездѣтный.

Homeless, бездомный.

Armless, безрукий.

Footless, безногий.

Англійское сукно лучше нѣмецкаго.

As (like),

Какъ.

Do it as you are told and not in your own way.

Largest, величайшій.

Highest, высочайшій.

Smallest, малѣйшій.

Lowest, нижайшій.

Best of all,

Лучше всѣхъ.

Obs. 15.—The superlative is also formed by adding всѣхъ, 'of all,' to the indeclinable comparative.

He is the kindest of all.

Онъ добрѣе всѣхъ.

She is the prettiest of all.

Она красивѣе всѣхъ.

For, { Ибо (rarely used).

AUGMENTATIVE AND DIMINUTIVE ADJECTIVES.

Russian qualifying adjectives, besides the three degrees of comparison, by means of certain terminations and prefixes, express abundance or want in the quality itself, and also strengthen or soften the original signification of the positive degree.

A. The augmentative degree denoting the quality as more abundant or stronger than usual is rendered :

a. By adding the prefix пре to the declinable adjectives :

Бѣлый, white; пребѣлый, quite white.
Дурной, bad ; предурной, very bad.

b. By adding the terminations ехонецъ, ешенецъ or охонекъ, ошенекъ to the indeclinable adjectives :

Бѣлъ, white ; { бѣлѣхонецъ, бѣлѣшенекъ, } quite white.
Сухъ, dry ; { сухѣхонецъ, сухѣшенекъ, } quite dry.

Obs. 1.—The augmentative degree in adjectives is commonly rendered by adding : совсѣмъ or совершенно, ‘quite, entirely,’ to the apocopated adjectives, as :

Бѣлѣхонецъ or совершенно бѣлъ, quite white.
Сухѣхонецъ or совершенно сухъ, quite dry.

NOTE.—The augmentative adjectives never denote a coarse deformity like that expressed by augmentative substantives.

B. The diminutive degree denoting the quality as weaker than usual is formed by adding оватый, еватый to the declinable, or овать, евать to the indeclinable adjectives.

БѢЛЫЙ,	} white ;	бѢЛОВѢТЫЙ,	} whitish, rather white.
БѢЛЪ,		бѢЛОВѢТЬ,
СІНИЙ,	} blue ;	сИНЕВѢТЫЙ,	} rather blue.
СИНЬ,		сИНЕВѢТЬ,

C. The diminutive terminations енькой, онькой, incorporated енекъ, онекъ are made use of to soften or modify the original signification of the adjective. These terminations are generally used before the substantives in the diminutive form, as :

БѢЛЕНЬКАЯ СОБАЧКА,	A little white dog.
СІНЕНЬКОЙ ПЛАТЪЧЕКЪ,	A little blue handkerchief.

Every qualifying adjective cannot have all the above mentioned degrees of signification ; therefore the following rules must be observed :

1. The diminutive terminations оватый, еватый are added only to those qualifying adjectives that denote colour, sense, measure, form, weight and physical or moral deficiency, as :

ЧѢРНЫЙ, black ;	diminutive ;	черновѢТЫЙ.
ТѢПЛЫЙ, warm ;	. . .	тепловѢТЫЙ.
СЛАДКИЙ, sweet ;	. . .	сладковѢТЫЙ.
МАЛЫЙ, small ;	. . .	маловѢТЫЙ.
КРУГЛЫЙ, round ;	. . .	кругловѢТЫЙ.
ЛѢГКИЙ, light ;	. . .	легковѢТЫЙ.
БѢДНЫЙ, poor ;	. . .	бѣдновѢТЫЙ.
СКУПОЙ, mean ;	. . .	скуповѢТЫЙ.

2. On the other hand the above terminations cannot be added to qualifying adjectives denoting a physical or moral perfection, such as : ‘kind,’ добрый ; ‘intelligent,’ умный ; ‘rich,’ богатый, etc.

Obs. 2.—The diminutive terminations оватый, еватый must not be confounded with the similar terminations of the positive degree of derivative adjectives, such as :

Угловáтый,	Angular.
Поздревáтый,	Porous.
Виновáтый,	In fault, wrong.

3. The terminations енькой, онькой cannot be added to adjectives ending in кий, preceded by a consonant and denoting a property in an inanimate object, such as : ‘fragile,’ ломкий ; ‘sonorous,’ звонкий ; ‘slippery,’ скользкий, etc.

4. The augmentative terminations ехонекъ, ешенекъ cannot be added to derivative adjectives denoting appurtenance to an object of some parts or properties and ending in авый, атый, астый, оватый, ивый, итый, истый, овитый, ный, кий, etc., such as :

Моложáвый,	Young-looking.
Лѣнñvýй,	Lazy.
Сердñтый,	Angry.
Крылáтый,	Winged, etc.

Obs. 3.—All such adjectives however can take the prefix пре, both in the declinable and indeclinable form.

Премоложáвый, премоложáвъ,	Looking very young.
Прелѣнñvýй, прелѣнñвъ,	Very lazy.
Пресердñтый, пресердñтъ,	Very angry.

Obs. 4.—Both the augmentative and the diminutive adjectives are used affirmatively only ; therefore the negative particle не cannot be prefixed to them.

Obs. 5.—Augmentative and diminutive adjectives have no degrees of comparison.

In forming the augmentative and the diminutive degrees the following euphonic changes must be observed :

1. The e in the termination енекъ, ехонекъ, preceded by г, к, х is changed into о:

Дѳлгіѳ, long; diminutive дѳлгонькіѳ, дѳлгѳхонекъ.
Высѳкіѳ, high; . . . высѳконькіѳ, высѳхонекъ.
Суѳхѳ, dry; . . . суѳхонькіѳ, суѳхонекъ.

2. The terminations ешенекъ, ошенекъ cannot be added to adjectives having з, с, ж, ч or ш before the termination, thus :

Свѳжѳ, fresh; augmentative свѳжѳхонекъ and not свѳжѳшенекъ.

Obs. 6.—All other adjectives can take both the terminations ехонекъ, охонекъ and ешенекъ, ошенекъ.

Бѳлыѳ, white; augmentative бѳлѳхонекъ and бѳлѳшенекъ.
Суѳхѳ, dry; augmentative суѳхѳхонекъ and суѳхѳшенекъ.

3. Adjectives in кіѳ, preceded by the radical consonants н, д, т, з, с, г, form their augmentative or diminutive degree by adding енькой, онькой, енекъ, онекъ, ехонекъ, охонекъ to the radical consonant; the consonant к, therefore in the termination of the positive degree is left out, as :

Тѳнкіѳ, thin; diminutive тѳненькой, тонѳенекъ; augmentative тонѳхонекъ.
Лѳгкіѳ, light; diminutive лѳгонькіѳ, лѳгѳнекъ; augmentative лѳгѳхонекъ.

4. In the adjective мѳгкіѳ, 'soft,' the consonant г is changed into к:

Мѳгкіѳ, diminutive мѳконькіѳ, мѳкѳнекъ; augmentative мѳкѳхонекъ.

5. The following in кіѳ preserve the к:

Шѳбкіѳ, swift; diminutive шибѳкѳнекъ; augmentative шибѳкѳхонекъ.
Жѳлкѳ, pitiable; . . . жалѳкѳнекъ; . . . жалѳкѳхонекъ.
Гѳрькіѳ, bitter; . . . горѳкѳнекъ; . . . горѳкѳхонекъ.
Плѳскѳ, flat; . . . плѳскѳнекъ; . . . плѳскѳхонекъ.

† Крѣпкій, strong ; dim. крѣпилькой and крѣпильной ; арос. крѣпёнокъ and крѣпёнокъ ; augm. крѣпёхонекъ.

† Мелкій, shallow, small ; dim. мелконькой and меленькой ; арос. мелёнокъ and мелёнокъ ; augm. мелёхонекъ and мелёхонекъ.

FORTIETH LESSON.—Сороковѣй Урѣкъ.

OF THE ACTIVE PARTICIPLE.

О Причастіи Дѣйстви́тельномъ.

Active participles are adjectives derived from active and neuter verbs and denote the action of the subject, as :

The loving mother.	Лю́бящая мать.
The running horse.	Бѣ́гущій конь.

The active participle as a part of the verb has two tenses, the present and past, and it always combines the meaning of the relative pronoun который, 'who,' 'which,' or что, 'that,' with the verb from which it is derived.

a. The present participle is formed from the third person plural of the present indicative by changing the termination тъ into щій, (feminine щая, neuter щее) :

Чита́ю-тъ, they read ; чита́ю-щій, reading, he who reads.
Иду́-тъ, they go ; иду́-щій, going, he who goes.
Надѣ́ю-тся, they hope ; надѣ́ю-щійся, hoping, he who hopes.

b. The past participle is formed from the past tense by changing the termination лъ, into вшій or шій, (feminine вшая, neuter вшее) :

Чита́-лъ, I have read ; чита́-вшій, reading, he who has read.
Шѣ́лъ, I was going ; шѣ́д-шій, going, he who was going.
Надѣ́я-лся, I hoped ; надѣ́я-вшійся, hoping, he who was hoping.

The termination вшій is added to the participles formed from the past tense having a vowel before лъ, as :

Я игрá-лъ, I played ; игрá-вшій, playing.
Она́ говорé-ла, she spoke ; говорé-вшая, speaking.

Obs. 1.—If there be no д in the masculine termination of the past tense, the participle is formed by adding миѣ (and not вшиѣ) to the root of the verb, as :

Я грѣбъ, I rowed ; part. past, грѣб-миѣ.

Я могъ, I could ; part. past, мог-миѣ.

To lead, leading,	Вестѣ.
I was leading,	Вѣлъ.
Leading,	Вѣдмиѣ.

Obs. 2.—The radical consonants д and т, omitted in the infinitive mood and in the past tense, are replaced in the past participle active, as :

Цвѣстѣ, to bloom ; past tense цвѣлъ, ('root,' цвѣтъ) partic. past цвѣт-миѣ.

Exceptions: Кладъ, to put (root клад) ; partic. past клá-в-миѣ and not клáдмиѣ.

Красть, to steal (root крад) ; partic. past крá-в-миѣ and not крáдмиѣ.

A crying child.	Плачущее дитѣ.
The following number.	Слѣдующіѣ нѹмеръ.
A practising physician.	Практикующіѣ докторъ.

Obs. 3.—Active participles standing before a substantive are, as in English, used as qualifying adjectives, but these participles in Russian cannot take the form of an indeclinable adjective, i.e. they cannot be apocopated or used in place of the predicate.

Thus English participles used with the verb 'to be' are rendered in Russian either by the indicative or by an adjective, as :

The child is crying.	Дитѣ плачетъ.
The book is interesting.	Книга занимательна.

Obs. 4.—Participles are declined like adjectives, agreeing with the substantive to which they refer in gender, number and case.

I spoke to the woman who sells flowers.

People that have money easily acquire friends.

They gave alms to the beggar-woman, standing at the church-door.

Do you see the man carrying (who carries) the sack ?

The boy reading (who reads) with attention is my brother.

Я говорѣлъ съ жѣнщиною, продающею цвѣты.

Люди, имѣющие деньги, легко приобретаютъ друзей,

Онѣ подали милостыню нищей, стоявшей у церковныхъ дверей.

Видите ли человека, несущаго (который несётъ) мешокъ.

{ Мальчикъ, читающій (который читаетъ) со вниманіемъ, мой братъ.
Читающій со вниманіемъ мальчикъ, мой братъ.

Obs. 5.—The participle is always separated from its antecedent by a comma, as :

The man sleeping.

The woman who was speaking.

Человѣкъ, спящій.

Жѣнщина, говорившая.

Obs. 6.—English participles preceded by a possessive pronoun or any preposition cannot be rendered in Russian by a participle, but must be expressed either by a substantive, or by a verb in the infinitive or indicative mood :

I do not believe in his coming.

He saved himself by swimming across the river.

He has decided upon writing it.

I am quite tired of talking.

Since my writing to him.

Besides his being poor.

{ Я не вѣрю его приходу.

{ Я не вѣрю тому что онъ придетъ.

Онъ спасся тѣмъ что переплылъ рѣку.

Онъ рѣшился написать это.

Я утомился говорить.

Съ тѣхъ поръ какъ я написалъ ему.

{ Кромѣ его бѣдности.

{ Кромѣ того что онъ бѣденъ.

They punished him for not going there.

Do you like walking ?

I like riding.

Его наказали за то что онъ не пошѣлъ туда.

{ Любите ли гулянье ?

{ Любите гулять ?

{ Я люблю ѣздить верхомъ.

{ Я люблю ѣзду верхомъ.

The termination ся in the active participle of reflective verbs is never abridged into сь :

People returning from the field.
The wheel turning round its axle.

Люди, возвращающіеся съ поля.

Колесо, обращающееся вокругъ своей оси.

Rather,

Лучше, охотнѣе.

She said she would rather not speak to her.

Она сказала что лучше желала бы не говорить съ ней.

We would rather stay here.

Мы лучше (ог охотнѣе) бы остались здѣсь.

To ache, }
To be ill, }

Боле́тъ.

It pains,

Боли́тъ.

Obs. 7.—‘I have,’ followed by a noun expressing that the part of the body signified by it is affected by pain or illness, is rendered in Russian by у меня, and not by я имѣю :

I have a head-ache.

У меня головная боль.

My head aches.

У меня голова боли́тъ.

I have a tooth-ache.

У меня зубная боль.

My tooth aches.

У меня зубъ боли́тъ.

I have a pain in my chest.

{ У меня грудь боли́тъ.

{ У меня боль въ груди.

My heart aches.

У меня сердце боли́тъ.

I have a pain in my side.

У меня бокъ боли́тъ.

She is often ill.

Она часто боле́етъ.

My feet ache.

У меня ноги боли́тъ.

My arms were aching.

У меня руки боли́ли.

Sore,

Бо́льнѣй, (болѣ́тъ).

I have a sore throat.

{ У меня больно́е го́рло.
У меня́ го́рло бо́лѣтъ.

He has a sore foot.

У него́ больна́я нога́.

I have sore eyes.

У меня́ больны́е глаза́.

My eyes ache.

У меня́ глаза́ бо́лѣтъ.

The pain, боль, f.

Disease, } болѣ́знь, f.
Complaint, }

Indisposition, нездоровье.

He is much better.

She is much worse.

The headache, головна́я боль.

The earache, ушна́я боль.

Unwell, poorly, нездоровый.

The toothache, зубна́я боль.

Ему́ гораздо́ лучше.

Ей гораздо́ хуже́.

He is richer than I by far.

Онъ богаче́ меня́ мно́гими.

Obs. 8.—The word 'by' when used in English after a comparative to denote how much a thing exceeds another is expressed in Russian by the instrumental case :

My sister is taller than I by the whole head.

Моя́ сестра́ выше́ меня́ цѣло́й голо-во́й.

I am older than you by two years.

Я ста́рше васъ двумя́ года́ми.

I am taller than you by two inches.

Я выше́ васъ двумя́ дюймами́.

Pale (in the face),

Блѣ́денъ ли́цомъ.

Any particular quality, quantity, measure, etc., possessed by an object is rendered in Russian by a noun in the instrumental case.

Strongly built.

Крѣ́покъ сложе́нiемъ.

He is kind hearted.

Онъ добръ душо́ю.

Rich in remembrances.

Богатъ воспомина́нiями.

A house ten yards high.

До́мъ выши́нѣю въ десять́ я́рдовъ.

FORTY-FIRST LESSON.—Сорокъ первый Урокъ.

OF THE PASSIVE PARTICIPLE.

О Причастіи Страдательномъ.

Passive participles are formed from active verbs only. As verbal adjectives they have both the declinable and indeclinable forms, the latter being used with the auxiliary verb быть, 'to be,' to form passive verbs.

The passive participle combines the meaning of the relative pronoun который, 'who,' 'which' or что, 'which,' 'that,' and the verb it is derived from, as:

The book (which is) read by me	{ Кнѣга, читаемая мною.
(which I read).	{ Кнѣга, которую я читаю.
Children (who are) loved by their	дѣти, любимые своими родителями.
parents.

Obs. 1.—The subject in a passive sentence is put in the instrumental case.

The passive participle as part of the verb has two tenses, the present and past.

A. The declinable present participle passive denotes a duration of the action, and is formed from the first person plural of the present indicative by changing the termination мъ into мый, feminine мая, neuter мое :

Чита́емъ, we read ; чита́емый, read, which is being read.

Дѣла́емъ, we do ; дѣла́емый, done (usually), which is being done.

The indeclinable present participle ends in мъ, feminine ма, neuter мо :

The book is read.

Кни́га чита́ема.

The child was loved.

Дитя́ было́ любимо́

The mother was loved.

Ма́ть была́ любима́.

They were loved.

Они́ были́ любимы́.

The book will be read.

Кни́га бу́детъ чита́ема.

The houses will be built.

Дома́ бу́дутъ стро́имы.

Passive participles ending in емый (indeclinable емъ) are formed from verbs of the first four classes, as :

Чита́ю, I read ; чита́емый, read.

Пи́шу, I write ; пиш́емый, written.

Participles in омый, are formed from verbs of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, having the first person singular in у, preceded by a radical consonant or by н :

Зову́, I call ; зово́мый, called.

Веду́, I lead ; ведо́мый, ~~lead~~ led

Жну́, I mow ; жно́мый, mown.

Тяну́, I draw ; тяго́мый, drawn.

Participles in ИМЫЙ, are formed from verbs of the second conjugation, i.e. from the ninth and tenth classes :

Люблѣ, I love ; любимый, loved.

Вѣжу, I see ; видимый, seen.

Passive participles are declined like adjectives, and agree with their antecedent in gender, number, and case :

Letters received by us always contain pleasant news.

Письма, получаемыя нами всегда содержатъ въ себѣ пріятныя вѣстія.

We have already answered the letters received by us from our parents.

Мы уже отвѣтили на письма, полученные нами отъ нашихъ родителей.

The past passive participle denotes an accomplished action, and is formed from the past tense by changing лъ, into ный, тый (indeclinable нъ, тъ) :

Читалъ, I have read ; читанный, read, which has been read.

Я теръ, I rubbed ; тёртый, rubbed.

Obs. 2.—Participles in тый, тъ, are formed from verbs of the third, sixth and eighth classes, and from some monosyllabic verbs of the first class :

Колѣлъ, I pricked ; колотый, pricked.

Жалъ, I squeezed ; жатый, squeezed.

Тянулъ, I drew ; тянутый, drawn.

Мылъ, I washed ; мытый, washed.

Билъ, to beat ; битый, beaten.

Obs. 3.—In forming the past participle from dissyllabic and polysyllabic verbs the tonic accent must be replaced, as :

Читалъ, I read ; читанъ, read.

Писалъ, I wrote ; писанъ, written.

Тянулъ, I drew ; тянутъ, drawn.

In forming the past participle from the infinitive the following rules are to be observed:

Participles in тый, тъ, are formed from verbs having for their final letter of the root either one of the liquids л, н, р, or the vowels я, и, ѣ, у, ы :

Кол- бть , to prick ;	past partic. кол о-тъ .
Прин- ѣтъ , to receive ; прин ѣ-тъ .
Бѣ- тъ , to beat ; бѣ- тъ .
Мы- тъ , to wash ; мы- тъ .
Пѣ- тъ , to sing ; пѣ- тъ .

And also from all verbs ending in нуть :

Гнуть, to bend ;	past partic. гн у-тъ .
Двѣн у-тъ , to move ; двѣн у-тъ .

All other verbs form their past participle in ный, нъ :

Звать, to call ;	past partic. зван ъ .
Сѣя тъ , to sow ; сѣян ъ .
Везѣ тъ , to carry ; везѣн ъ .

Some few verbs of the first and eighth classes have a double termination in the past participle, i.e. тъ and нъ, the latter not being used in ordinary conversation :

Бѣ тъ , to beat ;	past partic. бѣ тъ and бѣн ъ .
Ду н-у-тъ , to blow ; ду н-у-тъ and дуновѣн ъ .

Past participles in нъ, when changed into the declinable form take an additional н, before the termination, as :

Чѣтан ъ , read ;	decl. form. чѣтан н-н-ы .
Сѣян ъ , sown ; сѣян н-н-ы .
Сказан ъ , told ; сказан н-н-ы .

Obs. 4.—Verbs of the seventh and eighth classes follow the above rule in compound verbs only, as :

Вѣденъ, lead ; вѣденн-н-ы—привѣденн-н-ы.

Стриженъ, shorn ; стриженный—остриженный.

FORTY-SECOND LESSON.—Сорокъ второй Урокъ.

OF THE GERUND.—О дѣпричáстiи.

Besides the participles, or verbal adjectives, there are also the gerunds, or verbal adverbs, formed from verbs. These express the circumstances accompanying the action, and for this reason are classed among the adverbs;

When did you meet him ?	КОГДА ВЫ ВСТРѢТИЛИ ЕГО ?
I met him going to the garden.	ИДУЧИ ВЪ САДЪ, Я ВСТРѢТИЛЪ ЕГО.
How was he reading ? (in what position.)	КАКЪ (ВЪ КАКОМЪ ПОЛОЖЕНІИ) ЧИТАЛЪ ОНЪ ?
He was reading sitting.	ОНЪ ЧИТАЛЪ СІДЯ.
Were you also reading sitting ?	ЧИТАЛИ ЛИ ВЫ ТОЖЕ СІДЯ ?
No, I was reading at one time standing and at another lying down.	НѢТЪ, Я ЧИТАЛЪ ТО СТОЯ, ТО ЛѢЖА.

Gerunds, like participles, are active or passive, and generally combine the meaning of the action expressed by the verb and that of the conjunction: КОГДА, 'when;' ПОКА, 'while;' МЕЖДУ ТѢМЪ КАКЪ, 'whilst;' ПОСЛѢ ТОГО КАКЪ, 'after,' and such like; thus, the verb СИДѢЛЪ, 'I was sitting,' in the following phrases,

Я ЧИТАЛЪ КОГДА СИДѢЛЪ.	Whilst I was seated I was reading.
Я ГОВОРИЛЪ ВЪ ТО ВРЕМЯ КАКЪ СТОЯЛЪ.	I spoke at the time I was standing.

may be just as well rendered by the gerund СІДЯ, 'sitting,' as :

СІДЯ, Я ЧИТАЛЪ.	I was reading sitting.
СТОЯ, Я ГОВОРИЛЪ.	I spoke standing.

A. Active gerunds have no gender or number, but only inflexions to mark the present or past tense.

The present gerund expresses an action that is commenced and still continues, and is formed from the third person plural of the present indicative by changing the termination into я or УЧИ (ЮЧИ), as :

ДѢЛАЮТЪ, they do ; дѢЛАЯ, дѢЛАЮЧИ, doing (whilst they do).
ГОВОРЯТЪ, they say ; ГОВОРЯ, ГОВОРЯЧИ, saying (when they say).

Gerunds in я are formed by changing the termination ютъ, ятъ into я, as :

Чита́ютъ, they are reading ; чита́я, reading (when they read).

Люба́тъ, they love ; люба́, loving (when they love).

Obs. 1.—The termination я, when preceded by ж, ч, ш or щ, is changed into а, as :

Держа́тъ, they hold ; держ-а́, holding.

Плачу́тъ, they cry ; плач-а, crying.

Спѣша́тъ, they hurry ; спѣш-а́, hurrying.

The terminations ючи, учи, of gerunds are derived from ютъ, утъ by changing тъ into чи, as :

Дѣла́ютъ, they do ; дѣлаючи, doing.

Пи́шутъ, they write ; пи́шучи, writing.

Obs. 2.—The gerunds of verbs ending in нутъ want the termination я, and have only the form in учи, as :

Зѣ́бнутъ, to feel cold ; зѣ́бнучи, feeling cold.

Сѣ́хнутъ, to be drying ; сѣ́хнучи, drying.

То́нутъ, to sink ; то́нучи, sinking.

Тяну́тъ, to draw ; тяну́чи, drawing.

On the other hand the gerunds of verbs having the third person plural in ятъ, атъ, have not the form in ючи, учи, but in я (а) only, as :

Велѣ́тъ, they order ; велѣ́я, ordering.

Цѣ́нятъ, they value ; цѣ́ня́я, valuing.

Люба́тъ, they love ; люба́я, loving.

NOTE.—The termination я, in gerunds of verbs of perf. asp. denotes an accomplished action, as :

Уви́дя, after having seen. | Покло́няся, having bowed.

The past gerund denotes that the action was just completed when another began, and is formed from the past participle active by changing шій, into ъ, as :

Говорѣвшій, { speaking ;
he who spoke ; } говорѣвъ, after having spoken.
Читавшій, { reading ;
he who read ; } читавъ, having read.

Obs. 3.—The termination ъ, used chiefly in literature, in ordinary conversation is superseded by the termination ши, as :

Говорѣвши, having spoken ; instead of говорѣвъ.
Любѣвши, having loved ; . . . любѣвъ.

After having written the letter I sealed it (I sealed the letter when I had written it).	Написавъ письмо, я запечаталъ его (я запечаталъ письмо когда написалъ его).
Wishing to sell his horse, he took it to the market ; but finding no buyer, he brought it back.	Желая продать свою лошадь, онъ повѣлъ её на рынокъ, но не найдши ни одного покупателя, привѣлъ её обратно.
Having sent the letters to the post, they went out.	Отправивши (отправивъ) письма на почту, онѣ вышли со двора.

The past gerund of reflective verbs takes the termination вши and not въ before сь (ся), as :

Having become, дѣлавшись, not дѣлавсь.
Having learnt, учившись, not учивсь.

B. The passive gerund has a compound form, being formed by adding the participle passive to the gerunds бѹдучи, 'being,' and бывъ (бывши) 'having been,' of the auxiliary verb быть, 'to be,' as :

Present, Бѹдучи, { читаемъ, } being read.
 { читанъ, }

Past, Бывъ читанъ, having been read.

Obs. 4.—The passive gerunds are little used in the Russian language of the present day.

Each other,	}	Другъ другъа.
One another,

Obs. 5.—The pronouns each other and one another are expressed by другъ другъа, другъ другъу, etc. The first of these two words is always in the nominative; hence, if there be any preposition in English, it must be put between them in Russian.

They love each other.

Онѣ любятъ другъ другъа.

They treated each other politely.

Онѣ обходились другъ съ другомъ вежливо.

They spoke evil of each other.

Онѣ говорили дурно другъ о другъ.

To try (to attempt),

Пытаться, попытаться.

Мнѣ невозмóжно.

Possibly,

Возмóжно.

To knock at the door.

He knocked at the window.

Онъ постучался въ окно.

Against,		О, объ.
I knocked my elbow against the corner of the table.		Я ушибъ себя локоть объ уголъ стола.
He stumbled against the door-step.		Онъ споткнулся о порогъ.
To ascend,		Восходить на, with the acc. perf. asp. взойти.
They ascended this hill twice.		Онѣ восходили на эту гору два раза.
Have they already ascended the hill?		Взошли ли онѣ уже на гору?
No, they are at the foot of the hill.		Нѣтъ, онѣ у подошвы горы.
To weep, плакать.		To sob, рыдать.

To take leave of.		Прощаться съ (with the inst.).

FORTY-THIRD LESSON.—Сорокъ третій Урокъ.

All persons of the present indicative are formed from the third person plural present in the following way :

A. Verbs, having the third person plural in ють or утъ, form the first person singular by cutting off тъ :

Зна-ють, they know ; зна-ю, I know.

Бер-уть, they take ; бер-ý, I take.

The second and third singular, and the first and second persons plural are formed by changing ють or утъ into ешь, еть, емъ, ете :

Зна-ють, they know ; знаешь, thou knowest ; знаетъ, etc.

Бер-уть, they take ; бер-ешь, thou takest ; бер-еть, etc.

B. Verbs, having the third person plural in ятъ or атъ, form the first person singular by changing ятъ into ю, and атъ into у :

Стрѣ-ятъ, they build ; стрѣ-ю, I build.

Крич-атъ, they cry ; крич-у, I cry.

The second and third person, and the first and second person plural, are formed by changing ятъ or атъ into ишь, итъ, имъ, ите :

Вел-ятъ, they order ; вел-ишь, thou orderest ; вел-итъ, etc.

Крич-атъ, they cry ; крич-ишь, thou cryest ; крич-итъ, etc.

Obs. 1.—The past tense preceded by if or whether is rendered in Russian by the present with the particle ли, as :

They wanted to know if we were going there.	Онѣ хотѣли знать идѣмъ ли мы туда.
---	------------------------------------

We doubted whether he really often invited him.	Мы сомнѣвались, дѣйствительно ли онъ часто приглашаетъ его.
---	---

OF THE POTENTIAL AND SUBJUNCTIVE.

The potential and subjunctive moods of other languages are rendered in Russian by adding the particle бы to the past tense indicative :

I would (or should) have.

Я имѣлъ бы.

Would she have ?

Имѣла ли бы она ?

I should have written if I had any paper.

Я написалъ бы, если бы была у меня бумага.

The particle бы gives emphasis to the word it follows, as :

He would write to you if he were allowed.

Онъ бы написалъ вамъ, если бы ему позволили.

He would write to you, but to me he would not.

Онъ вамъ бы написалъ, но мнѣ бы не написалъ.

He would have written to you a letter, but not have sent any money.

Письмо бы онъ написалъ, но денегъ не послалъ бы.

He would have written to you if he could.

Онъ написалъ бы вамъ если бы могъ.

That, to, Чтóбы.

Obs. 2.—The potential is expressed in Russian also by the particle чтóбы, (Slavonic дабы), added to the past tense of the indicative :

I wish that you would go with us.	Я желаю чтóбы вы пошлѣ съ нами.
He sent his son money that he might buy a horse.	Онъ послалъ своему сыну денегъ, чтóбы онъ купилъ себѣ лошадь.
He wanted her to write.	Онъ желалъ чтóбы она писала.

Obs. 3.—The past tense in subjunctive form expresses often the present and future tenses, as :

I should like now to have a talk with you.	Я теперь желалъ бы (pres.) поговорить съ вами.
Oh, would that the day came at last.	Ахъ, если бы скорѣе день насталъ (fut.).

The particle бы can be added to the past tense of each of the aspects, as :

Imperfect Aspect . . .	Я кидалъ бы, I would be throwing.
Perfect Aspect	Я выкидалъ бы, I would have thrown out.
Iterative Aspect. . . .	Я кидывалъ бы, I would throw (repeatedly).
Perf. Asp. of Unity. . .	Я кинулъ бы, I would throw (once), etc.

Obs. 4.—The subjunctive form of the verb is often superseded in Russian by the imperative, which in such case does not agree in person with the subject, as :

Were I now in the country I should not be now under treatment.	Будь я (если бы я былъ) теперь въ деревнѣ, лечиться мнѣ не пришлось бы.
Had he spoken always the truth he would be trusted now.	Говори онъ (если бы онъ говорилъ) всегда правду, ему повѣрили бы теперь.

Obs. 5.—Should, would and other auxiliaries of the potential mood are rendered by бы, in conjunction with the verb :

He would go out if the weather were fine.

Онъ вышелъ бы изъ дому еслибы погода была хорошая.

I should purchase that picture if I had enough money.

Я купилъ бы ту картину если бы у меня было довольно денегъ.

Had we known it.

{ Знали бы мы это ?
{ Если бы мы знали это.

Had they seen me.

Видели бы они меня ?

Had I riches I should be happy.

Будь я (если бы я былъ) богатъ, то былъ бы счастливъ.

Ought, should,

{ Долженъ.
{ Слѣдуетъ, impersonal verb
(with the dative).

I ought to write, but I have no paper.

Я долженъ бы былъ (мнѣ слѣдовало бы) писать, да нѣтъ у меня бумаги.

He ought to have written.

Ему слѣдовало бы написать.

I May (perhaps),

Можетъ быть.

Obs. 6.—May and might, implying eventuality, are rendered by можетъ быть.

I may go if he come.

Я можетъ быть пойду если онъ придѣтъ.

I might go if he came.

{ Я пошелъ бы, если бы онъ пришѣлъ.
{ Я можетъ быть пошелъ бы, если бы онъ пришѣлъ.

Then, To (тогда).

Obs. 7.—The word then, то, in a principal preceded by a conditional clause is more frequently expressed in Russian than in English, as :

If he had known him, then he would have spoken to him.

Если бы онъ былъ знакомъ съ нимъ, то поговорилъ бы съ нимъ.

Had she pleased him he would have married her.

Shall we find him at home ?

We shall if we come in time.

He would not come even if you called him.

Has she been there alone all day ?

She was quite alone.

He is by himself.

For the first time,

For the last time,

Really, indeed,

He is indeed very kind.

Is your friend going with you into the country?—He ought to go with me, for he is not quite well, and the country air would do him good.—Could cattle live in cold countries without sheds and stables?—Cattle would perish in winter from cold and hunger, had not man built for them good sheds and stables, and provided hay and oats against the winter.—Would your sister invite mine if she could?—If she could she would certainly ask her.—Cannot you lend me a few pounds?—I would do it if you had returned me the money I lent you last week.—Had I known that you would refuse my request, I should not have troubled you, but have asked somebody else.—Would you come to me if you knew that he was with me?—If I knew that, I would without fail.—Would not your brother go with us into the country?—He would not.

FORTY-FOURTH LESSON.

Сорокъ четвёртый Урокъ.

OF THE BRANCHES OF THE VERB.

Отрасли Глагола.

Among the inflexions of the verb, there are three to which all others are subordinate, and which are the bases or roots of three so-called branches.

The first branch has for its root the first person present indicative, from which all the other persons of the present indicative and imperative moods, as also present gerund and participles, are formed.

The root of the second branch is the past tense of the imperfect or perfect aspect, from which are formed the past gerund, the participles and the infinitive mood.

The root of the third branch is the past tense of the iterative aspect.

In the following table are given four verbs exemplifying the foregoing.

THE BRANCHES OF THE VERB.

FIRST BRANCH.					SECOND BRANCH.				THIRD BRANCH.
PRESENT AND FUTURE.		PRESENT.			PAST TENSE OF THE IMPERFECT AND PERFECT ASPECT.				ITERATIVE ASPECT.
Indicative.	Imperat.	Gerund.	Participle.		Verb.	Gerund.	Infinit. Mood.	Passive Partic.	Verb.
			Active.	Passive.
First Conjugation.
Читаю, Читаешь, etc.	Читай, Читайте,	Читая, от читаючи.	читающий, жен. щая, neut. щее.	читаемый.	читаю, жен. яа, neut. юю.	читаю, от читавши.	читать.	читаю.	читываю.
Веду, Ведешь, etc.	Веди, Ведите,	Ведя, от ведучи.	ведущий.	ведомый.	веду, Ведя, Ведю.	веду.	Вести, (Весть).	веду.	ведываю.
Second Conjugation.
Велию, Велишь, etc.	Вели, Велите,	Веля.	велящий.	велямый.	веляю, Веляя, Веляю.	веляю, Велявши.	велять.	веляю.	веляю.

Of the Future.—Будущее время.

The future tense of Russian verbs is either compound or simple.

a. The compound future is formed by adding the future of the auxiliary verbs быть and стать to the infinitive of the verb of imperfect aspect, as :

Я буду пѣть.	I will sing.
Ты будешь пѣть, etc.	Thou wilt sing, etc.
Я стану пѣть.	I will begin singing.
Ты станешь пѣть, etc.	Thou wilt begin singing, etc.

Obs. 1.—The compound future, formed by the help of стану, is used to form the future of inchoative verbs, which are of perfect aspect.

b. The simple future has the form of the present, and it follows the same rules as those laid down for the present tense, as :

Сказать, to tell ; скажу, скажешь, etc., I will tell, etc.
Удивить, to astonish ; удивлю, удивишь, etc., I will astonish, etc.
Решить, to decide ; решу, решишь, etc., I will decide, etc.
Пойти, to go ; пойду, пойдёшь, etc., I shall go, etc.

Obs. 2.—Only the verbs of perfect aspect have this future.

I saw a herdsman with fifty calves, ninety oxen and a hundred rams.	Я видѣлъ табунщика съ пятьюде- сятью телѣтами, девяноста бы- ками и ста баранами.
He ordered his forty dragoons to go with those forty uhlans.	Онъ велѣлъ своимъ сорока драгунамъ пойти съ теми сто сорока уланами.

In the compound cardinal numerals пятьдесятъ, 'fifty,' шестьдесятъ, 'sixty,' сѣмьдесятъ, 'seventy,' and восемьдесятъ 'eighty,' each part is declined separately, as :

Gen., dat. and prep. пятидесяти, шестидесяти, etc.
Instrumental пятьюдесятью, шестьюдесятью, etc.

The numerals девяно́сто, ‘ninety,’ and сто, ‘hundred,’ are declined in the singular like substantives in о, viz. genitive, девяно́ста, ста, dative, девяно́сту, сту, etc. The numeral девяно́сто has no plural, and сто has no nominative case in the plural, having in the gen. сотъ, dat. стамъ, etc.

Obs. 3.—The numerals со́рокъ, девяно́сто, and сто, when standing before a substantive, take the inflexion of а in the gen., dat., instr. and prep. cases, as :

Nominative, со́рокъ челове́къ, девяно́сто рубле́й, сто кни́гъ.

Genitive, со́рока челове́къ, девяно́ста рубле́й, ста кни́гъ.

Dative, со́рока челове́камъ, девяно́ста рубля́мъ, ста кни́гамъ.

Instrumental, со́рока челове́ками, девяно́ста рубля́ми, ста кни́гами.

Prepositional, со́рока челове́кахъ, девяно́ста рубля́хъ, ста кни́гахъ.

About, Около, gov. the gen.

I had about a hundred roubles.	{ У меня́ было́ около́ ста рубле́й.
	{ У меня́ было́ рубле́й сто.

Obs. 4.—‘About’ before a numeral is rendered by placing the numeral after the noun :

I have two roubles.

У меня́ два рубля́.

I have about two roubles.

У меня́ есть рубля́ два.

Two hundred, двѣ́сти.

Six hundred, шестьсо́тъ.

Three hundred, три́ста.

Seven hundred, семьсо́тъ.

Four hundred, четы́реста.

Eight hundred, восемьсо́тъ.

Five hundred, пятьсо́тъ.

Nine hundred, девятьсо́тъ.

Obs. 5.—In the above compound numerals each part follows its own declension :

Nominative, двѣ́сти, три́ста, etc.

Genitive, двухсо́тъ, трехсо́тъ, etc.

Dative, двумста́мъ, тремста́мъ, etc.

Instrumental, двумяста́ми, тремяста́ми, etc.

Prepositional, двухста́хъ, трехста́хъ, etc.

Without,	}	Безъ, gov. the genitive.
Save, all but,

They went without him.	Онѣ пошлѣ безъ него.
There are in this book forty leaves all but three.	Въ этой книгѣ сорокъ листовъ безъ трѣхъ.

It wants,	{	Недостаётъ, impersonal verb, governs the genitive.
		Безъ.

It wants three roubles to make up ten.	Не достаётъ трѣхъ рублей чтобъ составить десять.
It wants a quarter to three o'clock.	Три часа безъ четверти.
It wants five minutes to five.	Пять часовъ безъ пяти минутъ.

At (of the time),	Въ, gov. the acc. and prepos.
At two o'clock.	Въ два часа.
After two o'clock.	Въ третьемъ часу.

Obs. 6.—For the hours the preposition въ governs the accusative case, before the cardinal, and the prepositional before the ordinal numerals.

FORTY-FIFTH LESSON.—Сорокъ пятый Урокъ.

OF THE IMPERATIVE.—Повелительное Наклонѣніе.

The imperative mood has distinct inflexions only for the second person singular and plural, and is formed from the first person singular present indicative by changing the termination y or ю into и́, и, й or ь, as :

Иду́, I am going ; иди́, go.

Сохну́, I dry ; сохни, dry.

Дѣлаю́, I do ; дѣлай, do.

Вѣрю́, I believe ; вѣрь, believe.

To form the second person plural те is added to the imperative singular, as :

Иди́, go ;	plural, идите́.
Сохни́, dry ;	. . . мо́вьте.
Дѣлай, do ;	. . . дѣлайте́.
Вѣрь, believe ;	. . . Вѣрьте́.

a. The imperative in и́ is formed from verbs having the first person singular in ý, ю́ accented and preceded by a consonant :

Пишú, I write ; пишѣ́, write.
Велю́, I order ; велѣ́, order.

Obs. 1.—Verbs of the tenth class take in the imperative an и́ accented even after a vowel, as :

Таю́, I conceal ; таѣ́, conceal.

b. The imperative in и unaccented is formed from verbs having the first person in у or ю unaccented and preceded by two consonants, both of which remain in the imperative :

Сóхну, I am drying ;	imperative, сохни́.
Зѣжду, I build ;	. . . зѣжди́.
Мо́влю, I speak ;	. . . мо́ви.

c. The imperative in и is formed from verbs having the first person in у, ю preceded by a vowel :

Знаю́, I know ;	imperative, знаѣ́.
Смѣю́, I dare ;	. . . смѣѣ́.
Пою́, I sing ;	. . . поѣ́.

Obs. 2.—Verbs of the tenth class have the imperative in и́, when the tonic accent falls on the radical syllable, as :

Строю́, I build ;	imperative, строи́.
Покóю, I procure rest ;	. . . покóи́.

d. The imperative in ь is formed from verbs having the first person in у, ю unaccented, and preceded by one consonant or by б, в, п, м followed by the euphonic л, which is omitted in the imperative :

Вѣрю , I believe ;	imperative, вѣрь .
Гото́влю , I prepare ;	. . . гото́вь .
Сыплю , I sift ;	. . . сыпь .

Obs. 3.—The termination ью, of the first person is changed into ей, as :

Пью , I drink ;	imperative, пей .
Бью , I beat ;	. . . бей ,
Лью , I pour ;	. . . лей .

Obs. 4.—The imperative of the verbs ѣхать, 'to ride,' and ѣсть, 'to eat,' is formed irregularly : поѣзжай, ѣшь.

The imperative of verbs of perfect aspect wanting the present tense, is formed from the simple future according to the foregoing rules, as :

По́йду́ , I shall go ;	imperative, пойди́ .
Напи́шу́ , I shall write ;	. . . напиши́ .
Сдѣлаю́ , I will do ;	. . . сдѣлай .
Бро́шу , I will throw ;	. . . брось .

Obs. 5.—The radical consonant of the first person, changed into its corresponding consonant for the sake of euphony, is restored in the imperative, but the euphonic л when inserted in the first person only is left out, as :

Вожу́ (води́ть), I lead ;	imperative, води́ .
Носу́ (носи́ть), I carry ;	. . . носи́ .
Сажу́ (сидѣ́ть), I seat ;	. . . сиди́ .
Куплю́ (купи́ть), I buy ;	. . . купи́ .
Люблю́ (люби́ть), I love ;	. . . люби́ .

The other persons of the imperative are :

a. The third person, formed by adding the conjunction пусть, (Slavonic да), 'let' to the third person present singular or plural :

Пусть чита́етъ, } let him read ; пусть чита́ютъ, } let them read.
 Да чита́етъ, } да чита́ютъ ; }
 Пусть говори́тъ, let him speak ; пусть говори́тъ, let them speak.

6. The first person plural, which is identical with the first person of the future, and to which in familiar discourse the syllable те is usually added, as :

Ска́жемъ or ска́жете, let us say.
 Пои́дёмъ or пои́дёмте, let us go.
 Возьме́мъ or возьме́те, let us take.
 Бу́демъ (or ста́немъ) учи́ться, let us study.
 Бу́демъ (or ста́немъ) говори́тъ, let us speak.

Had I done, Сдѣлай я.
 Had we done, Сдѣлай мы.

Obs. 6.—The second person singular of the imperative is used also with other personal pronouns, but in such case it expresses the optative or subjective mood, as :

Had I done this, I should not now have to regret.	Сдѣлай я это, мнѣ не пришлось бы тепѣрь сожалѣть.
Had they informed us of it yester- day, we should not have com- mitted such a gross error.	Дай онѣ намъ знать о томъ вчера, мы не сдѣлали бы такой гру- бой ошибки.

Obs. 7.—The imperative singular, not agreeing in form with the subject, is sometimes used also to express reproach or astonishment :

Overburdened with work as I am, having to write, to draw and to read, yet I am expected to look after the household !	Да я заважёнъ трудами, я и пиши, и рисуй и читай и занимайся ещё хозяйствомъ !
He cajoled them, and so they, of course, told him all they knew about me !	Онъ ихъ приласкалъ, и онѣ конечно раскажи́ ему всё что знали обо мнѣ !

Do go, Пойди-ка.

In familiar discourse, to mollify the apparent harshness of the imperative form, ka is often added.

Do come to us. Приходите-ка къ намъ.
Do sing a song. Спойте-ка пѣсню.

Let, may, Да.

All hail the King !	Да здравствуетъ Король.
Be they allowed.	Да будетъ имъ позволено.
Thy will be done.	Да будетъ воля твоѧ.
Thy Kingdom come.	Да придетъ царствіе твоѧ.

Obs. 8.—The old Russian form of the third person, the imperative with да, as: да чита́етъ, 'let him read,' да чита́ютъ, 'let them read,' is only met with in sacred books, and some ejaculatory phrases.

Obs. 9.—An elliptical form of the imperative is not unfrequently supplied by the infinitive, as : позвѣть ерѡ, ‘call him,’ but in such instances some idea of necessity or obligation is implied :

Do not make a noise, children (you must not make a noise).	Не шумѣть, дѣти! (вы не должны шумѣть).
Be quiet and know your place!	Молчать! и знайте своё мѣсто!
No talking!	Не говорить!

Another peculiarity of the Russian language is, that the imperative is sometimes expressed by the past tense, as :

Go away, пошѐлъ прочь instead of поди прочь.
Coachman, drive away, извощикъ, пошѐлъ!

To leave, to abandon, to let, { ОСТАВЛЯТЬ.
{ ОСТАВИТЬ, perfect aspect.

Leave me your books. Оста́вьте мнѣ ва́ши кнѣ́ги.
Let that be there. Оста́вьте э́то тамъ.

Rely upon my word and you shall have no occasion to repent.—Hail to the Queen! May our dear country flourish! Whoever may ask you for money, do not give it.	Кто бы ни попросилъ у васъ денегъ, не давайте.
Whatever be your lot, never desert him.	Что бы ни выпало на вашу долю, не покидайте его.

Have you learnt the multiplication table?—I have learnt only addition and subtraction, but the multiplication table I do not know as yet.—Then you cannot divide twenty-five by five?—Oh yes, I can do that without knowing the table.—How much will seven times nine be?—To answer that we must multiply nine by seven, and to do that, one must have learnt the multiplication table.—Can we divide three by six, or three by nine?—Yes, we can, but in that case we should get one half and one third, and not whole numbers.—How many wine-glasses full were there in that half a bottle?—Seven and a half.—How many minutes are there in half-an-hour?—Thirty.—Had you come to his house half-an-hour sooner, you would have found him at home.—What is the Christian name of this peasant?—His Christian name is Peter.—Cannot you tell me what that is in Russian (по русски)?—I do not know it myself, you had better ask one of the masters.—What is the name of the street in which we saw so many hackney carriages this afternoon?—I do not know its name; I am myself a stranger here.—Will you allow me, sir, to ask what your name is?—Your face is familiar to me, only I cannot recollect at all where I had the honour of seeing you?—If I am not mistaken, I had the pleasure of being introduced to you at the Prince R's. ball.—How is your nephew getting on?—He is in bad circumstances at present, but it is entirely his own fault, for if he had applied for a situation half a year ago, he would have obtained it.—Is your uncle as rich as his father?—My uncle is as rich again as my father.—Is it far from here to the river?—It is as far again from here to the river as from that green hillock.—Is this satin as good as mine?—It is as good again as yours.

Which handkerchief will you give?

Obs. 2. — The pronouns кто, 'who,' что, 'what,' 'that,'

кой, который, 'who, which,' каковъй, 'what kind,' чей, 'whose,' сколько, 'how much,' when referring to an antecedent become relative, as in English.

Somebody, { Кто-нибѹдь.
Кто-то.

Something, { Что-нибѹдь.
Что-то.

Obs. 3.—Pronouns and adverbs followed by нибѹдь, which has the meaning of 'no matter what it be,' 'be it what it may,' can be easily distinguished from those followed by то, which means 'a certain, a particular.'

Did somebody (no matter who) speak to him ?

Говорѣлъ ли кто нибѹдь съ нимъ ?

Obs. 4.—Relative pronouns agree in gender and number with their antecedent, and are put in the case governed by the verb or a noun of the subordinate clause.

Relative pronouns are always separated from their antecedent by a comma:

The book which we read.

Кни́га, кото́рую чита́емъ.

That which you are afraid of.

То, чего́ вы бо́итесь.

Obs. 5.—When the second personal pronoun is used in the plural for the sake of politeness, the relative pronoun is put in the singular, as :

You, to whom I am indebted and whom I respect.

Вы, ко́мѹ я обяза́нъ и кото́ра-го уважа́ю.

How much gunpowder have you ?

Ско́лько у васъ поро́ху?

У меня́ его́ бы́ло мно́го.

Obs. 6.—The pronouns сто́лько, ‘so much;’ мно́го, ‘much;’ ма́ло, ‘a little;’ не́сколько, ‘a few’ as also the numerals два, три, четы́ре, пять, etc., in answer to the question, ‘how much?’ are followed by the genitive and require the verb to be impersonal.

It remained a quarter of an hour.

Оста́лось че́тверть часа́.

Who was riding ?

Кто ѣ́халъ ?

Two men were riding.

Два чело́вѣ́ка ѣ́хали.

Obs. 7.—When the numerals два, три, четы́ре, пять, etc.

answer the question 'who? or what?' then the predicate, as also any determinative word used with these numerals, is put in the plural.

Who is speaking?

These two men are speaking.

Seven do not wait for one.

The last half an hour flew by unnoticed.

Кто говоритъ?

Эти два человека говорятъ.

Семеро одного не ждутъ.

Остальные полчаса протекли незамѣтно.

Obs. 8.—The compound numerals полтора́ and полтретья́ present the peculiarity that in the nom. and acc. sing. they govern the following noun in the gen. sing., but in all other cases they require the noun to be put in the corresponding case of the plural, as:

How many French books had he?—He had two French books.—How many daughters had he?—He had five daughters.—Where do these three peasants live?—These three peasants live in some little village on the other side of the river.—How many books were there lying on the table?—Two books, six books were lying.—Allow me to take these seven books.—Take these two books only, the other ones I want myself.—How many ounces are there in a pound and a half?—Twenty-four.—How much did your brother-in-law spend?—He spent more than one hundred and fifty pounds.—Did all the army return from abroad?—No, out of one hundred and fifty thousand men, sent abroad last year, only the last twenty thousand have returned.—Did the passers by give anything to the beggar?—Of all who (no matter who) passed by, every body gave him something; some gave a piece of bread, some a copeck, some gave even as much as a rouble.

FORTY-EIGHTH LESSON.

Сорокъ восьмой Урокъ.

REFLECTIVE VERBS.—Возвратные Глаголы.

Reflective verbs, which denote an action falling upon the agent, are formed from transitive verbs by adding ся (the abridged pronoun себя) to the infinitive.

They are conjugated in the same way as transitive verbs, the suffix ся when coming after a vowel being abridged into сь.

To warm one's self, Грѣться.

INDICATIVE MOOD.

Present.

I warm myself, я грѣюсь, ты грѣ- ешься, онъ грѣется.		We warm ourselves, мы грѣмся. вы грѣетесь, онѣ грѣются.
---	--	--

Past.

I was warming myself, я грѣлся, fem. грѣлась, neut. грѣлось, etc.		We were warming ourselves, мы грѣлись, вы грѣлись, etc.
--	--	--

Future.

I will warm myself, я буду грѣться, etc.		We will warm ourselves, мы бу- демъ грѣться, etc.
---	--	--

SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD.

I would warm myself, я грѣлся бы, etc.		We would warm ourselves, мы грѣ- лись бы, etc.
---	--	---

PASSIVE PARTICIPLE.

Wanting.

GERUND.

Present.—(While) warming one's self, грѣясь.

Past. — (After) having warmed one's self, грѣвши.

To hope,	Надѣяться,	} neut. verbs.
To laugh,	Смѣяться,

Reflective verbs of neuter signification, termed in Russian общіе глаголы, 'common verbs,' cannot be used without the suffix ся, inasmuch as they express some state of mind or feeling falling only upon the agent himself.

To rejoice, радоваться.	To be afraid, бояться.
To take pains, стараться.	To be ashamed, стыдиться.

Reflective verbs which denote the action of two or more agents upon each other, and answering the question 'with whom,' are called взаимные, 'reciprocal.'

To kiss one another.	Цѣловаться.
To fight one another.	Сражаться.
To embrace one another.	Обниматься.
The troops are fighting (with the enemy).	Войска сражаются.
The friends embrace one another.	Друзья обнимаются.
The sisters are kissing one another.	Сестры цѣлуются.

To break,	Рвать, рваться,
To knock, to knock at,	Стучать, стучаться.
To pray,	Моли́ть, моли́ться.

Obs. 1.—Neuter verbs denoting some inherent force or capability take the form of reflective verbs.

The thread breaks.	Нитки рвутся.
To knock at the door	Стучаться въ дверь.
To pray God.	Моли́ться Бо́гу.
The door opens.	Дверь отворяется.

Obs. 2.—Reciprocal verbs not answering the question 'with whom,' become simply neuter verbs, as :

The soldiers are fighting for their country.	Войска сражаются за своё отечество.
--	-------------------------------------

Obs. 3.—On the other hand, those neuter verbs which answer the question ‘with whom,’ have the signification of reciprocal, as :

They played with children.

Онѣ играли съ дѣтьми.

We conversed with them.

Мы разговаривали съ ними.

PASSIVE VERBS.—Страдательные Глаголы.

Passive Verbs, which represent the agent as receiving or suffering an action from others, are formed, as in English, from active verbs by adding the auxiliary verb быть, ‘to be,’ in its different tenses to the apocopated participle passive, either present or past.

The distinction of gender in passive verbs is carried through all the moods and tenses.

To be read,

{ Быть чита́ему, f. чита́емой.
{ Быть чи́тану, f. чи́танной.

To be wished,

{ Быть жела́ему, f. жела́емой.
{ Быть жела́ну, f. жела́нной.

I shall be loved, я буду люб́имъ, люб́има, о, etc.

We shall be loved, мы будемъ люб́имы, etc.

I would be loved, я былъ бы люб́имъ, а, о.

We would be loved, мы были бы люб́имы.

Be (thou) loved, будь люб́имъ, а, о.

Be (you) loved, будьте люб́имы.

Being loved, будучи люб́имъ, а, о.

Having been loved, бывши люб́имъ, а, о.

This man is respected.

{ Этотъ челове́къ уважа́емъ.
{ Этого челове́ка уважа́ютъ.

This book is read.

{ Эта кни́га чита́ема.
{ Эту кни́гу чита́ютъ.
{ Эта кни́га чита́ется.

Obs. 4.—The third person of passive verbs is seldom met with in the Russian language of the present day, and in general Russians prefer to use either the active or reflective form instead of the passive.

He is praised by all.	Онъ хвалѣмъ всѣми.
All praise him.	Всѣ его хвалѣтъ.
The business is done.	{ Дѣло дѣлается.
	{ Дѣло дѣлаемо.
The horses are sold.	{ Лошади продаются.
	{ Лошади продаваемы.
The letters are written.	Письма пишутся.

As the subject in the passive form is put in the instr. case, all reflective verbs used instead of passive govern also the instrumental.

I am occupied with reading.	{ Я занятъ } чтеніемъ.
	{ Я занимаюсь }
The cloth is cut with scissors.	Сукно рѣжется (от рѣжутъ) ножницами.
The horses were broken in by the groom.	Лошади объѣзжались конюхомъ.

Obs. 5.—In dates, the year, together with the day of the month, is put in the genitive, but the year or month by itself is put in the prepositional case with въ.

Shakespeare was born on the 23rd of April, 1546.	Шекспиръ родился двадцать третьяго апрѣля, тысяча пятьсотъ сорокъ шестого года.

FORTY-NINTH LESSON.—С́брокъ девятой Уро́къ.

IMPERSONAL VERBS.—Безл́ичные Глаго́лы.

Impersonal Verbs proper are those which cannot be used as a predicate to any definite or direct subject, and in which, in fact, the subject is altogether wanting. They are expressed in Russian by the third person singular, their past being only neuter as to gender, as :

It grows late, вечерѣть ;	past	вечерѣло.
It thaws, таетъ ;	. .	таяло.
It grows dark, темнѣть ;	. .	темнѣло.
It becomes, подобаетъ ;	. .	подобало.
It dawns, разсвѣтаетъ ;	. .	разсвѣтало.

Personal verbs used in the third person singular or plural without the pronoun—either when there is no definite agent expressed or when some such word as it, one, they, people, some one, something, etc., is understood in its place,—become impersonal.

It depends, зави́ситъ ;	past	зави́сѣло.
It is proper, при́личествуетъ ;	. .	при́личествовало.
They say, говорáтъ ;	. .	говорáли.
People think, дума́ютъ ;	. .	дума́ли.
It wants, недостаётъ ;	. .	недостава́ло.
People do, дѣла́ютъ ;	. .	дѣла́ли.

Obs. 1.—Impersonal verbs in the plural, are sometimes used instead of the passive, as :

The book is read.	Кни́гу чита́ютъ, instead of кни́га чита́ема.
He is praised.	Его хва́лятъ, instead of онъ хва́лимъ.

Some verbs become impersonal by adding ся to the third person singular, without however taking the nature of reflexive verbs.

It is said, говорáтся.	It is done, дѣла́ется.
It is asked, спра́шивается.	It is considered, счита́ется.
It happens, случáется.	It seems, ка́жется.
It appears, оказыва́ется.	It is required, тре́буется.

Besides the above, there are also compound impersonal verbs formed by adding the auxiliaries есть, было, будетъ to apocopated participles passive, or to adjectives of the neuter gender, as :

It is written, напи́сано.	It is possible, возмо́жно.
It is said, сказа́но.	It is known, изве́стно.
It is done, сдѣ́лано.	It is vexatious, доса́дно.

Obs. 2.—Impersonal verbs with peculiar terminations are жаль, лѣнь and лѣзя, the last being used in the negative only :

It is a pity, жаль.

I feel sorry, мнѣ жаль.

I feel lazy, мнѣ лѣнь.

It is impossible, нельзя.

The verb нѣтъ, formed from есть, and the particle не (не есть) has in the past нѣ было, future не будетъ.

Есть, было, будетъ become impersonal when they refer to the pronouns кто 'who,' что 'what, that,' or the adverbs гдѣ 'where,' когда 'when,' куда 'whither,' откуда 'whence,' and such like, as :

One has something to be glad of.

You have some one to speak to.

You had some one to love.

One will have something to think of.

One has somewhere to sojourn.

There is no place to go to.

Есть чему радоваться.

Есть съ кѣмъ поговорить.

Было кого любить.

Будетъ о чемъ подумать.

Есть гдѣ остановиться.

Нѣкуда пойти.

Obs. 3.—In interrogative and negative sentences есть is omitted, but было and будетъ must be retained.

Whom has one to ask ?

What is there to be done ?

What has one to be busy about ?

There is no one to ask.

There is nothing to be done.

There is no place to sojourn.

Whom had one to ask ?

There was no one to ask.

There was no place to go to.

What was there to be done ?

There was nothing to be done.

What will there be to be busy about ?

There will be nothing to be busy about.

Кого спросить ?

Что дѣлать ?

Чѣмъ заняться ?

Нѣкого спросить.

Нѣчего дѣлать.

Нѣгдѣ остановиться.

Кого было спросить.

Нѣкого было спросить.

Нѣкуда было пойти.

Что было дѣлать ?

Нѣчего было дѣлать.

Чѣмъ будетъ заняться ?

Нѣчѣмъ будетъ заняться.

The second person is also often used to express the impersonal, when in English the word one is understood.

You may sit here sometimes all day	Сидишь здѣсь иногда цѣлый день long and see nothing.	и ничего не видишь.
You think to yourself.	Думаешь про себя.

Obs. 4.—With some impersonal verbs the subject is expressed, as :

It thunders, громъ гремѣть.	It snows, снѣгъ идѣть.
It rains, дождь идѣть.	It hails, градъ идѣть.

Compound impersonal verbs, as also those formed from active and neuter verbs, govern the dative.

I should like to go for a walk.	Мнѣ хочется пойти гулять.
He is pleased with it.	Емѹ это пріятно.
He has some place to go to.	Емѹ есть куда пойти.
We are ordered.	Намъ вѣстно.
Everybody was merry.	Всѣмъ было весело.
They are sorry for you.	Имъ жаль васъ.
It is impossible for her.	Ей невозможно.

The infinitive of all verbs when used as the complement to an impersonal verb governs the dative.

Learning is useful to everybody.	Учѣться всякому человѣку полезно.
The work had to be finished.	Работѣ следовало быть конченной.
They ought to be ready.	Имъ должно быть готовымъ.
The greatest blessing is to enjoy good health.	Быть здорову (есть) первое благо.

Obs. 5.—Adjectives and participles in direct concord with the infinitive быть, governed by a personal verb, are put :—

a. In the nominative after the verbs могѹ 'I can,' and долженъ 'I must,' as :

I can be useful.	Я могѹ быть полезенъ.
The book must be read.	Книга должна быть прочитана.

b. In the instrumental after other verbs :

I hope to be ready.

Надѣюсь быть готовымъ.

I wish to be invited.

Я желаю быть приглашённымъ.

Used to be,

Бывало, impersonal.

Бывало may be used with verbs in all tenses, as :

I used to take a walk.

Я гулялъ бывало.

When I walked I used to think to myself.

Я гуляю бывало и думаю самъ про себя.

After taking a little walk I used to lie on the grass.

Погуляю бывало немного да и лягу на траву.

Obs. 6.—Neuter and reflective impersonal verbs which imply an idea of quantity, such as much, several, some, few, etc., govern the genitive.

A number of guests came.

Наѣхало гостей.

There was some increase in business

Прибавилось дѣла.

FIFTY-FIRST LESSON.

Пятьдесятъ пѣрвый Урѣкъ.

OF THE ASPECTS IN DETAIL.

It might erroneously be assumed that the Russian verb, in having only three tenses, is not susceptible of the different variations of meaning presented in English by compound tenses, or by a dozen or so of auxiliaries combined with the infinitive or participle: the reverse is, however, the case. Besides the ordinary moods and tenses, the Russian verb has also forms to express the circumstances accompanying the action, or the manner in which the action is performed, without reference to its time. These forms, named aspects, виды (see Lesson 28), which render the Russian verb richer in its simplicity than those of other European languages, are :

I. The Imperfect Aspect, indicating an action performed absolutely, i.e. without conditions as to its beginning or ending.

The peasants sell their goods in the market.	Крестьяне прода́тъ свои́ товары на ры́нкѣ.
Some wrote with pen, some with pencil.	Кто писа́лъ перо́мъ, кто карандашомъ.
Who will read us this manuscript ?	Кто бу́детъ чита́ть намъ эту ру́копись ?
Whoever can read best.	Тотъ, кто чита́етъ лу́чше всѣхъ.

To fly,	{ Летѣ́тъ, def.
	{ Летáтъ, indef.
To swim,	{ Плы́тъ, def.
	{ Пла́вать, indef.

The imperfect aspect is subdivided into :

a. The definite, which denotes that the action takes place at some particular time.

He is swimming (now) to that ship.	Онъ плыве́тъ къ тому́ кораблю́.
Whither are these birds flying ?	Куда́ эти́ пти́цы летя́тъ ?
How did you feel at the time when you were swimming to the boat ?	Какъ вы себя́ чувствовали въ то время когда́ плы́ли (плы́ва) къ лодкѣ.
We will swim slowly.	Мы бу́демъ плыть́ тихо́.

b. The indefinite, which denotes the ability or faculty, as also a habit of performing an act without reference to a particular time.

Birds (can) fly and fishes swim.	Пти́цы летя́ютъ, а ры́бы пла́ваютъ.
He swims well.	Онъ пла́ваетъ хоро́шó.
If you take a few lessons in swimming, you will be able to swim well.	Если возьмёте нѣсколько уро́ковъ пла́ванія, то бу́дете пла́вать хоро́шó.

II. The Perfect Aspect, which denotes a thorough accomplishment of the action, is subdivided into :

a. Inchoative Perfect Aspect (the starting point), denoting an action as fully begun, without intimating that it has been or will be brought to an end.

He began to speak and everybody got silent.	Онъ заговорѣлъ и всѣ замолчали.
The musical-box began to play.	Органчикъ заигралъ.
They will begin to laugh.	Онѣ засмѣются.

b. Perfect Aspect of Duration (the goal), denoting that the action, although brought to a termination, required a certain time for its accomplishment.

I have read (finished reading) the book.	Я прочиталъ книгу.
They come home.	Онѣ пришли домой.
They will read (entirely) the book.	Онѣ прочтутъ книгу.
She will come home.	Она придетъ домой.

c. Perfect Aspect of Unity (semelfactive), employed when the action is performed in one single, sudden effort :

He shouted (once).	Онъ крикнулъ.
He jumped (once) over the fence.	Онъ перепрыгнулъ черезъ заборъ.
He gave him a glance.	Онъ взглянулъ на него.

III. The Iterative Aspect, denoting that the action was accomplished in repeated efforts or times at some distant period.

In olden times our ancestors used to live better than we do now.	Въ старину живали дѣды лучше нашего.
We used to read good books.	Мы читывали хорошія книги.

Obs. 1.—Each Aspect is regularly conjugated according to its own moods and tenses, thus :

a. The Imperfect Aspect, both definite and indefinite, has all the moods and tenses.

b. The Perfect has all the moods and tenses, except the present.

c. The Iterative wants the imperative and has only the past tense.

Obs. 2.—There are a few verbs like свистать ‘to whistle,’ which possess all the aspects, as for instance :

Imperfect asp.	{ Definite,	свистѣть.
	{ Indefinite,	свистать.
Perfect asp.	{ Inchoative,	засвистать.
	{ of duration,	просвистать.
	{ of unity,	свистнуть.
Iterative asp.		свистывать.

In some verbs the perfect of unity is wanting, in others the inchoative or the iterative.

With this relation to the aspects the simple verbs, i.e. those which have no preposition attached to them, are :

1. Complete, which have all the principal aspects, as :

Imperfect.	Perfect.	Iterative.
To throw, кидать,	кинуть,	кидывать.
To touch, трогать,	тронуть,	трогать.

2. Incomplete, which have two aspects: the imperfect and the iterative, as :

Imperfect.	Iterative.
To play, играть,	игривать.
To sing, пѣть,	пѣвать.

3. Double verbs, which have both the forms of the imperfect aspect and the iterative, as :

Imperfect Definite.	Imperfect Indefinite.	Iterative.
To go, идти,	ходить,	хаживать.
To carry, нести,	носить,	нашивать.

4. Defective, which have one aspect only, the imperfect or perfect, as :

To adore, обожать,	} used only in the imperfect aspect.
To suspect, подозревать,
To come to one's self, опомниться,	} used only in the perfect aspect.
To gush out, хлынуть,

To refuse,

{ Отка́зывать въ, } with the { Отказа́ть, р. а., } прер. с.

To bequeath, to leave,

Отка́зывать, отказа́ть.

What did he refuse you ?

Въ чёмъ онъ отка́залъ вамъ ?

He refused me everything.

Онъ во всёмъ мнѣ отка́залъ.

My grandmother bequeathed me this estate.

Бабушка отка́зала мнѣ это имѣнье.

He gave him a peremptory refusal.

Онъ ему́ на́чи́сто отка́залъ.

He met with a refusal.

Онъ получи́лъ отка́зъ.

To be of use,

Быть по́лезнымъ.

To make one's self useful,

Приноси́ть по́льзу.

To be a burden to,

Быть въ тя́гость.—

Am I a burden to you ?

Въ тя́гость ли я вамъ ?

I am a burden to myself.

Я въ тя́гость себѣ.

They were a burden to themselves.

Онѣ бы́ли себѣ въ тя́гость.

Immaterial, all the same,

Всё равно, ну́жды нѣтъ, impersonal, with the dat.

It is immaterial to us.

Намъ всё равно́.

They wished that the sun would always shine.—Was their wish fulfilled?—Yes, for six whole weeks there was not a single cloud visible.—Did this dry weather do any harm? Yes, it did a great deal of harm to the fields, meadows and gardens.—Do you go to town in winter often?—No, we seldom go there.—Who left you the estate you now possess?—My late aunt left it to me.—Is the servant carrying the fire-wood which the peasant has brought for us this morning?—No, he has not yet begun to carry it.—Whither shall you go next year for cloth?—I shall go to England, and then, when I have bought it, I shall go to Holland. FIFTY-THIRD LESSON.

Пятьдесятъ третій Урокъ.

FORMATION OF THE ITERATIVE ASPECT.

The Iterative is formed from the imperfect aspect by changing the termination of the infinitive or that of the present tense into ывалъ, нвалъ, валъ or алъ.

Dissyllabic and polysyllabic verbs in тъ, preceded by а, я, о, ѣ, и form their iterative in ывалъ or нвалъ, the tonic accent falling on the radical syllable, i.e. before the termination.

To read, чит-ать, читаю ;	iterative, чит-ывалъ.
To measure, мѣр-ять, мѣряю ;	. . мѣр-нвалъ.
To sting, кол-оть, колю ;	. . кол-ывалъ.
To sit, сид-ѣть, сижу ;	. . сид-нвалъ.
To love, люб-ить, люблю ;	. . люб-нвалъ.

Verbs of the first conjugation ending in ать form the iterative in ывалъ, which is changed into нвалъ when coming only after ж, ч, ш, г, к, х, as :

To hold, держ-ать, держу ;	iterative, держ-нвалъ.
To roll, кач-ать, качаю ;	. . кач-нвалъ.
To decide, рѣш-ать, рѣшаю ;	. . рѣш-нвалъ.
To move, двиг-ать, двигаю ;	. . двиг-нвалъ.
To plough, пах-ать, паху ;	. . пах-нвалъ.

An л before нвалъ is inserted in the iterative of verbs of the second class in ать, preceded by б, п, м :

To shake, колеб-ать, колеблю ;	iterative, колеблнвалъ.
To drizzle, крап-ать, краплю ;	. . краплннвалъ.
To slumber, дрем-ать, дремлю ;	. . дремлннвалъ.

Obs. 1.—The following dissyllabic verbs of the ninth and tenth classes take агъ instead of ивагъ :

To burn, горѣть ;	iterative, горѣагъ.
To boil, кипѣть ;	. . кипѣагъ.
To cut, рубить ;	. . рубѣагъ.

The iterative in вагъ and агъ is formed :

a. From all monosyllabic verbs :

To know, знать, знаю ;	iterative, знаваагъ.
To sing, пѣть, пою ;	. . пѣваагъ.
To live, жить, живу ;	. . живаагъ.
To nibble, грызть, грызю ;	. . грызаагъ.
To bake, печь, пеку ;	. . пекаагъ.
To row, грести, гребу ;	. . гребаагъ.
To burn, жечь, жгу ;	. . жигаагъ.

Except the following in сть :

To lay, класть, кладу ;	iterative, кладываагъ.
To steal, красть, краду ;	. . крадываагъ.
To spin, прясть, пряду ;	. . прядываагъ.

Obs. 2.—The termination вагъ is used after vowels and агъ after consonants.

To tear, рвать, рву ;	iterative, рываагъ.
To take, брать, беру ;	. . бираагъ.

Obs. 3.—If a vowel in the imperfect aspect is wanting in the verbal root, the vowel и (ы) is inserted in the iterative :

To babble, врать, вр-у ;	iterative, вир-аагъ.
To rub, терѣть, тр-у ;	. . тир-аагъ.
To call, звать, зову ;	. . зыв-аагъ.

Obs. 4.—The termination агъ of the iterative is always accented.

6. From dissyllabic verbs in нѹтъ, as :

To feel cold, сѣбнѹтъ ; iterative, сѣбѣ-аѹтъ.
 To dry, сѣхнѹтъ ; . . сѣхѣ-аѹтъ.

Except the following :

To smell, пѣхнѹтъ ; iterative, пѣхиваѹтъ.
 To draw, тянѹтъ ; . . тягиваѹтъ.

OBS. 5.—Between the indefinite imperfect aspect and the iterative there is a great similarity in meaning, and they have in common the characteristic suffix a, as :

I was in the habit of swimming. Я плѣваѹтъ,
 I used to sing. Я пѣваѹтъ.

but they differ in this that the first has and the second has not the present tense.

Verbs having in the infinitive the tonic accent on the last syllable, in forming the iterative change the o of the radical syllable into a, which takes also the accent.

To throw, бросѣтъ ; iterative, брасываѹтъ.
 To look, смотрѣтъ ; . . смѣтриваѹтъ.
 To feed, кормѣтъ ; . . кармливаѹтъ.

OBS. 6.—If the radical o is accented in the infinitive it remains unchanged in the iterative.

To touch, трѣгать ; iterative, трѣгиваѹтъ.
 To damage, пѣрѣтъ ; . . пѣрчиваѹтъ.

Only the following deviate from this rule :

To creep, пѣззѣтъ ; iterative, пѣззиваѹтъ.
 To turn, ворѣчатѣ ; . . ворѣчиваѹтъ.
 To build, стрѣбѣтъ ; . . стрѣбиваѹтъ (стрѣбиваѹтъ).
 To dispose to kindness, дѣбрѣтъ ; . . дѣбриваѹтъ (дѣбѣбиваѹтъ).

Obs. 7.—It has been stated that the iterative of double verbs is formed from the indefinite aspect; the following, however, are exceptions, as they form the iterative also from the definite aspect.

To climb, лѣзть;	iterative, лѣза́тъ.
To creep, ползти;	. . . полза́тъ.
To turn, вертѣть;	. . . верчѣва́тъ.
To roll, катить;	. . . катѣва́тъ.

Most verbs derived from substantives or adjectives want the iterative; to these belong neuter verbs of the first class in ѣть, жать, чать, шать, щать, and verbs in нуть of the eighth class denoting the acquisition of some quality, as:

To grow white, бѣлѣть.	To become dear, дорожа́тъ.
To grow black, чернѣть.	To become strong, крѣпчѣа́тъ.
To grow blue, синѣть.	To grow old, ветша́тъ.
To sweat, потѣть.	To know how, уми́тъ.
To fade, блѣкнуть.	To grow deaf, глохну́тъ.

The participles, the gerund and the infinitive of the third branch, i. e. of the iterative, are formed in the same way as those of the second branch, namely, by changing лъ into въ (вши) вши́й,—тъ,—нъ, as:

Iterative , чита́ваа́тъ.
Active Participle , чита́ваа́вший.
Passive Participle , чита́ваа́нъ.
Gerund , чита́ваа́въ.

Obs. 8.—The iterative aspect of simple verbs is seldom used in the infinitive, but a careful study of this aspect will be found very useful for the formation of prepositional verbs.

To spend,	{ Трати́ть, II. 10.
	{ Истра́тить, perf. asp.

Was her sister as liberal?—She displayed as much kindness to the poor as her circumstances allowed her.—Does he read much now?—He used to read formerly, but now, they say, he does not even take a book in hand.—Have you ever seen such a horse?—I have seen in my life-time all sorts of horses, but so fine a one I never saw.—When will you favour us with a (your) visit?—We hope to be in town three weeks hence, and then we will call on you. Did they notify to him the arrival of the goods?—Yes, they notified it to him by letter.—What kind of breakfast have you ordered to be served, an English or an ordinary one?—What do you mean by an English breakfast?—Tea with buttered toast, and, if you like, a mutton or veal cutlet. This is too much, I eat but little in the morning.—Give orders for a cup of coffee with cream to be brought.

EXERCISE CVIII.

How much does your brother spend a year on himself?

He spends not only all he earns, but even gets into debt. What does this poor widow live upon?—She lives by her labour.—Upon what money does this extravagant young man live?—He lives on money which he gets from his father.—Do you spend much?—I used to spend not a little when I was rich, but now I have become saving.—How are his affairs now?—He is in a great perplexity.—How much a week do you pay to your cook?—I pay him twelve and a half roubles per month.—Is all the money spent? No, there are a few roubles left, with (на) which we will buy for ourselves a few French and German books.—Are all men equal in France?—All men are equal in the sight of God, but you will not find true equality among men. Help me to carry this heavy box upstairs.—I am very sorry I cannot fulfil your request, but if you will wait a short time, when I return I will carry it there myself.—Is your gardener at work?—Why do you ask me about it? You know he is the most honest and industrious of my servants.—This I know, but I ask you what he is doing? He is planting trees and flowers.

FIFTY-FOURTH LESSON.

Пятьдесят четвёртый Урокъ.

Verbs of perfect aspect formed, not by means of a prefix but by a change of termination, are divided into two categories :

- a. Verbs of perfect aspect of unity.
- b. Simple perfect verbs.

The Perfect Aspect of Unity is formed from verbs of perfect aspect denoting a physical action or rather an action combined with some visible or audible sign. Verbs of this aspect are formed by changing the termination of the imperfect aspect into ну, нуть.

Лопать , to burst ;	perf. of unity, лопнуть .
Махать , to wave ;	. . . махнуть .
Дуть , to blow ;	. . . дунуть .
Лизать , to lick ;	. . . лизнуть .
Рубить , to chop ;	. . . рубнуть .
Зѣвать , to yawn ;	. . . зѣвнуть .
Прѣгать , to jump ;	. . . прѣгнуть .
Сверкать , to flash ;	. . . сверкнуть .

Obs. 1.—The radical consonants г, д, к, т, are omitted before нуть in the following :

Блестѣть , to shine ; блеснуть .	Прѣдать , to bound ; прѣнуть .
Брызгать , to sprinkle ; брызнуть .	Свистѣть , to whistle ; свѣснуть .
Вертѣть , to turn ; вернуть .	Тѣскать , to squeeze ; тѣснуть .
Глядѣть , to look ; глануть .	Трепетать , to tremble ; трепенуть .
Двѣгать , to move ; двѣнуть .	Трескать , to crack ; треснуть .
Дѣргать , to pull ; дѣрнуть .	Трогать , to touch ; тронуть .
Кидать , to throw ; кинуть .	Хлестать , to lash ; хлеснуть .
Плескать , to splash ; плеснуть .	Хлыстать , to smack ; хлыснуть .
Полоскать , to rinse ; полоснуть .	Хрустѣть , to crunch ; хруснуть .
Прѣскаать , to syringe ; прѣснуть .	Шептать , to whisper ; шепнуть .

Obs. 2.—The radical consonants г, к, х in verbs of second conjugation, changed in the imperfect aspect into ж, ч, ш or с, are restored in the perfect of unity.

Imperfect.	Root.	Perfect.
Звучать , to sound ;	звукъ ,	звѣкнуть .
Визжать , to yell ;	визгъ ,	вѣзгнуть .
Кричать , to scream ;	крикъ ,	крѣкнуть .
Ворошить , to stir ;	ворохъ ,	ворохнуть .

Obs. 3.—Л before нуть becomes soft (лъ).

Колѡтъ, to sting ; кольну́тъ.
Шевелѣтъ, to stir ; шевельну́тъ.
Вилѣтъ, to evade ; вильну́тъ.

Obs. 4.—The following verbs of perfect aspect in нуть are not classed with verbs of unity, as they do not denote an action accomplished by a sudden or single effort. In these verbs the letter н belongs to the root and not to the termination :

Мин-у́тъ, to avoid ; from миновáтъ.
Обман-у́тъ, to deceive ; . . обмáнывать.
Помян-у́тъ, to mention ; . . поминáтъ.

Obs. 5.—The following, forming the perfect of unity in нуть without denoting physical action, are exceptions :

Дерзну́тъ, to dare ; from дерзáтъ.
Хвастну́тъ, to boast ; . . хвáстать.
Щегольну́тъ, to flaunt ; . . щеголáтъ.

It is a long time since I waved my hand.	Я ужé давно́ какъ махáю вамъ руко́ю.
I will wave my hand to him once at the proper time.	Я махну́ ему́ руко́ю когда придетъ порá.

THE USE OF БЫЛО.

Obs. 6.—The impersonal verb было before an infinitive in affirmative and negative sentences denotes an obligation or necessity, and is mostly used with personal pronouns in the dative, as :

Ему́ было проче́сть.	He had to read.
Вамъ было погово́рить съ нимъ.	You had to speak to him.

Obs. 7.—Было after the infinitive of perfect aspect sig-ifies 'should have,' and is used with the first person only, as:

Прочѣсть было мнѣ эту книгу.	I should have read this book.
Поговорить было намъ съ нимъ.	We should have spoken to him.

Obs. 8.—In negative sentences было after an infinitive is used with verbs of imperfect aspect only, and denotes likewise an obligation or necessity.

Не говорить было съ нимъ.	You ought not to speak to him.
Не идти было туда.	You ought not to go there.

Obs. 9.—Было with the past tense of perfect aspect denotes either duration without completion or a failure in accomplishing an action.

Я прочёлъ было это.	I nearly read it through.
Я собрался было лечь, какъ въдругъ слышу стукъ въ дверь.	I was about (or just going) to lie down, when suddenly I heard a knock at the door.

Obs. 10.—With the inchoative perfect aspect it denotes that an action was about to be, or on the point of being commenced, as:

Я было заговорилъ.	I was on the point of speaking.
Я сталъ было пѣть.	I was about to sing.

THE USE OF БЫВАЛО.

It has been stated (Lesson 49), that the impersonal бывало is found with verbs in each of the three tenses. Its use may be thus illustrated:

a. With the past tense of the imperfect and iterative an action is described as one that took place repeatedly in some remote period.

Я говорилъ бывало ему.	I used to speak to him.
Я ѣздилъ бывало въ театръ.	I used to go to the theatre.

Obs. 11.—This form is often used instead of the iterative, thus :

Я говорѣлъ бывало, or я говаривалъ.
Я ѣздилъ бывало, or я ѣзжалъ.

b. With the present an action that occurred in some remote period is described as still continuing, as :

Гуляю бывало по берегу и собираю ракушки. While walking along the shore I used to gather shells.

Obs. 12.—The principal clause with бывало, when changed into a gerund, becomes a subordinate one denoting an action long past :

Сидя бывало и ужу рыбу. } While seated I used to angle with Сидя я удилъ рыбу. a line.

c. With the future of the inchoative aspect an action is described as begun, and with that of the perfect aspect as ended in some remote period :

Заговорѣть (inchoative) бывало она о своёмъ покойномъ мужѣ да и заплачетъ.	No sooner did she begin to speak of her late husband than she used to cry.
Посмотрѣть (посмотрѣвъ) бывало въ глаза и тотчасъ отгадываетъ ваше желаніе.	No sooner had he gazed at your eyes than he used to guess your wishes.

EXERCISE CIX.

Is it not your brother standing there by the roadside? It appears to be.—Give a whistle; perhaps he will turn round and see us.—I cannot whistle; you had better run up to him and tell him to come here.—Whisper to him that I have to communicate something important to him. The master says it is rude to whisper in company.—What sound is that?—Some one must have discharged a gun in the next room.—Have not you heard anything?—I think some one gave a shriek.—You had better see what is going on there.—What did you see?—On entering the room I saw the husband loading his gun; he gave me a look, became frightened, and dropping (уронѣть) the gun, ran out of the room into the yard; there he leapt upon a horse standing at the door and galloped off into the field. Do not smack the whip; you may frighten the horse by so doing.—The other day when my brother smacked his whip, the horse flew at the coachman and nearly killed him.—Shake that apple tree; perhaps a few apples will fall.—My eldest brother used to climb upon that thick branch and give it a shake.—Have you communicated this news to his brother-in-law?—Yes, I communicate to him all the news I receive.—Did he do it cleverly?—He did it so cleverly as not to be remarked.—How many times during the fight did that brave soldier load his gun?—He loaded it only fourteen times.—Why did he not fire as often as others?—Because he had not powder enough.—Is it not true that the performance was very good?—All did not perform equally well; some actors were very weak. Is the weather fine?—Yes, but I think it will rain.—Why do you think so?—Because a southerly wind is blowing. It seems to me you are mistaken; the wind is blowing not from (съ) the south, but from the north.—You always like to contradict.

EXERCISE CX.

Who had to write?—We had to write.—You should not give your sons so much money; they would then be more saving.—The mother used to look (fut.) at her sick child and cry.—Did you send word of your arrival to your brother?—I had written a letter and was just on the point of sending it to the post, when suddenly the door opened and your brother entered the room.—Where does the general live who used to review the troops?—He now lives in his ancestral castle, respected by his monarch, and loved not only by his former subordinates, but also by all his friends and acquaintances.—How did you pass the long winter evenings in your parents' house?—One of us used to read aloud (pres.) and the others listened.—Are you satisfied with your new servant?—No, I am very dissatisfied with him.—Do you know that the merchant who enjoyed so extensive a credit is now bankrupt?—Yes, and are you aware that my sister was on the verge of giving him all her money, but our uncle prevented it in time.—Whom did you give a nod to?—To an old school friend, whom I have not seen for more than five years.—You promised to let me know whether you would come for the evening; why did you not do it?—We expected you.—I was just going out, when the servant came to tell me that my sister was suddenly taken ill and wanted to see me.—This was the only reason for my absence, and I hope you will excuse me.—Why did you not send us word about your sister's illness? we would have paid her a visit.—I never hasten to send bad tidings, but now I may tell you that she is much better, and our doctor says she is out (BHB) of danger. Do you read much in the evenings?—Yesterday evening I read through the first volume of the novel you brought me last week.—When you have finished reading these interesting verses, will you lend them to me?—When I have finished, I will do so with pleasure.

FIFTY-FIFTH LESSON.

Пятьдесятъ пятый Урокъ.

PERFECT SIMPLE VERBS.

Verbs expressing a thorough accomplishment of an action without the termination нуть and without any prefix attached to them, are called perfect simple verbs.

From most of these verbs are formed corresponding verbs of imperfect aspect having the present tense in аю, яю, and the infinite in ать, ять.

Perfect Aspect.

Благословѣть, to bless ;
 Бросать, to throw ;
 Дать,* to give ;
 Кончать, to finish ;
 Купить, to buy ;
 Лишить, to deprive ;
 Пастъ, to fall ;
 Плѣнить, to captivate ;
 Простить, to pardon ;
 Пустить, to let go ;
 Родить, to beget ;
 Рѣшить, to decide ;
 Свободить, to deliver ;
 Ступить, to step ;
 Хватить, to seize ;
 Явить, to show ;
 Ять,* to take ;

Imperfect Aspect.

благословлять.
 бросать.
 дать.
 кончать.
 покупать.
 лишать.
 падать.
 плѣнять.
 прощать.
 пускать.
 рождать and рожда́ть.
 рѣшать.
 освобождать.
 ступать.
 хватать.
 являть.
 имать.

Obs. 1.—All the verbs of imperfect aspect in the above list belong to the first, and those of perfect aspect to the second conjugation.

The forty-eight verbs given in the annexed table as examples include all the terminations subject to regular permutation of letters. There will be found among them a few verbs, such as the four verbs of Class VI., or the 26th and 28th examples of Class VII., which appear to deviate from the regular rules, but each of these verbs is given as example for many others forming their infinitive or the present tense in the same manner, thus forming separate groups of verbs with regular conjugation.

Besides the six above-named examples there are also some other verbs, which deviate from the rules either in the formation of the infinitive, or of the present, or imperative, so, in order to facilitate their study, a separate table is given in Lesson Fifty-nine.

Concerning the use of the tonic accent in the conjugation of regular verbs the following rules are to be observed :

1. The first person present the past tense and the imperative have the accent generally on the same syllable as the infinitive, except those verbs in овать, евать, in which the syllable ов, ев belong to the root and not to the termination.

2. The other persons of the present tense preserve the accent of the first person, except verbs in нѣтъ or отъ, or verbs of the second conjugation, in which the accent is transferred to the penultimate.

The а of the past tense suppressed in the masculine must be restored in other genders, and in the plural, as, грызъ, fem. грызѧ, neut. грызѡ, plur. грызѣ.

The following perfect simple verbs of neuter voice form their corresponding imperfect aspect with the reflective termination ся.

Perfect Aspect.	Imperfect Aspect.
Стать,* to become ;	становѣться.
Сѣсть,* to sit ;	садѣться.
Лечь,* to lie ;	ложѣться.

Some perfect simple verbs derived from foreign words and ending in ую, овать, form their corresponding imperfect aspect in овываю, овывать.

Perfect Aspect.	Imperfect Aspect.
Атакѡвать, to attack ;	атакѡвывать.

Я атакѡую,	{ I attack, pres. imperf. I will attack, fut. perfect.

The verbs даровѣть, 'to give;' вѣщать, 'to relate;' миновѣть, 'to pass;' образовѣть, 'to form;' have the meaning of the imperfect aspect in all the inflexions of the first branch, and that of the perfect in those of the second branch, as:

Obs. 5.—Perfect simple verbs, such as бросить, 'to throw;' дать, 'to give;' пасть, 'to fall;' etc., denoting a physical action performed by a single, sudden effort, have the signification of the perfect aspect of unity.

EXERCISE CXI.

Did the fisherman get his son married to his neighbour's daughter?—He was on the verge of doing so (repeat the verb), but he discovered that, according to our laws, one is not allowed to marry before the age of twenty-one.—When he attains the age of twenty-one, then his father will let him marry the girl he loves.—Is this lawsuit decided? Our judge decides all important causes, but he is now out of town, and therefore it will be necessary for me to wait the decision till the judge returns.—Did you decide on anything?—No, I have not decided on anything as yet. May it be presumed that it will happen?—I am certain it will happen.—Who owns these excellent three storied houses?—The first two houses are owned by some Insurance Company; as to the rest, I cannot tell who owns them.—Do not throw the nutshells on the floor.—I did not throw them on purpose, but dropped them by accident. Are Mr. B.'s works good?—They are good, but not equal to Molière's?—Through your not allowing your daughter to visit us yesterday, you deprived not only her, but us of a great pleasure.—If I am compelled sometimes to deprive her of this pleasure, it is only because her presence is necessary at home.—Is learning acquired without pains?—Learning is not to be attained without great pains.—Did you order supper to be served?—I will order it immediately.—Have you compared the copy with the original?—Yes, I did, and found a great difference.—Have you been to see my cousin (fem.)?—I was deprived of that pleasure on account of my sister's illness.

EXERCISE CXII.

Does your aunt bring up her only daughter properly? No, she brings her up very badly.—Why do you think so? Because I see her every day indulging her child in all sorts of whims.—Perhaps by indulging her in some trifling whims she somewhat spoils her daughter, but it does not follow that she brings her up badly, and I think if you had children of your own you would spoil them more than your aunt does her's.—Allow me to wait here a few minutes for my friend.—Certainly, take a seat.—Have you compared these two pictures?—I have, and I find that the first is much better than the other.—Can this be equalled? This cannot be equalled.—Forgive me, mamma, for breaking your favourite Japanese vase.—I forgive you this time, but I hope you will be more careful in future.—Embrace your brother and make it up with him.—Why do you advise me to do so?—I am not angry with him; we have not quarrelled.—Is it as useful to speak as to write?—It is more useful to speak than to write; but if you wish to learn a foreign language you should do both.—What does he want?—He wants to be equal to him.—Have you enough money to pay your tailor?—I have not enough, but I will borrow what I require from my cousin.—What clothes did you order your tailor to make?—I ordered him to make a dress-coat, a frock-coat, two pairs of trowsers and some other garments.—Have you dropped anything?—I have dropped nothing, but my brother has dropped his silk purse.—Does my picture equal that of your brother?—My brother's picture is beyond comparison.

NOTE.—Of the above-named prepositions—вз (воз, возо), вы, разъ (разо), низ (низо), and пере are inseparable prefixes, i.e. never found by themselves.

In verbs of perf. asp. the prefix вы takes the tonic accent, but in those of imperf. asp. the tonic accent remains on the verbal root, as :

Imperfect Aspect.	Perfect Aspect.
Выходи́ть, to go out ;	вы́йти.
Выи́грывать, to gain ;	выи́грыть.

COMPOUND VERBS.

Compound or prepositional verbs of imperfect aspect are formed—a. By prefixing a preposition to the simple verb of indefinite imperfect aspect without any change of termination, as :

IMPERFECT ASPECT.

Simple Verbs.	Compound Verbs.
Ходѣть, to go ;	ВЫХОДѣть, to go out.
Летѣть, to fly ;	ВЫЛЕТѣть, to fly out.
Вращѣть, to turn ;	ВОЗВРАЩѣть, to return.

Obs. 1 —These compound verbs are conjugated like the simple verbs from which they are formed.

b. By adding a preposition to the iterative aspect, which thus acquires the inflexions of all moods and persons of the imperfect aspect, as :

Iterative Aspect.	Compound Imp. Asp.
Чѣтывалъ, I used to read out ;	ВЫЧѣтывать, to read out.
Present. Вѣчытываю, ешь, etc.	Gerund. Вѣчытывая, ваяъ.
Past. Вѣчытывалъ, ла, ло.	Partic. Act. Вѣчытывающий, вшій.
Future. Бѣду вѣчытывать.	Partio. Pass. Вѣчытываемъ, вѣчы-
Imperat. Вѣчытывай, йте.	тыванъ.

c. By prefixing a preposition to the simple verb of imperfect aspect, and inserting the syllable ва before the termination.

Simple Imperf. Asp.	Compound Imperf. Asp.
Слабѣть, to grow weak ;	ослабѣвать.
Велѣть, to order ;	повелѣвать.

OF THE INCHOATIVE.

The inchoative perfect aspect is formed—

a. By adding the auxiliary verb стать, past сталъ, future стану, ешь, etc. to the infinitive of verbs of imperfect aspect, as :

Стать играть,	to begin to play.
Онъ сталъ играть,	he began playing.
Онъ станетъ играть,	he will begin playing.

Obs. 2.—The auxiliary, стать, сталъ, стану, is used only for animate objects which possess a will of their own.

b. By prefixing the prepositions за, во, въ, вон to verbs of imperfect aspect :

Imp. Asp.	Inchoat. Asp.
Пылать, to blaze ;	{ запылать. вспылать.
Хотѣть, to wish ;	{ захотѣть. всхотѣть.
Ненавѣдѣть, to hate ;	возненавѣдѣть.
Бѣжать, to run ;	побѣжать.

The preposition за (old Russian во, въ, вон) denotes the commencement of an action which either implies no change of place, or else a movement in different directions, as :

Запылать,	to begin to flare.
Задремать,	to begin to slumber.
Забѣгать,	to begin to run about.

Obs. 3.—The inchoative aspect formed by means of the prefix за, generally denotes an involuntary action, as :

Сѣрдце запрыгало,	the heart began to leap.
Органчикъ заигралъ,	the musical-box began to play.

Obs. 4.—За may be used also for animate objects, as :

Она заговорила,	she began to speak.
Онъ заиграетъ,	he will begin to play.

Obs. 5.—The preposition по denotes the commencement of a movement in a certain direction, and in this sense it is joined to verbs of definite imperfect aspect, such as :

Defn. Imp. Asp.	Inchoat. Asp.
Везть, to carry ;	повѣсть.
Летѣть, to fly ;	полетѣть,
Нести, to bring ;	понестѣ, etc.

EXERCISE CXIII.

Have you asked the doctor to write a prescription for me?—Yes, I wrote to him about it yesterday, and after having described to him the nature of your complaint, I was on the point of adding a few words on your part, but I changed my mind, remembering that you were totally unacquainted with him.—Have you already directed the letter?—Not yet, I will first make a fair copy of it. Have you come to the end of writing your letter?—I shall soon have come to the end.—Will you write some more letters?—No, I have finished writing for to-day.—Is the letter already signed?—The head clerk has signed it long ago.—Out of which book have you copied this letter?—I do not copy my letters out of books.—Your friend often copied letters and verses out of books and passed them off as (3a) his own.—Where do you get these illustrated papers from?—We used to get them formerly from Vienna, but henceforth we shall get them from Paris.—Those which you ordered are out of print.—Have you already written over a whole quire of paper?—No, I have about seven sheets left.—Be quiet, please; through your chatter I have made two mistakes in writing.—Have you transmitted to him the news of the town verbally or by letter?—In answering him, I communicated to him all that took place.—Did you take down my address?—Yes, it is already written down. The chief made a written order for his subordinates to arrive at the office earlier than usual.

EXERCISE CXIV.

Ask this girl to sing us something.—Yes, I will ask her. The girl began to sing, and all began to listen.—I was on the point of explaining this to him in French, when I recollected his dislike to speaking a foreign language in a public place (общество).—She began to scream so loudly, that our ears began to ring.—Our grandmother, while reading to-day, fell into a slumber and dropped her book.—Do you see, dear sister, the boys have begun to run about in the yard yonder? I will go likewise and begin to run about with them.—No, my dear, do not go away from here; I want you, and besides that it is very dirty in the yard.—Will they carry the body (покойникъ) through our street?—Yes, so they say.—When will the procession pass by?—Hardly before three o'clock.—Whose wedding carriage is that passing by?—It is that of the major of artillery and his young bride from Ems.—How is it that her uncle lived so long at Ems?—In order to take the baths there.—Is that town pretty?—Yes, it lies in a narrow and picturesque valley. The camp fires began to blaze and the poor half-frozen soldiers became cheerful.—Have you salted your soup?—I have not only salted it, but over-salted it.—Did he go through his lesson without a fault?—He did nothing but make faults.—Leave off playing the flute: I did not sleep enough; I am sleepy still.—I began playing the flute on purpose to wake you, because you told me when you went to lie down you did not wish to over-sleep yourself.

FIFTY-SEVENTH LESSON.

Пятьдесят седьмой Урокъ.

COMPOUND VERBS (continued).

FORMATION OF PERFECT AND IMPERFECT ASPECTS.

Compound verbs of imperfect aspect, derived from the indefinite form of the double simple verb, have in the perfect aspect the termination of the corresponding definite verb.

Indefinite Imperfect Aspect.	Definite Perfect Aspect.
Про-ходѣть, to pass ;	Про-шѣть.
Пере-возѣть, to carry across ;	Пере-везѣть.
У-носѣть, to take away ;	У-несть.

Compound verbs of imperfect aspect, derived from the iterative, form the perfect aspect by restoring the corresponding termination of the primitive simple verb.

Imperfect Aspect.	Perfect Aspect.
С-прашивать, to interrogate ;	С-просѣть.
За-служивать, to deserve ;	За-служѣть.
За-пирать, to shut ;	За-перѣть.
О-становивать, to stop ;	О-становѣть.

Compound verbs of imperfect aspect, having both the definite and indefinite forms, have two terminations for the perfect aspect. The same is the case with compound verbs which are susceptible of the perfect aspect of duration and that of unity.

The first of these two terminations, that of the indefinite form or of duration, is used to express an action requiring many efforts, or a certain length of time.

The second, that of the definite form, or of perfect of unity, is used to express an action requiring only a single effort, as :

SIMPLE VERB.

*Imperfect Aspect.*Катѣть, *def.*катать, indef.Iterative.

катывать.

Imperfect Aspect.

Кидать.

Perfect of Unity.

кинуть.

Iterative.

кидывать.

COMPOUND VERB.

Imperfect Aspect.

Прокатывать.

Perfect of Duration.

прокатать.

Perfect of Unity.

прокатить.

Выкидывать.

выкатать.

выкинуть.

The following simple derivative verbs in ать, ять—first person аю, яю—have two terminations for their perfect aspect, one in у, ю, to express an action performed in a single effort, and another, without any change, to express duration.

Simple Imperfect Aspect.Compound Perfect Aspectof Duration.of Unity.

Ворочать, to turn.

сворочать.

своротить.

Вѣшать, to weigh.

развѣшать.

развѣсить.

Кусать, to bite.

раскусать.

раскусить.

Ронять, to drop.

проронять.

проронить.

Хватать, to seize.

выхватать.

выхватить.

Царапать, to scratch.

оцарапать.

оцарапать.

Бросать, to throw.

выбросать.

выбросить.

Obs. 1.—The above verbs can be used also with other prefixes, according to the meaning required.

The following verbs borrow their perfect aspect from another root when it is wanted to express an action performed in a single movement.

Imperfect Aspect.Compound Perfect Aspect.of Duration.of Unity.

Бить, to beat,

побить, ударить.

Брать, to take,

побрать,

взять.

Класть, to put,

покласть,

положить.

Говорить, to speak,

поговорить,

сказать.

Ловить, to catch,

наловить, поймать.

Compound verbs of perfect aspect in нѣть form their imperfect aspect in ать, as :

Perfect Aspect.	Imperfect Aspect.
Погнѣнуть, to perish ;	погнѣвать.
Привѣкнуть, to get accustomed ;	привѣкать,
Окнѣснуть, to turn sour ;	окнѣсать.

The following form their perfect aspect irregularly.

SIMPLE VERBS.	COMPOUND VERBS.
Imperfect Aspect.	Imperfect Aspect.	Perfect Aspect.
Вѣщать, to tell.	извѣщать,	извѣстѣть.
Глотать, to swallow.	поглащать,	поглотѣть.
Кусать, to bite.	укусать,	укусѣть.
Мѣнять, to change.	перемѣнять,	перемѣнѣть.
Скакать, to gallop.	перескакивать,	перескочѣть.
Стрѣлять, to shoot.	застрѣливать,	застрѣлѣть.

Some compound verbs of imperfect aspect have no corresponding verbs of perfect aspect.

To these belong verbs with the prefix :

a. По, in a frequentative sense, as :

Посиживать, to be in the habit of sitting.
Почитывать, to be in the habit of reading.
Попѣвать, to be in the habit of singing, etc.

Obs. 2.—The verbs of perfect aspect посидѣть, почитать, попѣть, although with the same prefix по, must not be confounded with the above, inasmuch as they are formed from the simple verbs сидѣть, читать, пѣть, and the prefix по merely modifies the duration of action, which lasts in this case a certain time without interruption.

b. Подъ or при, in the sense of an action accompanying another, as :

Подсвистывать,	to whistle in accompaniment.
Припѣвать,	to sing in accompaniment.

c. Разъ, when denoting an action upon different objects, extending over a surface, as :

Разговаривать,	to converse upon.
Разъѣзжать.	to ride about.

d. Со in the sense of reciprocal action, as :

Собесѣдовать,	to converse with.
Соучаствовать,	to participate.

Obs. 3.—The following verbs are defective, i. e. are wanting altogether in the perfect aspect.

Of the First Class.

Обладать, to possess.	Подозрѣвать, to suspect.
Обожать, to adore.	Подражать, to imitate.
Обонать, to scent.	Подразумѣвать, to understand.

FIFTY-EIGHTH LESSON.

Пятьдесят восьмой Урокъ.

COMPOUND VERBS (continued).

Compound Verbs of perfect aspect formed from simple defective verbs, i.e. from verbs wanting the iterative, as also from some verbs in ИТЬ of the second conjugation, have in the imperfect aspect the abridged termination ЯТЬ or АТЬ instead of ИВАТЬ or ЫВАТЬ, as :

SIMPLE VERBS.

Imperfect Aspect.
Винить, to accuse,
Томить, to weary,
Рѣшить, to decide,

COMPOUND VERBS.

Perfect Aspect.
обвинить, утомить,
разрѣшить,

Imperfect Aspect.
обвинять.
утомлять.
разрѣшать.

Obs. 1.—The abridged termination is also used when the meaning of the primitive verb is changed in its compound, as :

SIMPLE VERBS.

COMPOUND VERBS.

Imperfect Aspect.Perfect Aspect.Imperfect Aspect.

Садѣть, to plant,

осадѣть, to besiege,

осаждаѣть.

Свѣтѣть, to light,

просвѣтѣть, to enlighten,

просвѣщаѣть.

But when the compound verbs retain the signification of their primitives, they have in the imperfect aspect the full termination of the iterative, as :

SIMPLE VERBS.

COMPOUND VERBS.

Imperfect Aspect.Perfect Aspect.Imperfect Aspect.

Садѣть, to plant,

пересадѣть, to replant,

пересаживаѣть.

Свѣтѣть, to light,

Obs. 2.—There are some compound verbs whose simple form is either wanting altogether or obsolete, as :

Imperfect Aspect.Perfect Aspect.

Побѣждаѣть, to vanquish, побѣдѣть.

Обижаѣть, to offend,

обѣдѣть,

Встрѣчаѣть, to meet,

встрѣтитѣ.

Разорѣаѣть, to ruin,

разорѣѣть.

Obs. 3.—The aspect in such verbs is recognised by the termination, which is almost always аѣть or яѣть for the imperfect aspect.

EXCEPTION.—Two verbs of this category, оправдываѣть, 'to justify,' and обнародоваѣть, 'to promulgate,' have the termination аѣть also for the perfect aspect—оправдаѣть, обнародоваѣть.

Most compound verbs formed from the old root яѣть, 'to take,' iterative, имать, take after the prefix ан н for the sake of euphony.

Imperfect Aspect.

Внимать, to attend to,
Взнимать, to take,
Вынимать, to take out,
Донимать, to get the remainder,

Нанимать, to hire,
Обнимать, to embrace,

Поднимать, to lift,
Предприннимать, to undertake,
Приннимать, to accept,
Приподнимать, to lift a little,

EXERCISE CXVII.

What sort of building do you undertake?—I undertake all sorts of building.—Is it true that the works undertaken by you last year are not yet finished?—Yes, in undertaking a difficult job I did not calculate well beforehand how much time would be required for it, and besides that, the number of workmen hired by me proved to be insufficient.—Why did you not take off your hat yesterday before your late master?—When I meet him, I always take off my hat, and if I did not do it yesterday, it was, of course, because I did not perceive him.—Why do you take the toys away from your sister?—I took only one doll away from her, and that was because she wanted to break it. Have you accepted presents from him?—Why not? he always accepted presents from me.—Does the baroness often hold receptions at her house?—She received us last week, and asked us to visit her in future without being invited.—Have you hired a large house in town for the winter?—I have no need to hire a house in town, as I have one of my own.—Do not take the things out of the trunk; as we shall not stop at this station.—I have taken them out already.—But I ordered you not to take them out.—I beg your pardon; I misunderstood you.—I cannot understand how it is you always carry out my orders contrariwise.

EXERCISE CXVIII.

mates.—In endeavouring to stop the noise of his pupils the master shouted louder than anyone, “Hold your noise, you disobedient children, or I will punish you severely.”

FIFTY-NINTH LESSON.

Пятьдесят девятый Урокъ.

IRREGULAR VERBS.

Irregular verbs proper are those which do not follow in all moods, tenses and persons the rules of formation, deviating in some inflexions from their proper conjugation or from their proper class ; as also those having some peculiar irregular inflexions or changes of radical letters not met with in other verbs.

There are in the Russian language only thirteen irregular verbs, which are :

1. Бѣжать, to run.	Резать, to roar.
Хотѣть, to wish.	Стенать, to groan.
Чтить, to honour.	Гнать, to drive.
Шибѣть (root).	Спать, to sleep.
2. Ѣхать, to ride.	Быть, to be.
Идти, to go.	Ѣсть, to eat.
Дать, to give.

Obs. 1.—The irregularity of the first eight in the above list consists chiefly in their belonging to a mixed conjugation, or to a mixed class, and that of the remainder in changes of radical letters contrary to the rules of permutation.

Observations on No. 1 Table of Irregular Verbs :—

a. Шибѣть as an active verb is generally used with the prefixes вы, за, у, as : вышибѣть, 'to knock out ;' зашибѣть, 'to bruise ;' ушибѣть, 'to hurt ;' as a neuter verb it takes the prefix о, ошибѣться, 'to make a mistake.'

b. In compound verbs formed from итѣ, the radical д is replaced by й, as : найтѣ, прийтѣ, зайтѣ, etc.

In the imperative of пойтѣ the semivowel й is usually omitted, as : поди, подите, and in выйтѣ the imperative has two terminations : выйди, выйдите and выдь, выдьте.

c. Спать, итѣ and быть, being of neuter voice, have no passive participle, but compound verbs of active voice formed from these verbs, such as проспѣть, 'to miss in sleeping ;' пйтѣ, 'to find ;' забѣть, 'to forget ;' have the passive participle with inflexions as shown in the table, i.e. проспавъ, найденъ, забѣть.

d. The participle бѣдущій as well as the verb бѣду expresses the future tense, but the gerund бѣдучи has the signification of the present tense.

e. The imperative of хочѣ is used with the prefixes за or вос, as : захотѣ, восхотѣ ; the gerund present хотѣ is used only in the negative form, as нѣхотѣ, the particle taking the accent.

The gerund хотѣ when used without the particle не becomes a conjunction, signifying although.

f. The imperative of ѣду, both in the simple imperfect and in the compound perfect aspect, is not used, but is borrowed from the compound verb of imperfect aspect with the prefix по, as : побѣжай, 'go.'

The same inflexion in the imperative must be used also for all other compound verbs, as : заѣзжай, 'come round;' выѣзжай, 'drive out;' etc.

NOTE.—In order to point out more clearly the irregularities of the preceding table—words printed in italic will mark the second conjugation ; those in roman characters the first conjugation, and those with an asterisk are used only with prefixes.

The iteratives printed in italics are formed from the indefinite form or from the imperfect aspect of the same verb.

All the inflexions omitted in this table are formed regularly.

Besides the above-named thirteen irregular verbs there are some others, which, although conjugated regularly, deviate somewhat from the rules of formation.

Their principal irregularity consists in the irregular formation of the infinitive or of the present tense.

The apparent irregularities of the infinitive, as also of the present or of the imperative, are due to the avoidance of unpleasant combinations of sounds.

Thus, for example, in the infinitive the radical consonants г, к change into ч ; д, б, н into с, as :

Indicative.	Infinitive.
Стригú, стригъ ;	стричь, instead of стригъ.
Текú, тѣкъ ;	течь, . . . текть.
Краду, кра(д)ъ ;	красть, . . . красть.
Гребú, грѣбъ ;	гребти, . . . гребти.
Клянú, клягъ ;	клясть, . . . клясть.
Ведú, вѣ(д)ъ ;	вести, . . . вести.

The radical vowels are also sometimes changed, a vowel or a consonant being inserted in the present tense for the sake of euphony. These changes, with the exception of a few, form groups of verbs conjugated in the same way, but a table of these verbs will be more useful to learners than any number of rules.

Observations on the Tables of Verbs No. 2 and 3:—

The inflexions not given in the Tables No. 2 and 3, are formed regularly.

With respect to the class of verbs in the No. 3 Table, молю́ть belongs to Class III. and клясть to Class VI.; all the rest in this table are conjugated according to the examples given in Class VII. of the Table of Regular Verbs (Lesson 55).

Verbs marked with an asterisk are used only with prefixes, and those marked with p. are of perfect aspect.

EXERCISE CXIX.

Harness the grey horses and go for the children.—After having brought them home, come to me for further orders. At what time did you leave (выѣхать изъ) town?—At a quarter-past two.—Narrate to me the details of your travelling.—With pleasure.—At the hour appointed for the journey there came to the porch a coach, harnessed with four post-horses, and after taking our seats we rode out of our street to one of the best streets of the capital.—We went along that street for about ten minutes and at length we came to a stone bridge.—After crossing the bridge we called on our aunt, in order to take leave.—She was living (use pres. tense) in one of the most magnificent houses of that part of the town, but not finding her at home we continued our journey, and after half-an-hour passed through the town barrier and went on along a smooth paved road.—On both sides of the road stood pretty country houses with little gardens; in the fields, in a luxuriant grass there were many beautiful flowers to be seen.—The view on both sides of the road, although picturesque, seemed to us rather monotonous, and as we went on we saw nothing but endless fields, spreading to the verge of the horizon.—In this way, without meeting a single tree or a single hillock, we came up to the last station, where we slept, and on the following day, early in the morning, went on foot to the village; the rest you know.—Did you hurt yourself in falling off the chair?—You are mistaken, it was not I, but my sister who fell off the chair; but she was not hurt.—Should the children run out into the yard without my permission, inform me of it immediately.—Yes, sir.

EXERCISE CXX.

Do you shave yourself?—No, the barber shaves me. Take my measure and make me a frock-coat.—Of what colour do you wish it to be?—Dark blue or black?—Is this cloth durable, and do you warrant me that it will not fade? It is very durable, although rather thin.—It seems to me that after being damped it will be rough.—I have no doubt you will be satisfied with it.—The shops in our town are magnificent, are they not?—Yes, you have many excellent shops, but one sees often at the door of some of those shops some poor man in rags, timidly looking around to see whether someone will give him a penny, which he wants to buy a piece of bread.—Are the carpets laid down on the floors?—Not yet, but we will lay them down immediately after the servant has finished washing the floors.—This gentleman at every meeting squeezes my hand in a friendly manner, although we hardly know one another.—He squeezed his hand so hard that tears came into his eyes. He pressed the spring of the lock and the casket flew open. Is the corn reaped?—No, they are now reaping it.—Sit nearer to the window.—I would rather draw nearer the fire, for I feel cold.—Where does this drover drive these sheep to?—He drives them to the slaughter-house.—Drive this cow away from the window, or she will eat all the flowers.—I have driven her away twice already; I had better go and tell the servant to drive her away to the back yard.

SIXTIETH LESSON.

Шестидесятый Урокъ.

GOVERNMENT.

Nouns and verbs govern other words either directly or by means of prepositions.

The genitive, dative, accusative and instrumental cases are governed in both ways, but the prepositional case never stands in immediate relation to the governing word of a sentence, as it is never used without a preposition.

OF THE GENITIVE.

The genitive case without a preposition may be used as an attribute or a complement.

A. As an attributive or determinative word the genitive is used :

a. With nouns to indicate possession, direct dependence or influence, and answers the question whose? for animate, or of what? for inanimate objects.

The father's house.	Домъ отца.
The peasant's son.	Сынъ крестьянина.
The commander of the fleet.	Начальникъ флота.

b. To express a quality attributed to a noun, and answering the question : what kind or quality? or which year, month, day, etc. :

A man of great intelligence.	Человѣкъ большаго ума.
He is tall.	Онъ высокаго роста.
On which day of the month?	Котораго числа?
On the first.	Перваго числа.

B. The genitive as a complement is governed by :

a. Nouns denoting quantity, measure, weight, etc., as also collective nouns.

A dozen spoons.	Дюжина ложекъ.
A handful of salt.	Горсть соли.
A crowd of people.	Толпа народа.

b. The pronouns много, 'many, much;' сколько, 'how much;' столько, 'so much;' нѣсколько, 'a few, some;' мало, 'a little;' довольно, 'enough;' болѣе, 'more;' мѣнѣе, 'less;' the numerals beginning from five, in the nominat. or accus., and the numerals двое, трое, четверо, etc., in the nominative.

How many days are there in the year?	Сколько дней въ году?
365 days.	365 дней.
How many of you were there?	Много ли было васъ?
There were ten of us.	Насъ было десятеро.
He has plenty of work and little time.	У него много работы, но мало времени.
I was there more than a month.	Я былъ тамъ болѣе мѣсяца.
Less than this.	Мѣнѣе этого.

Obs. 1.—The genitive case is also used with impersonal verbs when one of the pronouns, such as много, мало, нѣсколько, etc., is understood.

Many guests came.

Наѣхало (много) гостѣй.

There was some increase of business.

Прибавилось (нѣсколько) дѣла.

c. Those active verbs of perfect aspect in which the action relates only to a part of the object, and when много, мало, нѣсколько, etc., in the accusative case are understood :

To sow some corn.

Посѣять пшеницы.

To bring some water.

Принести воды.

To obtain some money.

Достать денегъ.

Obs. 2.—The imperfect aspect of the same verbs governs the accusative :

To sow corn.

Сѣять пшеницу.

To bring water.

Носить воду.

To obtain money.

Доставать деньги.

d. Common reflexive verbs with the prefix на, denoting abundance :

He read a great many books.

Онъ читался книгъ.

I saw a great many curious things.

Я наглядѣлся диковинъ.

e. The comparative of adjectives and adverbs, when not followed by the conjunction нѣжели, or чѣмъ, 'than :'

Moscow is more ancient than St.
Petersburg.

Москва древнѣе С. Петербурга.

Gold is dearer than silver.

Золото дороже серебра.

f. The following neuter verbs :

To wish, желать.

To ask, спрашивать.

To will, хотѣть.

To expect, ожидать.

To hunger, ѣхать.

To attain, достигать.

To thirst for, жаждать.

To be worth, стоить.

To deign, удостоивать.

To hope, чѣять.

And the adjective достѣинъ, 'worthy.'

g. Neuter and common verbs expressing fear, loss, or privation :

He fears him.	Онъ бо́ится его́.
He lost his father.	Онъ лиши́лся отца́.
He is devoid of vice.	Онъ чуждъ поро́ка.
He is deprived of the honour.	Онъ лишёнъ чести́.
They are worthy of their respect.	Онѣ́ досто́йны ихъ ува́женія.

h. All active verbs preceded by the negative adverb не, as also the impersonal verbs нѣтъ, не ста́ло, не ви́дно, не ны́ется, не случáется and others, denoting privation or absence :

Do not waste time.	Не трáй врѣ́мени.
Do not do evil.	Не дѣлай́ зла́.
There is no change to be seen.	Не ви́дно пере́мѣны́.
Nothing happened.	Ничего́ не случи́лось.
There is no news.	Нѣтъ́ новѣ́стѣй.

OBS. 3.—The adverb не governs the genitive indirectly, that is, through the verb to which it is attached.

OF THE DATIVE.

A. The dative without a preposition, used as an attribute, denotes a direct dependence or influence upon the object to which it relates :

He is my friend.	Онъ мнѣ́ другъ́.
He is master of this house.	Онъ хозя́инъ́ этому́́ до́му.
A list of things.	Спи́сокъ́ вещьáмъ́.
The head of the family.	Глава́́ семе́йству́.

B. The dative, as complement of a sentence, is used with :

a. Nouns and verbs denoting a state or quality relating to an object, as also with those indicating the object for whose gain or loss the action is performed.

I see him.	Онъ мнѣ́ ви́дѣнъ́.
He wants me.	Я́ ему́́ ну́женъ́.

We are equal to them.
 He has got into debt with him.
 He owes him.
 They injure him.
 She helps them.

Мы имъ равны.
 Онъ задолжалъ ему.
 Онъ долженъ ему.
 Они вредятъ ему.
 Она помогаетъ имъ.

b. Impersonal verbs, denoting a state or feeling attributed to an animate object :

He is merry, but I feel dull.
 We want to eat.
 I pity him.
 I cannot go.

Ему весело, а мнѣ скучно.
 Намъ хочется есть.
 Мнѣ жаль его.
 Мнѣ нельзя идти.

Obs. 4.—The copula быть in the infinitive is followed by the dative to express a state or condition, this form being used for the infinitive of passive verbs.

To be merry.
 To be loved.
 To be alone.

Быть веселу.
 Быть любиму.
 Быть одному.

c. And the following compound adverbs :

Suitably, соответственно.
 Decently, прилично.
 Similarly, подобно.
 Moderately, въ мѣру.
 Compliantly, въ угоду.
 Matching in size, подѣ статью.

Contrary, вопреки.
 In order to reproach, въ упоръ.
 In order to annoy, на зло.
 In spite of, наперекоръ.
 In derision, на смѣхъ.
 Matching in colour, подѣ цвѣтъ.

OF THE ACCUSATIVE.

The accusative without a preposition is used only as a complement to active verbs, as :

He reads a book.
 I gave the paper.
 Remember what you read.
 They know him.

Онъ читаетъ книгу.
 Я далъ бумагу.
 Помни читанное.
 Они его знаютъ.

Obs. 5.—The accusative without a preposition may be also used with neuter, reflective, reciprocal and passive verbs, but in this case it expresses the circumstances of place, or time, and has the meaning of an adverb, as :

I walked a mile.	Я прошёлъ мѣлю.
He was lazy the whole day.	Онъ лѣнился цѣлый день.
He washed himself for two whole hours.	Онъ мылся два часа.
The bridge was in a damaged state all the year round.	Мостъ былъ испорченъ круглый годъ.

OF THE INSTRUMENTAL.

The instrumental case without a preposition is used,

a. With passive verbs, to designate the subject of a proposition, and answering the question by whom?

By whom is this brought ?	Кѣмъ это принесено ?
It is brought by me.	Это принесено мною.

b. With active, neuter and other verbs, to express the means or the instrument by which the action was performed, and answering the question, by whom? or by what? (with what?)

I write with a pen.	Пишѹ письмѡ перомъ.
They are occupied with work.	Онѣ заняты работою.
He played with his gold chain.	Онъ игралъ его золотѡй цѣпочкою.

In the form of an adverb in the instrumental case are put :

a. Nouns denoting the manner in which the action is performed, and answering the question how?

The letter is written in large characters.	Письмѡ написано крупными буквами.
The raspberry grows in bushes.	Малина растётъ кустами.

EXERCISE CXXI.

What does he ask him for?—He asks him for some money.—What is he afraid of?—He is afraid lest some one should ask him for something.—What she was frightened at?—She was frightened at the storm.—Take a friend's advice, you know he is a friend to you and therefore would not advise you badly.—How many months old is this child?—It is seven months old.—Of what height is your uncle?—He is very tall.—Were there many of you at the princess's ball?—There were seven of us.—What are you waiting for?—I am waiting for orders.—When you go to your merchant, buy for me, if you please, some pens, pencils and paper.—All goods at your neighbour's are much better and cheaper than those of your merchant.—What did this frock-coat cost you?—It cost me five pounds ten shillings.—Does he not like his teacher?—Yes, he does, but he does not obey him.—Have you ordered the fire to be lighted?—Not yet, but I ordered some fire-wood to be brought, and as soon as he brings it, I will order the fire to be lighted.—Do you know why he does not visit me any more?—He is ashamed of his lies, dreads your reproaches, and is too proud to acknowledge his fault and ask your pardon.—He need not dread my reproaches, as I know that he did not tell a deliberate lie, but only repeated what was said by others.—When did you leave town, and were you riding long?—We left town in the evening, were riding the whole night and came home early in the morning.

EXERCISE CXXII.

May one believe everything that is said?—On the contrary, not only one may not, but even should not, believe. What do you wish for?—I am wishing to go for a walk. Do you feel dull here, then?—No, but I feel warm here. Does your brother learn diligently?—He is as diligent as ever, but he cannot master the mathematics, although he learns with facility foreign languages.—So he is a man of good memory and slow intellect.—You would vex him much were you to tell him that.—I want to give you this diamond ring.—I should be very glad of the present, but am afraid that, in accepting it, I shall deprive your nephew, for whom it was intended, of the pleasure.—Who has got hold of my knife?—Peter; he is making his pen with it. Well, but tell him not to cut his pencils with it.—What sort of pen are you writing with?—I am not writing with a pen, but with a pencil.—What are you surprised at? We are surprised at your being here earlier than us by a whole hour, although we rode and you walked.—I went out early in the morning and walked through the forest and without stopping once, whilst you rode by the main road and stopped many times.

EXERCISE CXXIII.

Does Mr. B. still manage that estate of yours, which abounds in game?—Yes, and he has the name of being an honest and clever manager; but he is now very ill, poor fellow (бѣдняга).—What is the matter with him?—A few days ago he was riding over the bridge at a trot, his horse stumbled against a stone, and he fell and hurt himself very much. On the following day he began to spit blood, and is now ill with fever.—Does his doctor consider his illness dangerous?—He is silent about it, and only shrugs his shoulders and shakes his head.—I pity his poor wife; she wept bitterly while communicating to me the news of this sad accident.—Now she tends him like a child, as he cannot move his arms or legs.—Is she not afraid of becoming ill also from exertion which deprives her of rest day and night?—She does not seem to pay any attention to it; one is really surprised at her strength, patience and firmness. Where is that son of his now who was last year at the university as a student?—He is now in our town as a doctor.

SIXTY-FOURTH LESSON.

Шестьдесятъ четвертый Урокъ.

Words which govern by means of prepositions may be divided into compound and simple words.

A. Compound verbs, as also their derivatives, are generally followed by the same preposition as the one prefixed to them, provided that it is susceptible of being used separately.

Thus verbs with the prefix :

Въ	require съ :	внести съ домъ, to bring into the house.
До	„ до :	дойти до дому, to go as far as the house.
За	„ за :	зайти за уголъ, to go round the corner.
Изъ	„ изъ :	избрать изъ множества, to select from a quantity.
На	„ на :	набѣжать на мель, to run on a shoal.
Надъ	„ надъ :	надзирать надъ дѣломъ, to superintend an affair.
Отъ	„ отъ :	отойти отъ стола, to withdraw from a table.
Подъ	„ подъ :	подложить подъ сукно, to lay under a cloth.
Со	„ со :	сойти съ горы, to descend a hill.

Entry into the house is prohibited.
The superintendence of this matter is entrusted to me.

Входъ въ домъ запрещёнъ.
Надзоръ надъ этимъ поручёнъ мнѣ.

The descent down the hill is very steep.

Сходъ съ горы очень крутъ.

Compound verbs with inseparable prefixes, i.e. those which modify the meaning, require after them some separable preposition whose meaning is allied to that of the verbal prefix ; such are :

Изъ	requires отъ :	избавить отъ бѣды, to deliver from trouble.
Низъ	„ съ :	низлетѣть съ высоты, to fly down from a height.
Подъ	„ къ :	подойти къ дому, to draw up to the house.
„	„ съ :	поднять съ полу, to lift from the floor.
„	„ на :	поднять на воздухъ, to lift up in the air.
Пере	„ черезъ :	перейти черезъ мостъ, to go over the bridge.
При	„ къ :	прійти къ другу, to come to a friend.
Про	„ сквозъ :	пройти сквозъ огонь, to pass through fire.
Разъ	„ на :	разломать на части, to break to pieces.
„	„ по :	размѣщать по угламъ, to place in the corners.

SIXTY-FIFTH LESSON.

Шестьдесятъ пятый Урокъ.

POSITION OF WORDS.—(Размѣщеніе Словъ).

Among modern languages the Russian is conspicuous for its clearness and simplicity. Although it possess by means of its inflexions great facilities for inversion and transposition, it has totally discarded the rhetorical contrivances of the ancients. Its periods, however long, are never involved, and the sequence of the different parts of speech is at once direct and logical. This result, however, is attended without any rigid or inelastic formality.

Its flexibility is shown by the following examples, in which the meaning is in no wise affected by transposition :

Я разговаривалъ съ нимъ о его дѣ- лахъ.	I conversed with him about his affairs.
--	--

This may be rendered also :

Разговаривалъ я съ нимъ о его дѣлахъ.
Съ нимъ я разговаривалъ о его дѣлахъ.
О дѣлахъ его я съ нимъ разговаривалъ.
Съ нимъ о дѣлахъ его разговаривалъ я.

The natural order of words in an affirmative or negative proposition is as follows :

The first place is occupied by the subject (подлежащее) and its adjuncts, if any, and the second by the predicate (сказуемое) followed by its adjuncts, if any.

Богъ сотворилъ міръ въ шесть дней, и человѣка по образу своему и подобію.	God created the world in six days, and man after his own image.
---	--

OBS. 1.—The predicate or even a subordinate word may take the first place for the sake of emphasis.

Былъ я вчера въ театрѣ.	I was in the theatre yesterday.
Во Франціи я былъ.	I have been to France .

OBS. 2.—The subject is placed after the predicate and at the end of a clause when it is desired to give to the subject a greater prominence.

Всё что мы видимъ сотворилъ Богъ. God created all we behold.

Adjectives employed as epithets precede the noun :

Прилежный ученикъ читаетъ полезныя книги. The diligent scholar reads useful books.

Adjectives employed as attributes or as surnames follow the noun :

Это (есть) дѣло доброе. This is a good act.
Его считаютъ человекомъ благомыслящимъ. He is considered to be a sensible man.

The apposition follows the substantive to which it refers :

Колоссъ Родосскій, одинъ изъ семи чудесъ свѣта, былъ вылитъ изъ бронзы. The Colossus of Rhodes, one of the seven wonders of the world, was made of bronze.

The adverb precedes the verb ; the complement follows the word to which it refers ; words of circumstance follow those which determine them :

И умнѣйшій человекъ не всегда видитъ выходъ изъ затрудненій. Even the most sagacious do not always see an escape from difficulties.

When two or more determinative words come together, first the determinative, then the demonstrative pronoun, and lastly the numeral or adjective precede the substantive.

Все эти первыя мѣста уже заняты. All these first seats are already taken.

Demonstrative, possessive, indefinite and definite pronouns precede the substantive.

Эта книга моя.	This book is mine.
Мой братъ здоровъ.	My brother is well.
Какой-то домъ горитъ.	Some house is on fire.
Весь домъ горитъ.	The whole house is on fire.

Subordinate clauses follow those on which they depend either in the way of meaning or syntactical connexion :

Скажи брату, что завтра будутъ гости, которыхъ нужно хорошо принять, если онъ не хочетъ прослыть невѣжливымъ.	Tell my brother that to-morrow there will be guests who must be well received, if he wishes not to pass for an uncivil man.
---	---

The relative pronouns который or кой, 'who, which,' in the genitive precede the substantive of the subordinate clause when the former is without a preposition :

Человѣкъ, котораго словамъ можно вѣрить.	A man whose words one may believe.
Книга, коей содержаніе любопытно.	A book whose contents are interesting.

Obs. 3.—In the same instance, however, the substantive with a preposition precedes the relative pronoun :

Человѣкъ, на слова котораго мы можемъ положиться.	A man on whose words we may rely.
Страна, въ предѣлахъ которой мы живѣмъ.	A country in whose limits we dwell.

In interrogative sentences the order varies somewhat from the English, inasmuch as the word which conveys the purport of the question takes the first place :

Съ братомъ ли вы говорили?	Have you spoken to the brother ?
Нѣтъ, съ сестрой.	No, to the sister.
Не сами ли мы виноваты въ нашихъ несчастіяхъ ?	Have we not ourselves to blame for our misfortunes ?

Obs. 4.—Interrogative sentences expressing participation commence with the conjunction и.

И онъ тамъ былъ ?	Was he there too ?
И тамъ онъ былъ ?	Was he also there ?
И то онъ знаетъ ?	Does he know even that ?

Obs. 5.—In asking a question, when one is convinced of the contrary of the fact implied, the sentence begins with the interrogative adverb рѣзвѣ :

Рѣзвѣ мѡжетъ человѣкъ провестѣ всю жизнь безъ горѣ ! Can man go through life without sorrow !

Obs. 6.—To express doubt the sentence begins with the interrogative adverb неужели, ужели.

Неужели ещё не видите, что вы Do you not yet see that you cannot не можете заставитѣ насъ вѣ- make us believe such stories.
рить такой сказкѣ

A question may be expressed by a mere stress of the voice on a particular word, without any interrogative particle :

Вы вчера разбили стакѣнъ ? Did you break the glass yesterday ?
Вы вчера разбили стакѣнъ ? Did you break the glass yesterday ?

Obs. 7.—When the interrogative clause follows an affirmative one, the particle ли is retained :

Я желаю знать, былъ ли онъ тамъ ? I want to know whether he was there !

Obs. 8.—When it is sought to draw attention to the particular thing requiring an answer, the interrogative word is placed after the circumstantial clause.

Изъ многихъ купленныхъ имъ книгъ, Which book did he give him of the которую онъ подарилъ ему ? many he bought ?
Въ жизни сколько вы успѣли вы- How many castles in the air have

EXERCISE CXXXII.

One fine morning two peasants, John and Peter, were out walking together, and, while passing through a wood, heard the cry of a cuckoo for the first time. "The cuckoo is a bird of good omen," said the superstitious John. "Her cry foretells something lucky for me; at least a purse full of money."—"And why to thee?" rejoined Peter, who was not wiser than John. "I do not know why the cuckoo should foretell luck to thee alone. I am somewhat older and a better man than thou art, and I am sure her cry will bring me luck." Instead of enjoying the beauties of the morning they began to argue, and then to use bad words. After some quarrelling they came to blows, and at length the two friends separated, both very much bruised and wroth with each other. On the following day they met at the doctor's, and whilst he dressed their wounds, they recounted to him how the quarrel arose (произо́йти), and asked him for whose benefit the cuckoo really had cried. The doctor laughed and said: "She cried for the benefit of neither of you, you simpletons, but for mine, because you have come to me to be treated, and will have to pay me for my treatment and medicine."

SIXTY-SIXTH LESSON.

Шестьдесятъ шестой Урокъ.

POSITION OF WORDS (Continued).

In an imperative clause the first place is occupied by the verb, followed by the complement and its adjuncts.

Читайте книгу, которую вы сегодня купили. Read the book which you bought.

Obs. 1.—The personal pronoun precedes the verb in the imperative only for the sake of pointing out contrast or opposition.

Вы оставайтесь здесь, а я пойду домой. You remain here, and I will go home.

Obs. 2.—The personal pronoun or the subject follows the verb when the imperative is employed instead of the potential or subjunctive mood.

Сдѣлай это я, всѣ на меня нападутъ. Were I to do this, everybody would attack me.

When the imperative is formed by means of the conjunctions пусть or пускай, 'let,' the subject may be placed between пусть and the verb.

Пусть люди говорятъ.	Let them speak.
Пускай онъ проситъ.	Let him ask.

Obs. 3.—But the conjunction да is never separated from the verb in the imperative.

Да будетъ свѣтъ. Let there be light !

The auxiliary быть and стать, usually placed before adjectives, participles or the infinitive, come after them when to the compound verb an adverb, conjunction or other adjunct is added.

Я бѣду готовъ

Я стану работать.

Скоро готовъ бѣду.

Скоро работать стану.

I shall be ready.

I shall begin to work.

I shall be ready soon.

I shall soon begin to work.

The conjunction бы, by means of which the potential mood is formed, is placed immediately after the word to which it refers, but the conjunctions же, ли, таки, то are generally inserted between бы and the word preceding it.

Онъ же бы сдѣлать это

Онъ то бы сдѣлать.

Ему такъ бы послушаться.

He, however, would do it.

He would do it himself.

He ought to have obeyed nevertheless.

Сдѣлать ли бы онъ?

Полезно ли бы было?

Would he do?

Would it be useful?

The following extract will serve to illustrate the foregoing rules.

Въ литературѣ каждаго народа есть свои великіе люди.

Каждый народъ съ гордостью указываетъ на немногихъ избранниковъ въ общемъ кругу своихъ литературныхъ дѣятелей, и называетъ ихъ великими потому, что они стоятъ выше всего окружающаго ихъ, потому, что ихъ дѣятельность не укладывается въ тѣ узкія рамки, которыя служатъ естественною границею для дѣятельности ихъ современниковъ и собратьевъ.

There are great men in the literature of every nation.

Each with pride points to a chosen few in the whole circle of literary workers, and calls them great because they stand higher than all that surround them, for the reason that their activity is not cramped within those narrow frames which serve as a natural limit for the exertions of their contemporaries and colleagues.

Такие люди обыкновенно увлекаютъ за собою толпу, и окружающій ихъ раи поклонниковъ, уже при жизни, создаётъ имъ то исключительное положеніе, вслѣдствіе котораго великій писатель не приурочивается къ современной ему эпохѣ, а—такъ сказать—эпоха приурочивается къ великому писателю. Его имя даётся наступающему за нимъ періоду и тому новому поколѣнію литераторовъ, которое развилось и выросло подъ непосредственнымъ вліяніемъ его произведеній и представляетъ собою его школу.

Such men usually draw the masses after them, and the swarm of admirers surrounding them already in their lifetime creates for them that exceptional position, in consequence of which a great writer does not conform himself to his epoch, but the epoch—as to say—conforms itself to the great writer. His name is given to the period coming after him and to the new generation of authors which has developed itself and grown under the immediate influence of his works and represents his school.

EXERCISE CXXXIII.

Gallienus, the Roman Emperor, had a beautiful wife, named Salonica, whom he tenderly loved. It came to pass that a diamond merchant sold her some false precious stones. Salonica discovered (замѣтить) the fraud, flew to her husband and demanded that he should punish the offender. "Certainly," replied Gallienus, "nothing is easier. A lion has been lately sent to me from Africa; I shall have him exhibited to-morrow in the arena; he will be very hungry, and—" "He will be very hungry!" interrupted Salonica with a shudder. "Enough! not a word more," rejoined the Emperor abruptly, and calling a prætorian guard he gave him an order in a low voice. On the following day there was a great concourse of sightseers in the amphitheatre at the appointed hour. The terrible roar of the lion was heard from the dens below. Among the crowd, thrilled with expectation of a favourite spectacle, it was said that the diamond merchant who had cheated Salonica was about to be thrown to the lion. The sound of a trumpet and the voice of the crier soon stopped the general talk (рѣчь). The door of one of the dens was suddenly thrown open (отворить), and out of it was brought the trembling criminal pale as death and extending his arms in token of supplication towards Gallienus. The roaring of the lion grew louder and louder; the unhappy diamond merchant fell upon his knees, bowed (склонить) his head on his breast and covered his face with his hands. The fatal moment arrived. The door of another den flew open (партво-руть), and lo ! from it bounded forth a—lamb. The laughter of the spectators somewhat revived the despairing wretch ; he opened his eyes, sighed (вздохнуть) and took heart again. Then the crier proclaimed to the crowd that according to the orders of Gallienus the deceiver had been punished in his turn with deception. Salonica giving her hand to her husband thanked him for the lesson.

APPENDIX.

I. ETYMOLOGY.—Словопроизведѣніе.

INTRODUCTION.

1. ALL the words of the Russian language are divided into eight parts of speech, (ча́сти рѣчи), viz :

- (1) The Substantive, и́мя существи́тельное.
- (2) The Adjective, и́мя прилагáтельное.
- (3) The Pronoun, мѣстоимѣ́ніе.
- (4) The Verb, глаго́ль.
- (5) The Adverb, нарѣ́чіе.
- (6) The Preposition, предло́гъ.
- (7) The Conjunction, сою́зъ.
- (8) The Interjection, междомѣ́тіе.

2. The first four parts of speech being subject to changes in their terminations are called variable (измѣня́емая), the four last are invariable (неизмѣня́емая), except the adverb, which has degrees of comparison.

3. Words are either primitive (первообра́зные), or derivative (произво́дные).

Кто это? who is it? — Ученикъ, the pupil.

(2) The Vocative (звательный), indicating the name of the object addressed :

Ученикъ! будь прилеженъ. Scholar! be diligent.

The vocative is the same as the nominative in all substantives, except a few used in addressing the Deity, as : Югъ, Господь, 'God, Lord;' vocat. Бѣже, Гбсподи.

(3) The Genitive (родительный), indicating possession, and answering to the question whose? or of what?

27. Numerals ending in ь : пять, 'five;' шесть, 'six;' up to тридцать, 'thirty,' are declined like nouns of the 15th termination (see Lesson 13, Obs. 10).

For the declension of сорокъ, 'forty;' девяносто, 'ninety;' сто, 'hundred;' двѣсти, 'two hundred,' and other compound numerals, see Lesson 44.

DEGREES OF COMPARISON.—Стѣпени Сравненія.

30. There are three degrees of comparison :

(1) Positive (положительная стѣпень), as :

Добрыѣ, добръ, 'kind.'

(2) Comparative (сравнительная стѣпень), as :

Добрыѣшій, or добръѣ, 'kinder.'

(3) Superlative (превосходная стѣпень), as :

Самыѣ добрыѣ, or всѣхъ добръѣ, 'kindest.'

For the formation of degrees of comparison, see Lessons 35 and 36.

Besides the degrees of comparison, adjectives have also augmentative and diminutive terminations (Lesson 37).

DERIVATION.

31. Adjectives derived from substantives are the possessive and relative already enumerated.

32. Those derived from verbs are formed by changing the termination of the infinitive into НЫЙ (НОЙ), ЛЫЙ, ИВЫЙ, КІЙ, ЖІЙ, ЧІЙ :

Учѣныѣ, learned ;	from учѣть, to teach.
Выкупной, ransomed ;	„ выкупить, to ransom.
Рослыѣ, stalwart ;	„ расти, to grow.
Игривыѣ, playful ;	„ играть, to play.
Ломкыѣ, fragile ;	„ ломить, to break.
Похожыѣ, similar ;	„ походить, to resemble.

Остроумный, witty ;	from	острый, sharp, умный, intelligent.
Тёмносерый, dark-gray ;	„	тёмный, dark, серый, grey.
Гостеприимный, hospitable ;	„	гость, guest, приёмный, receiving.

Международный, international ;	„	между, between, народный, national.
Безподобный, incomparable ;	„	безъ, without, подобный, like.

THE PRONOUN.—Мѣстоимѣніе.

34. Pronouns are divided into :

- (1) Personal (личныя).
- (2) Interrogative (вопросительныя).
- (3) Demonstrative (указательныя).
- (4) Relative (относительныя).
- (5) Determinative (опредѣлительныя).

35. The personal pronouns are : я, 'I ;' ты, 'thou ;' онъ, 'he' (fem. она́ ; neut. оно́) ; plur. мы, 'we ;' вы, 'you ;' они́ (fem. онѣ́), 'they.'

Besides the above three personal pronouns, there is the reflective personal себя, 'self,' which serves for all persons, genders and numbers.

36. Interrogative pronouns have their corresponding demonstratives in the following way :

OF THE OBJECT.

Interrogative.

Кто ? who ? Что ? what ?

Demonstrative.

Тотъ, to, 'that ;' нѣкто, 'somebody ;' нѣчто, 'something ;' никто́, 'nobody ;' ничто́, 'nothing ;' всякъ, 'every ;' кажды́й, 'each ;' всё, 'all ;' прочі́й, 'other.'

OF QUALITY.

Како́й, како́въ ? What sort of ?

Тако́й, тако́въ, 'such, such a one ;' друго́й, 'other ;' всякі́й, 'every (sort) ' нѣкоторый, нѣкій, 'certain ;' никакóй, 'not any ;' оди́нъ, 'same ;' разный, 'diverse ;' нѣаковъ, 'different.'

OF QUANTITY.

Ка́кій ? which ? Ско́лько ? how much ?

То́лкій, 'such a one.'

Сто́лько, 'so many, so much ;' мно́го, 'much ;' ма́ло, 'few ;' нѣско́лько, 'some ;' не́ско́лько, 'not any.'

OF PLACE OR ORDER.

Ка́кой ? which ?

Се́й, э́тотъ, о́ный, 'this ;' ка́кой нибúдь, 'any one ;' ни́какой, 'not any.'

OF POSSESSION.

Чей ? whose ?

Мо́й, 'my, mine ;' тво́й, 'thy, thine ;' егó, 'his ;' нашъ, 'our ;' вашъ, 'your ;' ихъ, 'their ;' and the reflective сво́й used for all three persons.

These last are termed possessive pronouns (притяжательныя мѣстоимѣнiя).

Indefinite pronouns answering the question чей ? 'whose ?' are :

Чей-то, 'somebody's ;' чей нибúдь, 'anybody's ;' and the negative ничей, 'nobody's.'

37. The interrogative pronouns кто, что, ка́кой, чей also serve as relatives when they refer to an antecedent. To the relative pronouns belong also кой, каковóй, 'who,' or 'he who,' which have not the signification of the interrogative.

38. The determinative pronouns are :

a. Those expressive of size and quantity: весь, 'all ;' оба, 'both.'

To these are added the numerals одинъ, дво́е, трóе, etc., when used as pronouns.

b. Those expressive of identity: самъ, самы́й, 'self.'

Determinative pronouns are employed with personal and demonstrative pronouns, as also with substantives, as :

Мы всѣ, 'all of us ;' мы оба, 'both of us ;' вы трое, 'three of you ;' я одинъ, 'I am by myself ;' весь народъ, 'all people ;' оба стороны, 'both sides ;' онъ самъ, 'he himself ;' самы́й домъ, 'the house itself.'

The pronoun самы́й before qualifying adjectives serves to strengthen their signification and to express the superlative degree, as : самы́й добрый, 'the kindest.'

39. Pronouns vary their terminations, like adjectives, according to gender, number and case.

DECLENSION OF PRONOUNS.

40. The first two personal pronouns and the reflective personal have no genders, and are declined like substantives in the feminine, as :

43. The genitive of the third pers. pron. singular and plural is also used as possessive, without however taking the prefix н, as: для его́ брата́, 'for his brother;' о его́ брата́, 'about his brother.'

44. The pronouns ко́торый, всѣ́кій, дру́гой, и́ной, ка́ждый, како́вый, коли́кій, о́ный, са́мый, тако́вый, толи́кій are declined like the adjective но́вый.

45. The pronouns тако́въ, и́наковъ, оди́наковъ follow the declension of the adjective ца́рѣвъ, except in the genitive, which takes the full termination, as, тако́ваго instead of тако́ва.

46. The pronouns ско́лько, сто́лько, нѣско́лько, мно́го and ма́ло have no declension, except in the dat. when preceded by the prefix по, as, по ско́лку, по сто́лку, etc.

THE VERB.—Глаголъ.

47. Verbs are divided into six voices (залогъ), viz.:

(1) The active (дѣйствительный), denoting the action of an agent upon an object, as, кидать, 'to throw.'

(2) The passive (страдательный), formed from the active, and denoting the condition or state of the object on which the action is exerted, as, быть кидáему, 'to be thrown.'

(3) The reflective or pronominal (возвратный), formed from the active by adding the contracted pronoun ся, and denoting an action falling upon the agent, as, одѣв́аться, 'to clothe one's self.' The reflective is often used in the sense of the passive, especially when speaking of inanimate objects, as, кни́га чита́ется, 'the book is read.'

(4) The common (общій) ending also in ся, without which the verb by itself cannot be used, and denoting an internal feeling influencing the agent, as, бо́яться, 'to fear;' смѣ́яться, 'to laugh.'

(5) The reciprocal (взаимный), ending also in ся, and denoting an action falling mutually upon two or more agents, and answering the question with whom, as, сража́ться, 'to fight.'

(6) The neuter (средній), which has a threefold signification, and therefore a threefold form, viz.,

a. Denoting an action not passing over to an object, as, сидѣ́ть, 'to sit;' сто́ять, 'to stand.' In this sense it has the form of the active.

Of this class are verbs denoting the gradual acquirement of a quality, as, бѣ́лѣть, 'to grow white;' со́хнутъ, 'to dry.'

b. Denoting a state or quality independent of an action, as, быть вѣсело, 'to be merry.' In this it has the form of the passive.

c. Denoting a capability of action or possession of a quality, as, крапива жжётся, 'the nettle stings.' In this sense it has the form of the reflective.

48. Verbs undergo certain changes of structure and inflexions, to indicate :

1. The aspects.
2. The moods.
3. The tenses.
4. Gender, person and number.

49. There are three principal aspects:

(1) The imperfect aspect (несовершенный видъ).

Verbs of this aspect are subdivided into definite (опредѣлённые) and indefinite (неопредѣлённые). Lesson 52.

(2) The perfect aspect (совершенный видъ) is subdivided into :

- a.* Perfect inchoative (начина́тельный).
- b.* Perfect of duration (длительный).
- c.* Perfect of unity (однокра́тный).

(3) The iterative (многокра́тный).

For explanation of aspects, see Lesson 51.

For formation of aspects, see Lesson, 53, 54, and 55.

50. The moods (наклонѣнія) are three, viz :

1. The infinitive (неопредѣлённое).
2. The indicative (изъявительное).
3. The imperative (повелительное).

The subjective (сочлагательное) is formed in Russian by adding the particle бы to the past tense.

The first two moods are found in all the three aspects, but the imperative is found in the imperfect and perfect aspects only.

51. There are three tenses (временá), viz :

1. The present (настоящее).
2. The past (прошедшее).
3. The future (будущее).

52. The tenses are only found in the indicative, and vary in number according to the voice and aspect.

(1) The active, reflective, common, reciprocal and neuter voices take all the three tenses in the imperfect aspect.

(2) The perfect aspect takes only the past and future.

(3) The iterative takes only the past.

(4) The passive voice having a double conjugation, takes double tenses, as shown in subsequent examples.

53. The persons (лица) of the present and future tenses are distinguished by inflexions, and therefore may be used without their pronouns ; but those of the past, which take only the terminations of gender, require the personal pronouns.

54. Verbs are either simple (простые) or compound (сложные).

(1) The simple are those consisting of one word only, as :

дѣлать, 'to do ;' любить, 'to love.'

(2) Compound verbs are formed by adding an auxiliary verb to the infinitive or to the participle passive, as :

Я сталъ страдать, 'I begun to suffer ;' онъ былъ убитъ, 'he was killed.'

To these terminations the suffix ся is added for the reflective, reciprocal and common voices.

The auxiliaries, which are all of the neuter voice, are : быть, быва́ть, 'to be,' and стать, 'to become.'

55. Participles in Russian, both active and passive, are adjectives formed from verbs, and have gender, number, and the present and past tenses.

(1) Active participles end :

a. in the present, щи́й, щая, щее, plur. щие, щя.

b. in the past, ши́й, шая, шее, plur. шие, шя.

These participles take the suffix ся in reflective verbs, as, одѣ́вающі́йся, 'dressing himself.'

(2) Passive participles end :

a. in the present, { Full, мый, мая, мое, plur. мые, мя.
Апосор., мъ, ма, мо, plur. мы.

b. in the past, { Full, { вмый, вмая, вмое, plur. вмые, вмя.
 { тый, тая, тое, plur. тые, тья.
Апосор., { нъ, на, но, plur. ны.
 { тъ, та, то, plur. ты.

These participles do not take the suffix ся.

56. Апосопated passive participles, with the auxiliaries быть, быва́ть, form the moods and tenses of the passive voice.

57. Besides the participles, there are also gerunds (дѣе-прича́стie) or verbal adverbs (нарѣ́чiя отлаго́льныя) formed from verbs. They are both active and passive.

(1) The active gerund has neither number nor gender, but has inflexions for the present and past tenses, as :

Present, я, ая, учи : любя́, 'in loving ;' чита́я, 'while reading.'

Past, въ, шя : любѣ́въ, 'after having loved ;' чита́вши, 'after having read.'

(2) The passive gerund is formed by adding б́удучи, бывъ (бывши), the present and past gerunds of the auxiliary быть, to the apocopated participle, and has both gender and number, as : б́удучи or бывъ послaнъ, fem. послaна, neut. послауо ; pl. послапы, 'being or having been sent.'

58. Verbs are either personal or impersonal.

(1) Personal are those which have all the persons and genders.

(2) Impersonal are those used in the third person only without a pronoun or agent expressed, and take in the past tense the neuter gender only. Lesson 49.

59. According to their conjugation, verbs are either regular (п́равильные) or irregular (неп́равильные).

(1) All regular verbs are divided into two conjugations, according to the inflexions of the indicative present.

a. Of the first are those whose second person sing. ends in ешь, and the third person plur. in ють or уть, as : читаешь, 'thou readest ;' читають, 'they read.'

b. Of the second are those whose second person sing. ends in ишь, and the third person plur. in ятъ or агъ, as : говоришь, 'thou speakest ;' говорятъ, 'they speak.'

(2) Regular verbs are also divided into ten classes in respect of the termination of the infinitive and first person of the indicative present, of which the first eight belong to the first, and the last two to the second conjugation. Lessons 32 to 35.

Compulsion: ну! plur. ну-те! 'come! ну-же! 'now then!'

81. Besides the above, expressive of emotion, there are also others imitating different sounds, as, бухъ! шмякъ! бацъ! хлопъ! etc. From these may be formed verbs, as, бѣхнутъ, шмякнутъ, бацнутъ, хлопнутъ, etc.

II. SYNTAX.—(Словосочинѣніе.)

I. CONCORD.—(Согласованіе.)

82. The predicate, if an adjective or a finite verb, agrees with the subject in person, gender, number and case.

Она читала,

She was reading.

Она добра,

She is kind.

83. When, however, the predicate is a noun, it may differ from the subject in gender and number, agreeing in case only. The copula when expressed agrees in number with the subject.

Римляне были народъ воинственный, The Romans were a warlike people.

84. Determinative words, either adjectives or pronouns, agree in gender, number and case with the word they qualify.

Моя́ хорошая́ книга́. My good book.

85. But when the determinative word is a substantive, it agrees in case and may differ in number and gender.

Горо́дъ Москвѣ́ обши́ренъ. The city of Moscow is large.

86. When the subject is followed by an attribute, the predicate, whether an adjective or a verb, agrees with the former and not with the latter in gender and number.

Рѣ́ка Дуна́й судохо́дна. The river Danube is navigable.
Рѣ́ка Дуна́й замѣ́рзла. The river Danube is frozen over.

87. The numerals два, три, четы́ре, полтора́, полтретьи́, etc., and the pronoun оба́, agree with their noun in number and case, except in the nom. and acc., when the noun takes the termination of the genit. sing.

Два стола́, two tables ; gen. двухъ столо́въ, etc.
Оба прі́теля, both friends ; gen. обо́ихъ пріятеле́й, etc.

88. Other numerals, from five up to eighty, as also дво́е, тро́е, четы́ре, etc., agree in all cases except the nom. and acc., which require the noun in the genit. plur.

Пять столо́въ, five tables ; dat. пяти́ столамъ, etc.
Восемьдеся́тъ городо́въ, eighty towns ; dat. восьми́десяти городамъ, etc.

89. In compound sentences having two or more subjects and predicates, the rules of concord depend chiefly on the conjunctions uniting the subjects, as also on whether or not the latter are of the same gender and number (Lesson 32, Obs. 3 to 7.)

90. With regard to compound numerals, the noun agrees with the last.

Двадцать одинъ столъ,

Twenty-one tables.

Пятьдесятъ два стола,

Fifty-two tables.

91. The relative pronoun который, кой, кто, что, agreeing in gender and number with the noun or pronoun in the principal clause, take the case governed by the verb or noun in the subordinate clause.

Человѣкъ, котораго я люблю,

The man whom I love.

92. The gerund of the subordinate and the verb of the principal clause must express an action of the same agent.

Онѣ сѣдя работаютъ,

They work sitting.

93. When an action indicated in the subordinate takes place at the same time as that of the principal clause, the gerund present is employed not only with verbs in the present, as,

Сѣдя пишу,

I write sitting.

but also with verbs in the past and future tenses, as :

Сѣдя писалъ,

I wrote sitting.

Сѣдя буду писать,

I will write sitting.

94. When one action precedes another, then the preceding one is expressed by a gerund in the past tense, which likewise may agree not only with a verb in the past, as,

Одѣвшись, онъ вышелъ,

After dressing, he went out ;

but also with verbs in the present and future tenses, as :

Одѣвшись, я выхожу,

After dressing I go out.

Одѣвшись, я выйду,

After dressing I will go out.

2. GOVERNMENT.—(Управлѣніе.)

95. This part of Syntax will be found fully treated of in the Practical Part. For direct government, see Lesson 60 ; and for government through prepositions, see Lessons 61, 62 and 63.

III. ORTHOGRAPHY.—(Правописа́нiе.)

1. USE OF LETTERS.

96. The proper and accidental sounds of each letter were explained in the beginning of this work, and it will be remembered that some letters have more than one sound, and, on the other hand, that there are some different ones which represent the same sound. Hence it follows that it is impossible to write Russian correctly by the ear alone. In cases of doubt, the proper letter may be ascertained either by finding the radical form of the word, or by going through its inflexions ; but since this process entails some trouble, and even then is not always successful, certain rules are here given, in alphabetical order, for the convenience of reference.

А occurs in the genit. sing. of adject. and pronouns ending in the nom. in ый, ой, ас, дѳбраго, святаго, котораго.

А is not written after hard vowels, except some foreign words, thus—Гѳнуя, and not Гѳнуа.

Б (as also в, м, п, ф) when followed by ю take л, as, любл-ю, лобл-л-ю, купл-л-ю, графл-л-ю.

Г.—After г, in inflexions, я, е, ы are changed into а, о, и, thus—стрѳгаго, лѳгонькiй, сапогi, and not стрѳгаго, лѳгенькiй, сапогы.

Д.—The sound of д when given to the prefix от must never be written, as, отды́мать, отзы́въ.

Е.—In the inflexions of true Russian words, е is changed into о before г, к, х, as, лёгонькій, мя́конькій, сѹхонькій.

Е is found in the аросорated termination of adjectives ending in йный, льный, as, спокóйный, во́льный; аросор. спокó-ень, во́л-ень.

Е final accented after ж, ч, ш, щ is changed into о, as, лицó, свѣ́жó, instead of лицé, свѣ́жé.

Ж.—After this letter, ы and о are changed into и and е, as, лóжи, лóжею, instead of лóжы, лóжою.

З is preserved in the prefixes воз, низ, раз, из only before с, ц, щ, as, из-сушѣть, раз-царáпать, раз-щипáть; but before all other consonants it is changed into с, as, ис-чѣзнуть, рас-хáживать, рас-пи́лѣть. In the prefixes безъ and чрезъ, з is never changed into с, as, безсмѣртный, чрезмѣрный.

З is written before мъ final of foreign words, as, матерья́лизмъ барбарѣзмъ.

И is written :

a. Before consonants and at the end of words : идѹ, идѣ.

b. Before vowels only in the inflexions of the numer. пять, шесть, etc., in compound words, as, пяти-уго́льный, се́мнаршѣрный, etc.

c. In the inflexion of the second person pres. indicat. of verbs of second conjugation, as, смотрѣ́ть, говорѣ́ть, second pers. смóтрянъ, говорѣ́нъ.

И is written before vowels : И́къ, лѣ́нїя.

I must not be confounded with ы or о in the termination of the adjectives, numerals and pronouns : їѣ is written in the nom. sing. of adjective having the gen. in яго, and ѣѣ or оѣ of those having the gen. in аго.

К never precedes я, ю, ъ, except in foreign words, as, бѣ́мень, кяхта.

Н is doubled :

a. In words ending in никъ, ный, нїѣ, if these latter are formed from words ending in н, as, плѣ́н-никъ, плѣ́н-ный, осѣ́н-нїѣ, derived from плѣ́нъ, ѳсе́нь.

b. In passive particip. and qualif. adjectives ending in ан-ный, ян-ный, ен-ный, as, желáнный, деревáнный, убѣ́йственнѣѣ.

И is prefixed to personal pronouns after prepositions, to distinguish them from the possessive, as : у негѳ́, 'he has ;' у егѳ́ брáта, 'at his brother's.'

О is written in the nom. of masculine adjectives and pronouns having an accented termination, as, золотѳ́, какѳ́ѣ.

Ого is written in the gen. sing. of the pron. какѳ́ѣ, такѳ́ѣ.

С is doubled in nouns ending in ство, скїѣ, if formed from words ending in с : искус-ство, Рѣ́с-скїѣ.

Т is doubled when отъ is prefixed to a word beginning with т : оттогѳ́, оттáять.

Ц.—After ц, ы is written instead of н, as, цыплѣнокъ, цырѣ́льникъ. Except foreign words, as, цѣ́тага, медици́на.

Ц must not be written instead of тс or дс if т or д belong to the root and с to the termination, thus—ара-вѣтскій, персѣдскій, and not аравѣцкій, персѣцкій.

Ч is not followed by я, ю, ы, thus—чаять, чѣткій, чѣнѣ, and not чѣять, чѣткій, чѣнѣ.

Ш is not followed by я, ю, ы, which are changed into а, у, и, thus—нѣзшая, нѣзшую, нѣзшие, and not нѣзшяя, нѣзшюю, нѣзшые.

Щ is not followed by о, ы, я, ю, but by е, и, а, у, thus—гѣщею, гѣщи, гѣща, гѣщу, and not гѣщою, гѣщы, гѣщя, гѣщю.

This letter must not be written instead of жч, or сч if ж, ч, с belong to the root or to the prefix, thus—муж-чѣна, с-чѣтать, счѣстие, and not мужцѣна, щѣтать, щѣстие.

Ы.—This sound is sometimes confounded with ѣ, and some grammarians do not change ѣ into ы when ѣ belongs to the prefix and и to the root, as, отѣгрывать, предѣдѣщій; others in the same instance use ы, as, отѣгрывать, предѣщій. Ы, however, is beginning to be generally adopted.

Ъ, Ь.—These two semivowels when final do not always give a distinct hard or soft sound to the preceding consonant, but are mute after ж, ч, ш, щ.

For the placing of ъ or ь after ж, ч, ш, щ, the following rules are to be observed:

Ъ is used:

a. In the nom. sing. of mascul. nouns and adjectives, ас, мужъ, мечъ, камышъ, плащъ, горячъ, похóжъ, as also in the nom. of the pron. нашъ and вашъ.

b. In the gen. plur. of nouns ending in e and a, as, учѣлишъ, тучъ, ложъ, ношъ, and in that of the numerals ты́сячъ.

c. In the conjunction жъ contracted from же, as, тожъ, тогдажъ, from то́же, тогда́же.

d. In the prepositions межъ, промѣжъ.

Б is written :

a. In the nom. of femin. nouns, as, ночь, мышъ, вещь.

b. In the second pers. sing. pres. indicat., as, дѣлаешь, говоришь.

c. In the second pers. of the imperative, as, плачь, ѣшь, рѣжь.

d. In the infinitive of verbs ending in чь, as, жечь, толо́чь.

e. In the terminations of the adverbs : лишь, прочъ, точъ въ точъ, and some others.

Ѣ, pronounced like e, is used in the following roots and terminations :

- (2) In the prepositional case of nouns of the first declension, except those ending in іѣ́, ie, as, на столѣ́, въ полѣ́.
- (3) In the dative and prepositional sing. of nouns of the second declension, except those ending in іѧ́, ѧ́ ; also in the dative and prepositional of the pronouns я́, ты́, себѧ́́, as, водѣ́, мнѣ́, тебѣ́, себѣ́.

- (4) In the instrumental sing. of the pronouns кто, что, тотъ, весь, ас, къмъ, чѣмъ, тѣмъ, всѣмъ.
- (5) In the nominat. plur. feminine of the numerals одинъ, два, and the pronouns она́, оба́, тотъ, вся, ас, однѣ́, двѣ́, онѣ́, обѣ́, тѣ́, всѣ́.
- (6) In all cases plur. of the numeral feminine однѣ́, and the pronouns обѣ́, тѣ́, всѣ́.
- (7) In verbs of first conjugation of first class ending in ѣю, ѣтъ, the vowel ѣ is preserved in all aspects, tenses, moods and derivative words, as, владѣю, владѣтъ, perf. asp. овладѣтъ, nouns владѣніе, владѣтель, etc.

The verbs пѣтъ, сѣтъ, and all verbs of the ninth class having ѣ before тъ in the infinitive, take it both in the past tense and in the derivative words, as, пѣтъ, пѣтый, пѣніе, etc.

Exceptions.—The participle passive past of verbs of ninth class ending in дѣтъ, тѣтъ, in which д, т is changed into ж, ч, take е instead of ѣ, as, вертѣтъ, верченъ, сидѣтъ, сіженъ.

- (8) Ѣ occurs in the termination of the following adverbs: вездѣ́, внѣ́, во́змѣ́, здѣ́сь, доко́лѣ́, досе́лѣ́, дого́лѣ́, индѣ́, кро́мѣ́, ны́нѣ́, отко́лѣ́, отсе́лѣ́, по́длѣ́, по́слѣ́, ра́звѣ́.
- (9) Ѣ is also written in words having a doubtful sound similar to н, as in some proper names—Алексе́й, Серге́й, and in the nouns грамотѣ́й and Апрѣ́ль.

Э, У.—See Practical Part, pp. 14 and 16.

Ю if preceded by ч, ш is changed into у.

Я.—Occurs in the termination of foreign words ending in ia, io, as, Азія, матерія, Италія ; but in their derivatives, я is changed into а, as, азіатець, матеріальный.

Those derivatives in which i can be contracted into ь, are written with я, as, итальянскій.

Θ is found in Greek words written with θ (not φ), in English, French, etc. with th, as, Аѳѳины, Θѳдоръ ; but foreign words introduced not earlier than the beginning of the last century, as also those met with in common use are written with т, as, театръ, ‘theatre,’ теорія, ‘theory,’ etc.

II. CAPITAL LETTERS.

97. Capital letters are used in Russian as in English, with a few slight exceptions :

- a.* Adjectives are written with capitals only when used as proper names, as : Австрійская Имперія, ‘Austrian Empire ;’ Французская Республика, ‘French Republic ;’ Чѳрное Море, ‘Black Sea.’ Otherwise a small letter is used, as : австрійскій солдатъ, ‘Austrian soldier ;’ французскій табакъ, ‘French tobacco.’
- b.* The pronoun вы, ‘you,’ in all its inflexions takes a capital letter in correspondence.

III. PUNCTUATION.—(Знаки Препинанія.)

98. The points used in Russian are the following :

- (1) The comma [,] (запятая).
- (2) The semicolon [;] (точка съ запятою).

- (3) The colon [:] (двоеточіе).
- (4) The full stop [.] (точка).
- (5) The interrogation point [?] (знакъ вопросительный).
- (6) The exclamation point [!] (знакъ восклицательный).
- (7) The hyphen [-] (черта́ or знакъ отдѣлительный).
- (8) The point of suspension [.] (знакъ пресѣкательный).
- (9) The parenthesis [()] (знакъ вмѣстительный or ско́бки).
- (10) The quotation marks [„ ”] (кавы́чки or знакъ вно́сный).

99. They only differ from the English in their use in the following particulars :

- (1) Subordinate clauses, however short or whatever word they begin with, must be separated from the main clause by a comma.

Человѣкъ, котораго вы видите, мой братъ.	The man whom you see is my brother.
Онъ поступилъ, какъ слѣдовало.	He acted as he ought.
Лучше поздно, чѣмъ никогда.	Better late than never.

- (2) Short sentences, whether connected by the conjunctions и, а, но or not, are likewise separated by commas.

Это справедливо, а то ложно,	This is true and that is false,
------------------------------	---------------------------------

100. The semicolon must be employed between two or more members of a period, when they are either complex or comprise subordinate or parenthetical clauses, as :

Не тотъ бѣденъ, кто имѣетъ мало; но тотъ, кто желаетъ многого.	Not he is poor who has little, but he who desires much.

IV. THE TONIC ACCENT.—(Слогоударѣніе.)

(See page 29).

101. The accent undergoes transposition in inflexion according to fixed and definite laws, which are easily learnt.

102. The oblique cases of nouns generally retain the accent of the nominative, as, Закѡнъ, тетрадь, gen. закѡна́, тетра́ди, dat. закѡну́, тетра́ди, etc.

103. When the accent is transposed, the change is retained in all subsequent cases. The transposition may begin :

a. With the gen. sing., as : рукáвъ, слонъ ; gen. рукава́, сло́на ; dat. рукаву́, сло́ну, etc.

b. With the nom. plur., as : чинъ, садъ ; gen. чи́на, са́да ; plur. nom. чины́, сады́ ; gen. чинѡ́въ, садо́въ, etc.

c. With the gen. plur., as : зубъ, гробъ ; plur. nom. зубы́, гробы́ ; gen. зубѡ́въ, гробѡ́въ ; dat. зубáмъ, гробáмъ, etc.

104. In the plural of neuter nouns ending in o, e, when the accent is on the first syllable of the nom. sing., it passes to the last, and when on the last passes to the first, as : сло́во, вино́ ; plur. nom. слова́ вина́.

105. In adjectives and passive participles the accent is shifted :

a. To the apocopated termination of the feminine, as :

Но́вый, аросор. м. новъ, ф. новá, н. ново́.

Ви́дный, „ м. ви́денъ, ф. видна́, н. ви́дно.

b. To the apocor. termination of feminine, neuter and plural, as :

Бѣ́лый, аросор. м. бѣлъ, ф. бѣла́, н. бѣло́, пл. бѣлы́.

Хоро́шій, „ м. хорошъ, ф. хороша́, н. хорошо́, пл. хороші́.

To these belong passive participles in анъ, ѣнъ, енъ, and possessive adjectives in инъ, as :

Данъ,	fem. данá,	neut. данó,	plur. даны́.
Ильи́нъ,	„ Ильи́на,	„ Ильи́но,	„ Ильи́ны.

106. In verbs the chief transpositions calling for notice are those of tense, person, gender, and that of number in the past tense.

- (1) The present and past tenses of verbs of the first and second class take the accent on the same syllable, as : чита́ть, ‘to read ;’ pres. чита́ю ; past чита́лъ. But in monosyllabic verbs having two syllables in the present with the accent on the last, the accent is restored to the first syllable in the past, as : пѣ́ть, ‘to sing ;’ pres. пою́ ; past пѣ́лъ, fem. пѣ́ла, neut. пѣ́ло, plur. пѣ́ли.
- (2) Verbs of the fourth class having the accent on the penultimate, transfer it to the final in the past tense, as : горева́ть, ‘to grieve ;’ pres. горю́ю ; past горева́лъ.
- (3) Verbs of the second and third classes having the accent on the termination of the first person, transfer it in the second person to the radical syllable, the change being retained throughout, as : ора́ть, ‘to till ;’ кола́ть, ‘to sting ;’ pres. орю́, колю́ ; second pers. оре́шь, коле́шь ; third pers. оре́тъ, коле́тъ, etc.
- (4) The following three of the ninth class, смотре́ть, ‘to look ;’ терпе́ть, ‘to bear ;’ and держа́ть, ‘to hold ;’ and most verbs of the tenth class also follow this rule, as : смотре́ю, терпе́ю, люблю́ ; second person, смотри́шь, те́рпишь, люби́шь, etc.

Exceptions.—Давать, ‘to give;’ слать, ‘to send,’ preserve the accent in the second pers., as, даю́, шлю́, second pers. даёшь, шлѐшь, etc.

(5) In other classes the transposition takes place as follows :

In the 4th class :—примѹ, 2nd pers. прѣмешь, etc.

7th „ могу́, „ „ мѡжешь, „

8th „ тяну́, „ „ тѣнешь, „

107. According to the second person singular is accented the third pers. sing. and all persons of the plural, as, пишѹ́, пѣшешь, пѣшетъ, пѣшемъ, пѣшете, пѣшутъ.

108. According to the first pers. sing. are accented the persons of the imperative, as, пишѹ́, imperat. пишѣ́, plur. пишѣ́те. But if the imperative end in ѣ́, and the first person pres. in ю́ accented, then the accent necessarily falls on the vowel preceding it, as, стою́, ключю́, imperat. стоѣ́, ключѣ́.

109. When the past tense masc. sing. is monosyllabic without counting the prefix or the suffix ся, the accent is shifted for the other genders and number according to the rule of adjectives and participles.

110. Of the above, those having the past in алъ, ялъ, ялъ, ылъ, shift the accent to the feminine only, such are брать, гнать, дать, драть, ждать, жрать, звать, здать, лгать, врать, ткать, взять, снять, and others formed from the root ять, as also клясть, вить, жить, лѣть, пить, быть, плыть, слыть, мерѣть, перѣть, and their compounds померѣть, отперѣть, as, for example :

братъ, fem. брата́, neut. брало́, plur. брани́.

былъ, „ была́, „ было́, „ были́.

прѣнялъ, „ прѣняла́, „ прѣняло́, „ прѣняли́.

111. All other compounds formed from the root ятъ, which in the masc. take the accent on the prefix, retain it throughout, as, з́анялъ, fem. з́аняла, neut. з́аняло, plur. з́а-няли.

112. Most verbs of the eighth class transfer the accent in the past tense to the termination of the fem. and neut., as also to that of the plural, as : вести́, 'to lead ;' толóчь, 'to pound ;' past вёлъ, толóкъ ; fem. велá, толклá ; neut. велó, толклó ; plur. вели́, толкли́.

113. Some of the above named, when used in reflective form, transfer the accent in the past to the suffix ca for the masculine, but for the femin. and neut. as well as the plur. to the syllable preceding it, as :

брался, fem. бралась, neut. бралось, plur. брались.
принялся, „ привалась, „ принялось; „ привялись.

(1) The following twelve verbs and their participles transfer the accent in the past to the prefix for the masculine, neuter and plural, the feminine retaining the original accent ; such are :

дать, вдать, ять, чать, клясть, лить, пить, жить, плыть, быть, мерсть, персть, as for example :

Masc.	Прѣдалъ, прѣжилъ ;	participle	прѣданъ, прѣжитъ.

канъ, зб́занъ, на́бранъ, пр́жданъ, л́жранъ, на́- бранъ, обб́бранъ, вб́ганъ, пр́спанъ.

115. The prefix вы takes the accent in verbs of perfect aspect throughout all their inflections and in all their derivatives, as : вы́вести, 'to lead out;' past вы́велъ, fut. выведу; imperat. вы́веди, etc.
